Death Papers Introduced At Eichmann Trial

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The state of Israel struck at Adolph Eichmann's story that he never personally ordered the execution of a Jew by introducing as evidence today two death warrants bearing his name.

It was a hard blow against the defense and Eichmann's West German lawyer, Robert Servatius, challenged the documents in vain. He insisted they were not issued by Eichmann's department of the Gestapo, but Attorney General Gideon Hausner established that they were. There were two telegrams and both of them were signed Eichmann.

One death warrant ordered the "special treatment" (execution) of four Jews in the Polish town of Ciechanov and named them. The other one instructed the Nazi commander at the ghetto of Neuhof to hang seven Jews in front of the entire Jewish community.

Eichmann's whose defense is based on the contention that he was a minor official obeying orders from his superiors and that he never personally killed a Jew or ordered one to be killed.

It was a grim day in court. The story of how only 100 Jewish men out of 2,000 survived a Nazi death march through Poland broke the nerves of a spectator at the trial. He rose from his gallery seat and shouted:

"He killed my family. Let me kill him."

GAGARIN FEATURED AT MAY DAY FETE

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

May Day was turned into a political celebration today in Communist capitals. Festivities in Moscow set the pace for the traditional workers' holiday by featuring Maj. Yuri A. Gagarin, the Soviet astronaut.

Gagarin stood alongside Premier Nikita Khrushchev on the Red Square reviewing stand to watch a three-hour parade, only nine minutes of which was taken up with a military show.

Marshal Rodion Malinovsky, Soviet defense minister, boasted of the "most up-to-date means of warfare" for the Soviet armed forces. Gagarin also praised the Communist system in a broadcast.

CHINESE CELEBRATE

Peiping radio reported three million Chinese turned out for rallies in the Communist capital. Foreign Minister Chen Yi appealed for greater unity at home and in "the Socialist camp of the international Communist movement."

Cubans turned out for rallies to hail what Prime Minister Fidel Castro now calls his "Socialist" revolution. Moscow awarded the Cuban prime minister a Lenin peace prize in time for the celebration.

Ernesto Guevera, Cuban economic chief, outlined a four-year plan to develop the island rebublic's resources and said it would depend heavily on support from Communist countries.

In Berlin, another potential East-West point of conflict, goose-stepping soldiers and Soviet tanks paraded in the Communist sector of the city in defiance of a Big Four agreement barring German troops in the divided city.

Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin told a rally of an estimated 700,000 that the Communist military demonstration "is no expression of what the German nation wants." His voice was carried across the East-West border by loudspeakers.

President Tito reviewed a 3½-hour parade in Belgrade marking the 20th anniversary of Yugoslavia's revolution, which was started by his partisans under the Nazi occupation.

BUDAPEST PARADE

Soviet rocketry featured Bupapests parade. Several hundred thousand Hungarians straggled along behind a 20-foot mockup of a Soviet rocket atop the globe. Balloons were set loose carrying cardboard rockets.

Several million Japanese turned out at May Day rallies, where the speakers' demanded closer relations with Communist China. Some workers carried papier mache heads of Castro and Patrice Lumumba, the slain Congo leader.

About 10,000 turned out in Naha, capital of the U.S.-administered island of Okinawa. This was far short of the number hoped for by the organizers.

ANTI-RED SPEECHES

Rallies were also held in South Viet Nam and the Nationalist Chinese island of Formosa. The meetings there were keynoted by anti-Communist speeches.

In the Vatican, Pope John XXIII held a special May Day audience and told 25,000 visitors the Roman Catholic Church has "always supported the moral and economic progress of man."

GOP Tells Ike Kennedy Plan 'Lays Big Egg'

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—Republican congressional leaders informed former President Dwight D. Eisenhwoer today that the Kennedy program "has laid a big egg so far."

The GOP chiefs, in a report on the "first hundred days" of the Kennedy administration, stressed domestic issues. But they also told Eisenhower that members of both parties "were badly shaken" by the Cuban invasion fiasco.

SEPARATE TALKS

Thirteen Republcans from Congress met with the former president. The meeting preceded separate news conferences scheduled by the GOP leaders and Eisenhower.

Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in a prepared statement although Congress has been "inundated" with presidential legislative proposals," not one of the Kennedy proposals have generated any enthusiasm on either the Democratic or the Republican side nor can we find any evidence of real support by the American people.

House GOP leader, Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, in his opening statement on the weekly "Ev and Charlie" show, said he had joined Dirksen in telling Eisenhower that "the Kennedy program has laid a big egg so far."

'NOT WORTHY'

Halleck said the "quality" of Kennedy proposals has "hardly been worthy of the 1960 campaign speeches which President Kennedy made." Added Halleck:

"We have seen no legislative proposals which would deal in any lasting way with economic or unemployment problems; no policy utterances that might be raising our prestige abroad."

This Could Be Dynamite

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Somebody around here has a spare tire with 16 sticks of dynamite in it. Police are trying to find it before there's a blowout.

Two burglars stole the dynamite and hid it in the tubeless spare on a girl friend's car, police said.

Florence located the girl who had sold the car to a dealer, who had sold it to Ray Aguilar.

But Aguilar said the salesman sad switched spares for him before delivering the car, and the salesman can't remember which car he put the other spare tire on.

Authorities had issued a murder warrant yesterday for James Scott Stephens, 16, a Boy Scout, even before the bodies or a weapon had been found.

Nixon Sets Tour

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon begins a national speaking tour this week during which he is expected to attack the Kennedy administration's domestic policies.

Nixon is expected to soft-pedal any criticism of the administration's conduct of foreign affairs because of the need for the nation to present a united bipartisan front to the Communists in the propaganda war over such trouble spots as Laos and Cuba.

Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko said Tshombe will be kept under house arrest indefinitely while the central government pursues its policy of ending all threats at nationwide stability.

Tshombe's secessionist government at Elisabethville sent word Sunday that he should return to the unity talks he stormed away from in disagreement with other Congolese leaders last Wednesday. That act of defiance caused the Congo army to hold him, in hopes of preserving the conference.

Cancer Cases?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Flu and smog apparently are among factors that can help cause lung cancer, a University of Southern California professor says.

Dr. Dean V. Wiseley, assistant professor of pathology, reported Saturday on a 29-month test of 1,600 laboratory mice.

Wiseley said 38 lesions have been found in lung tissues of mice subjected to both flu and smog, compared with 14 for mice exposed to flu alone. No lesions have been found among mice who breathe smoggy air only or those without flu who breathed pure air.

Jobless Aid Bill Signed, Program Chief Named

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy signed the controversial 451-million-dollar depressed areas bill today and said it would be an "important step" toward putting the jobless to work in areas of chronic unemployment.

The president also announced that William Batt Jr., now Pennsylvania commissioner of labor, would be administrator of the program under Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges.

The president signed the measure, one of the major items in his economic program, at a White House ceremony attended by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and major supporters of the legislation. He used almost a score of pens, which later were distributed to the onlookers from Congress.

"This will help make it possible for thousands of Americans who want to work," Kennedy said.

He said his administration wanted to make it possible for all who want work to find jobs and this bill was "an important step in that direction."

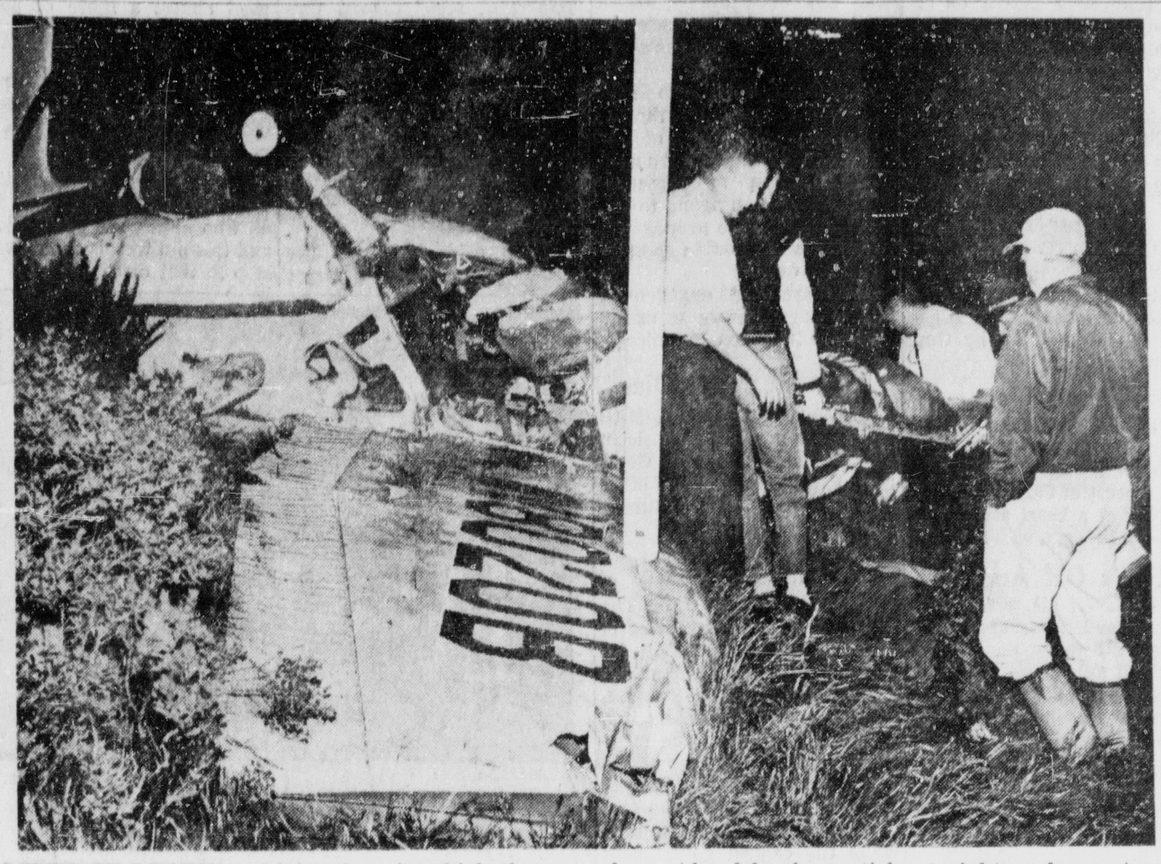
Three Die, One Injured In 2 Marin Air Crashes



SCENE OF DEATH — Light plane in which three persons met death lies, twisted and upside-down, among brush on Green Gulch Ranch in southwest Marin, where it crashed Saturday. Separate Accidents In Gulch, On Ridge

Three Southern California residents were killed and a Daly City pilot walked away with only scratches in two separate light plane crashes in West Marin over the weekend.

Killed Saturday when their plane flew into a hill in heavy fog on the Green Gulch Ranch north of Muir Beach were Carl Sargent Glasgow, 51, and his wife, Virginia Mary, 45, of Santa Barbara, and Lester Rushworth, 55, believed to be the pilot, of Canoga Park, Los Angeles County.

John Torre of Daly City was thrown clear last night when his single engine Cessna 140 crashed on Vision Ridge, on the Ottinger Ranch near Inverness. He wandered in the hills for about two hours before he was found by Louis J. Bloom, assistant chief of the Marin County Fire Department.

TRAGIC COINCIDENCE

Saturday's fatal crash had an added tragic coincidence to it. Roe Young, foreman of the Green Gulch Ranch where the plane fell, went to the scene and found two of the victims, Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow, were friends of his family.

The crash occurred in an area known as "the Saddle," a mile and one-half south of the fire gate at the top of Route 1 where the highway starts down at Green Gulch.

Karen Helmstaedter, 17, and her sister, Jan ,10, discovered the plane in the heavy fog while they were riding horseback toward their home at 627 Northern Avenue, Mill Valley. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Helmstaedter.

SAW MAN'S LEGS

As they rode along the fire trail, they saw a man's legs hanging from the plane, Karen said. They rode to the ranch, owned by George W. Wheelwright, for help.

Wheelwright, his wife Hope, Young and his wife, Paula, went to the scene.

"They were all still in their belts," said Wheelwright. "The tail was broken off and the gas tank, too. There had been no fire. One wheel was on top

Rusk Tells Senators U.S. Planning No Cuba Intervention

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk assured investigating senators today the United States has no plans for armed intervention in Cuba.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said Rusk made this clear during three hours of closed door interrogation by the Latin-American Affairs subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

'OPEN-BREASTED'

Morse, the subcommittee chairman, reported Rusk made an able, factual "and open-breasted" statement concerning this country's role in the ill-fated invasion of Cuba.

Morse quoted Rusk as saying the invasion was made by the Cuban refugees themselves, but that they did have arms, financial and training assistance from the United States.

Rusk was the leadoff witness in the subcommittee's effort to pin down the extent of U. S. involvement in the Cuban invasion fiasco.

He will be followed later this week by Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

ASKED CANDID VIEW

Morse said in advance he would ask Rusk and CIA officials for "a candid and thorough briefing" on everything that has happened concerning Cuba "since this administration assumed office."

While it was billed as a subcommittee inquiry, all members of the full committee were invited to sit in. Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) the Foreign Relations Committee chairman, showed up for this morning's opening.

Rusk was accompanied to the hearing by Brooks Hays, assistant secretary of state for congressional relations, and other aides.

Morse has complained vigorously that the administration failed to inform his subcommittee in advance of the ill-fated invasion of Cuba by Cuban exiles.

Military Aid Increase Again Promised Laos

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is increasing its military aid to South Viet Nam, which borders embattled Laos.

This was disclosed today as President John F. Kennedy prepared to meet again late today with his National Security Council to study the next moves in the major east-west struggle over southeast Asia. See also story on page 10.

Possible moves included use of Allied troops in Laos or South Viet Nam and possible U.N. action.

But officials were maintaining silence to avoid tipping this country's hand.

Kennedy's latest meeting with his top military and civilian advisers — the fourth in nine days — came amid ominous reports that attempts for a peaceful settlement in Laos again were falling apart.

There were these developments:

Laotian King Savang Vathana and Cambodian Prince Norodom Sihanouk were reported calling off the 14-nation political conference on Laos set for May 12 in Geneva.

Ike Asks No 'Witch Hunt' Over Cuba

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) —Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said today the last thing Congress should do at this time is conduct a "witch hunt" investigation of U.S. involvement in the Cuban invasion fiasco. (See also story, page 2)

He spoke at a news conference after a meeting with Republican congressional leaders. Eisenhower said he believes the country stands firmly behind President John F. Kennedy "in his effort to prevent the solidifying of a Communist stronghold in the Western Hemisphere."

In a wide-ranging discussion of world and domestic problems, Eisenhower made these other points:

He has canceled his projected October trip to Japan because of State Department advice that tensions are such that it would be best for him not to go.

The situation in Laos has developed so rapidly in the last few days that he can express no opinion on whether American troops should be employed there.

U.S. ASTRONAUT PLAN

Spaceman Ready But Weather Isn't

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The spaceman and his rocket were ready today but the weather wasn't.

So there was a strong possibility that America's first attempt to fire a human being into space might be postponed from tomorrow until some time later in the week.

But Florida weather is tricky, forecasts sometimes are reversed in a matter of hours, and officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration refused for the time being to predict a balk.

IN QUARTERS

In brief, the forecast for the originally planned flight time was "too cloudy and too windy."

The 66-ton Redstone rocket and the ton-and-a-half mercury spacecraft were ready on Pad No. 5. The "prime" astronaut and his "backup" were ready in their comfortable isolation quarters on the cape.

Nearly 10,000 men — scientists, finely trained technicians, crews of the seven-ship recovery fleet—were ready.

The crucial countdown, the painstaking two-day prelaunch checkout of rocket and cabin equipment, was proceeding "with no complaints," officials said.

Then, with the nation less than 24 hours away from its first brief but critical step toward manned conquest of space, the forecasts turned sour.

The shot is intended to launch an astronaut only 115 miles up and 290 miles down range from the cape. The first U.S. attempt to put a man in orbit around the earth is not scheduled before late this year.

But even a 15-minute space ride is hazardous, however hard the men of mercury have tried to anticipate and eliminate risks.

So NASA had set certain rigid weather specifications, both here and in the recovery area, that nature had to meet before it would jeopardize a life.

A lot of blue had to be showing in the sky. Winds could not exceed 21 miles an hour. After days of favorable forecasts, the outlook went bad.

For shot time tomorrow the prediction was abnormal cloudiness for this season and gusty winds of 21 to 23 miles an hour. The skies might start clearing tomorrow night, the weatherman said. But winds might remain too strong until sometime Thursday.

Much depended on what the forecast is when the time comes to start loading liquid oxygen aboard the 83-foot Redstone 6½ hours before the scheduled shot time.

DELAY TIMES

If the launching were postponed before the oxygen is loaded, the delay could be for as little as 24 hours. A postponement after fueling would necessitate a minimum delay of 48 hours, an official said, because the oxygen would have to be pumped out and the rocket made ready for a new loading.

NASA still was keeping secret identities of the No. 1 and No. 2 astronauts. But speculation centered on Navy Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr., 37-year-old test pilot from East Derry, N.H., for the prime spot.

The other members of the three-man mercury team trained for this flight were Air Force Capt. Virgil I. Grissom, 35, of Mitchell, Ind., and Ma-

THREE-CORNER JOB STUMPS POLICE OFFICER

Give bachelor Officer Ted Zink of Sausalito police a tough teen-ager to handle, and he knows how; but with a seven-month-old baby . . . well . . .

Friday night, Zink accompanied a Sausalito ambulance to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnson at 144 Edwards Avenue, where Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of San Francisco, the baby sitter, been taken suddenly ill.

Zink "stood in" with 7-month-old Milo while Mrs. Williams was taken to San Rafael General Hospital.

But a little later, Officer Zink called police headquarters. Milo was crying and wouldn't stop. What should he do?

Ready for any emergency, police dispatched Officer Michael Berney, father of two.

Marin's Cloudy Skies Expected To Clear

Cloudy skies over Marin are expected to clear tomorrow, the Weather Bureau reported today.

Saturday Marin was sprinkled lightly with showers and yesterday's overcast weather turned into sunshine in the afternoon. Today, skies were heavy with clouds but rain did not fall on most of the county. Muir Woods reported heavy rains this morning.

Saturday's sprinkles amounted to .23 of an inch in Woodacre, .12 in San Rafael and only .05 in San Anselmo.

Military Aid Increase Again Promised Laos

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is increasing its military aid to South Viet Nam, which borders embattled Laos.

This was disclosed today as President John F. Kennedy prepared to meet again late today with his National Security Council to study the next moves in the major east-west struggle over southeast Asia. See also story on page 10.

Possible moves included use of Allied troops in Laos or South Viet Nam and possible U.N. action.

But officials were maintaining silence to avoid tipping this country's hand.

Kennedy's latest meeting with his top military and civilian advisers — the fourth in nine days — came amid ominous reports that attempts for a peaceful settlement in Laos again were falling apart.

There were these developments:

Laotian King Savang Vathana and Cambodian Prince Norodom Sihanouk were reported calling off the 14-nation political conference on Laos set for May 12 in Geneva.

Ike Asks No 'Witch Hunt' Over Cuba

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) —Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said today the last thing Congress should do at this time is conduct a "witch hunt" investigation of U.S. involvement in the Cuban invasion fiasco. (See also story, page 2)

He spoke at a news conference after a meeting with Republican congressional leaders. Eisenhower said he believes the country stands firmly behind President John F. Kennedy "in his effort to prevent the solidifying of a Communist stronghold in the Western Hemisphere."

In a wide-ranging discussion of world and domestic problems, Eisenhower made these other points:

He has canceled his projected October trip to Japan because of State Department advice that tensions are such that it would be best for him not to go.

The situation in Laos has developed so rapidly in the last few days that he can express no opinion on whether American troops should be employed there.

U.S. ASTRONAUT PLAN

Spaceman Ready But Weather Isn't

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The spaceman and his rocket were ready today but the weather wasn't.

So there was a strong possibility that America's first attempt to fire a human being into space might be postponed from tomorrow until some time later in the week.

But Florida weather is tricky, forecasts sometimes are reversed in a matter of hours, and officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration refused for the time being to predict a balk.

IN QUARTERS

In brief, the forecast for the originally planned flight time was "too cloudy and too windy."

The 66-ton Redstone rocket and the ton-and-a-half mercury spacecraft were ready on Pad No. 5. The "prime" astronaut and his "backup" were ready in their comfortable isolation quarters on the cape.

Nearly 10,000 men — scientists, finely trained technicians, crews of the seven-ship recovery fleet—were ready.

The crucial countdown, the painstaking two-day prelaunch checkout of rocket and cabin equipment, was proceeding "with no complaints," officials said.

Then, with the nation less than 24 hours away from its first brief but critical step toward manned conquest of space, the forecasts turned sour.

The shot is intended to launch an astronaut only 115 miles up and 290 miles down range from the cape. The first U.S. attempt to put a man in orbit around the earth is not scheduled before late this year.

But even a 15-minute space ride is hazardous, however hard the men of mercury have tried to anticipate and eliminate risks.

So NASA had set certain rigid weather specifications, both here and in the recovery area, that nature had to meet before it would jeopardize a life.

A lot of blue had to be showing in the sky. Winds could not exceed 21 miles an hour. After days of favorable forecasts, the outlook went bad.

For shot time tomorrow the prediction was abnormal cloudiness for this season and gusty winds of 21 to 23 miles an hour. The skies might start clearing tomorrow night, the weatherman said. But winds might remain too strong until sometime Thursday.

Much depended on what the forecast is when the time comes to start loading liquid oxygen aboard the 83-foot Redstone 6½ hours before the scheduled shot time.

DELAY TIMES

If the launching were postponed before the oxygen is loaded, the delay could be for as little as 24 hours. A postponement after fueling would necessitate a minimum delay of 48 hours, an official said, because the oxygen would have to be pumped out and the rocket made ready for a new loading.

NASA still was keeping secret identities of the No. 1 and No. 2 astronauts. But speculation centered on Navy Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr., 37-year-old test pilot from East Derry, N.H., for the prime spot.

The other members of the three-man mercury team trained for this flight were Air Force Capt. Virgil I. Grissom, 35, of Mitchell, Ind., and Ma-

THREE-CORNER JOB STUMPS POLICE OFFICER

Give bachelor Officer Ted Zink of Sausalito police a tough teen-ager to handle, and he knows how; but with a seven-month-old baby . . . well . . .

Friday night, Zink accompanied a Sausalito ambulance to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnson at 144 Edwards Avenue, where Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of San Francisco, the baby sitter, been taken suddenly ill.

But a little later, Officer Zink called police headquarters. Milo was crying and wouldn't stop. What should he do?

Ready for any emergency, police dispatched Officer Michael Berney, father of two.

Marin's Cloudy Skies Expected To Clear

Cloudy skies over Marin are expected to clear tomorrow, the Weather Bureau reported today.

Saturday Marin was sprinkled lightly with showers and yesterday's overcast weather turned into sunshine in the afternoon. Today, skies were heavy with clouds but rain did not fall on most of the county. Muir Woods reported heavy rains this morning.

Saturday's sprinkles amounted to .23 of an inch in Woodacre, .12 in San Rafael and only .05 in San Anselmo.

Three Die, One Injured In 2 Marin Air Crashes

SCENE OF DEATH — Light plane in which three persons met death lies, twisted and upside-down, among brush on Green Gulch Ranch in southwest Marin, where it crashed Saturday. Strut, torn loose from side of fuselage, sticks straight up from wing. in white shirt, against strut, is Coroner Frank J. Keaton, supervising removal of bodies. At far right is George W. Wheelwright, owner of the ranch. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Separate Accidents In Gulch, On Ridge

Three Southern California residents were killed and a Daly City pilot walked away with only scratches in two separate light plane crashes in West Marin over the weekend.

Killed Saturday when their plane flew into a hill in heavy fog on the Green Gulch Ranch north of Muir Beach were Carl Sargent Glasgow, 51, and his wife, Virginia Mary, 45, of Santa Barbara, and Lester Rushworth, 55, believed to be the pilot, of Canoga Park, Los Angeles County.

John Torre of Daly City was thrown clear last night when his single engine Cessna 140 crashed on Vision Ridge, on the Ottinger Ranch near Inverness. He wandered in the hills for about two hours before he was found by Louis J. Bloom, assistant chief of the Marin County Fire Department.

TRAGIC COINCIDENCE

Saturday's fatal crash had an added tragic coincidence to it. Roe Young, foreman of the Green Gulch Ranch where the plane fell, went to the scene and found two of the victims, Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow, were friends of his family.

The crash occurred in an area known as "the Saddle," a mile and one-half south of the fire gate at the top of Route 1 where the highway starts down at Green Gulch.

Karen Helmstaedter, 17, and her sister, Jan ,10, discovered the plane in the heavy fog while they were riding horseback toward their home at 627 Northern Avenue, Mill Valley. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Helmstaedter.

SAW MAN'S LEGS

As they rode along the fire trail, they saw a man's legs hanging from the plane, Karen said. They rode to the ranch, owned by George W. Wheelwright, for help.

Wheelwright, his wife Hope, Young and his wife, Paula, went to the scene.

"They were all still in their belts," said Wheelwright. "The tail was broken off and the gas tank, too. There had been no fire. One wheel was on top

Rusk Tells Senators U.S. Planning No Cuba Intervention

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk assured investigating senators today the United States has no plans for armed intervention in Cuba.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said Rusk made this clear during three hours of closed door interrogation by the Latin-American Affairs subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

'OPEN-BREASTED'

Morse, the subcommittee chairman, reported Rusk made an able, factual "and open-breasted" statement concerning this country's role in the ill-fated invasion of Cuba.

Morse quoted Rusk as saying the invasion was made by the Cuban refugees themselves, but that they did have arms, financial and training assistance from the United States.

Rusk was the leadoff witness in the subcommittee's effort to pin down the extent of U. S. involvement in the Cuban invasion fiasco.

He will be followed later this week by Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

ASKED CANDID VIEW

Morse said in advance he would ask Rusk and CIA officials for "a candid and thorough briefing" on everything that has happened concerning Cuba "since this administration assumed office."

While it was billed as a subcommittee inquiry, all members of the full committee were invited to sit in. Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) the Foreign Relations Committee chairman, showed up for this morning's opening.

Rusk was accompanied to the hearing by Brooks Hays, assistant secretary of state for congressional relations, and other aides.

Morse has complained vigorously that the administration failed to inform his subcommittee in advance of the ill-fated invasion of Cuba by Cuban exiles.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon begins a national speaking tour this week during which he is expected to attack the Kennedy administration's domestic policies.

Nixon is expected to soft-pedal any criticism of the administration's conduct of foreign affairs because of the need for the nation to present a united bipartisan front to the Communists in the propaganda war over such trouble spots as Laos and Cuba.

Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko said Tshombe will be kept under house arrest indefinitely while the central government pursues its policy of ending all threats at nationwide stability.

Tshombe's secessionist government at Elisabethville sent word Sunday that he should return to the unity talks he stormed away from in disagreement with other Congolese leaders last Wednesday. That act of defiance caused the Congo army to hold him, in hopes of preserving the conference.

Cancer Cases?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Flu and smog apparently are among factors that can help cause lung cancer, a University of Southern California professor says.

Dr. Dean V. Wiseley, assistant professor of pathology, reported Saturday on a 29-month test of 1,600 laboratory mice.

Jobless Aid Bill Signed, Program Chief Named

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy signed the controversial 451-million-dollar depressed areas bill today and said it would be an "important step" toward putting the jobless to work in areas of chronic unemployment.

The president also announced that William Batt Jr., now Pennsylvania commissioner of labor, would be administrator of the program under Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges.

The president signed the measure, one of the major items in his economic program, at a White House ceremony attended by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and major supporters of the legislation. He used almost a score of pens, which later were distributed to the onlookers from Congress.

"This will help make it possible for thousands of Americans who want to work," Kennedy said.

He said his administration wanted to make it possible for all who want work to find jobs and this bill was "an important step in that direction."

Death Papers Introduced At Eichmann Trial

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The state of Israel struck at Adolph Eichmann's story that he never personally ordered the execution of a Jew by introducing as evidence today two death warrants bearing his name.

It was a hard blow against the defense and Eichmann's West German lawyer, Robert Servatius, challenged the documents in vain. He insisted they were not issued by Eichmann's department of the Gestapo, but Attorney General Gideon Hausner established that they were. There were two telegrams and both of them were signed Eichmann.

One death warrant ordered the "special treatment" (execution) of four Jews in the Polish town of Ciechanov and named them. The other one instructed the Nazi commander at the ghetto of Neuhof to hang seven Jews in front of the entire Jewish community.

Eichmann's whose defense is based on the contention that he was a minor official obeying orders from his superiors and that he never personally killed a Jew or ordered one to be killed.

It was a grim day in court. The story of how only 100 Jewish men out of 2,000 survived a Nazi death march through Poland broke the nerves of a spectator at the trial. He rose from his gallery seat and shouted:

"He killed my family. Let me kill him."

GAGARIN FEATURED AT MAY DAY FETE

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

May Day was turned into a political celebration today in Communist capitals. Festivities in Moscow set the pace for the traditional workers' holiday by featuring Maj. Yuri A. Gagarin, the Soviet astronaut.

Gagarin stood alongside Premier Nikita Khrushchev on the Red Square reviewing stand to watch a three-hour parade, only nine minutes of which was taken up with a military show.

Marshal Rodion Malinovsky, Soviet defense minister, boasted of the "most up-to-date means of warfare" for the Soviet armed forces. Gagarin also praised the Communist system in a broadcast.

CHINESE CELEBRATE

Peiping radio reported three million Chinese turned out for rallies in the Communist capital. Foreign Minister Chen Yi appealed for greater unity at home and in "the Socialist camp of the international Communist movement."

Cubans turned out for rallies to hail what Prime Minister Fidel Castro now calls his "Socialist" revolution. Moscow awarded the Cuban prime minister a Lenin peace prize in time for the celebration.

Ernesto Guevera, Cuban economic chief, outlined a four-year plan to develop the island rebublic's resources and said it would depend heavily on support from Communist countries.

In Berlin, another potential East-West point of conflict, goose-stepping soldiers and Soviet tanks paraded in the Communist sector of the city in defiance of a Big Four agreement barring German troops in the divided city.

Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin told a rally of an estimated 700,000 that the Communist military demonstration "is no expression of what the German nation wants." His voice was carried across the East-West border by loudspeakers.

President Tito reviewed a 3½-hour parade in Belgrade marking the 20th anniversary of Yugoslavia's revolution, which was started by his partisans under the Nazi occupation.

BUDAPEST PARADE

Soviet rocketry featured Bupapests parade. Several hundred thousand Hungarians straggled along behind a 20-foot mockup of a Soviet rocket atop the globe. Balloons were set loose carrying cardboard rockets.

Several million Japanese turned out at May Day rallies, where the speakers' demanded closer relations with Communist China. Some workers carried papier mache heads of Castro and Patrice Lumumba, the slain Congo leader.

About 10,000 turned out in Naha, capital of the U.S.-administered island of Okinawa. This was far short of the number hoped for by the organizers.

ANTI-RED SPEECHES

Rallies were also held in South Viet Nam and the Nationalist Chinese island of Formosa. The meetings there were keynoted by anti-Communist speeches.

In the Vatican, Pope John XXIII held a special May Day audience and told 25,000 visitors the Roman Catholic Church has "always supported the moral and economic progress of man."

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—Republican congressional leaders informed former President Dwight D. Eisenhwoer today that the Kennedy program "has laid a big egg so far."

The GOP chiefs, in a report on the "first hundred days" of the Kennedy administration, stressed domestic issues. But they also told Eisenhower that members of both parties "were badly shaken" by the Cuban invasion fiasco.

SEPARATE TALKS

Thirteen Republcans from Congress met with the former president. The meeting preceded separate news conferences scheduled by the GOP leaders and Eisenhower.

Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in a prepared statement although Congress has been "inundated" with presidential legislative proposals," not one of the Kennedy proposals have generated any enthusiasm on either the Democratic or the Republican side nor can we find any evidence of real support by the American people.

House GOP leader, Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, in his opening statement on the weekly "Ev and Charlie" show, said he had joined Dirksen in telling Eisenhower that "the Kennedy program has laid a big egg so far."

'NOT WORTHY'

Halleck said the "quality" of Kennedy proposals has "hardly been worthy of the 1960 campaign speeches which President Kennedy made." Added Halleck:

"We have seen no legislative proposals which would deal in any lasting way with economic or unemployment problems; no policy utterances that might be raising our prestige abroad."

This Could Be Dynamite

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Somebody around here has a spare tire with 16 sticks of dynamite in it. Police are trying to find it before there's a blowout.

Two burglars stole the dynamite and hid it in the tubeless spare on a girl friend's car, police said.

Florence located the girl who had sold the car to a dealer, who had sold it to Ray Aguilar.

But Aguilar said the salesman sad switched spares for him before delivering the car, and the salesman can't remember which car he put the other spare tire on.

HOLLAND, Mich. (UPI)—The bodies of two girls missing since Saturday were found today less than half a mile from their homes and police were searching for a 16-year-old boy charged with murder in their slayings.

They were covered with leaves and were lying in heavy brush.

Authorities had issued a murder warrant yesterday for James Scott Stephens, 16, a Boy Scout, even before the bodies or a weapon had been found.

They said they were convinced he was responsible for the disappearance of Carol Gee, 11, and Margaret Chambers, 12, on the basis of a note he left at his home before disappearing yesterday.

Nixon Sets Tour

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon begins a national speaking tour this week during which he is expected to attack the Kennedy administration's domestic policies.

Nixon is expected to soft-pedal any criticism of the administration's conduct of foreign affairs because of the need for the nation to present a united bipartisan front to the Communists in the propaganda war over such trouble spots as Laos and Cuba.

COQUILHATVILLE, The Congo (AP)—Prompt transfer to Leopoldville is expected for President Moise Tshombe of Katanga, arrested by the Congolese central government in a new try at unifying the country's provincial factions.

Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko said Tshombe will be kept under house arrest indefinitely while the central government pursues its policy of ending all threats at nationwide stability.

Tshombe's secessionist government at Elisabethville sent word Sunday that he should return to the unity talks he stormed away from in disagreement with other Congolese leaders last Wednesday. That act of defiance caused the Congo army to hold him, in hopes of preserving the conference.

Cancer Cases?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Flu and smog apparently are among factors that can help cause lung cancer, a University of Southern California professor says.

Dr. Dean V. Wiseley, assistant professor of pathology, reported Saturday on a 29-month test of 1,600 laboratory mice.

Wiseley said 38 lesions have been found in lung tissues of mice subjected to both flu and smog, compared with 14 for mice exposed to flu alone. No lesions have been found among mice who breathe smoggy air only or those without flu who breathed pure air.

Jobless Aid Bill Signed, Program Chief Named

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy signed the controversial 451-million-dollar depressed areas bill today and said it would be an "important step" toward putting the jobless to work in areas of chronic unemployment.

The president also announced that William Batt Jr., now Pennsylvania commissioner of labor, would be administrator of the program under Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges.

The president signed the measure, one of the major items in his economic program, at a White House ceremony attended by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and major supporters of the legislation. He used almost a score of pens, which later were distributed to the onlookers from Congress.

"This will help make it possible for thousands of Americans who want to work," Kennedy said.

He said his administration wanted to make it possible for all who want work to find jobs and this bill was "an important step in that direction."

Death Papers Introduced At Eichmann Trial

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The state of Israel struck at Adolph Eichmann's story that he never personally ordered the execution of a Jew by introducing as evidence today two death warrants bearing his name.

It was a hard blow against the defense and Eichmann's West German lawyer, Robert Servatius, challenged the documents in vain. He insisted they were not issued by Eichmann's department of the Gestapo, but Attorney General Gideon Hausner established that they were. There were two telegrams and both of them were signed Eichmann.

One death warrant ordered the "special treatment" (execution) of four Jews in the Polish town of Ciechanov and named them. The other one instructed the Nazi commander at the ghetto of Neuhof to hang seven Jews in front of the entire Jewish community.

Eichmann's whose defense is based on the contention that he was a minor official obeying orders from his superiors and that he never personally killed a Jew or ordered one to be killed.

It was a grim day in court. The story of how only 100 Jewish men out of 2,000 survived a Nazi death march through Poland broke the nerves of a spectator at the trial. He rose from his gallery seat and shouted:

"He killed my family. Let me kill him."

GAGARIN FEATURED AT MAY DAY FETE

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

May Day was turned into a political celebration today in Communist capitals. Festivities in Moscow set the pace for the traditional workers' holiday by featuring Maj. Yuri A. Gagarin, the Soviet astronaut.

Gagarin stood alongside Premier Nikita Khrushchev on the Red Square reviewing stand to watch a three-hour parade, only nine minutes of which was taken up with a military show.

Marshal Rodion Malinovsky, Soviet defense minister, boasted of the "most up-to-date means of warfare" for the Soviet armed forces. Gagarin also praised the Communist system in a broadcast.

CHINESE CELEBRATE

Peiping radio reported three million Chinese turned out for rallies in the Communist capital. Foreign Minister Chen Yi appealed for greater unity at home and in "the Socialist camp of the international Communist movement."

Cubans turned out for rallies to hail what Prime Minister Fidel Castro now calls his "Socialist" revolution. Moscow awarded the Cuban prime minister a Lenin peace prize in time for the celebration.

Ernesto Guevera, Cuban economic chief, outlined a four-year plan to develop the island rebublic's resources and said it would depend heavily on support from Communist countries.

In Berlin, another potential East-West point of conflict, goose-stepping soldiers and Soviet tanks paraded in the Communist sector of the city in defiance of a Big Four agreement barring German troops in the divided city.

Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin told a rally of an estimated 700,000 that the Communist military demonstration "is no expression of what the German nation wants." His voice was carried across the East-West border by loudspeakers.

President Tito reviewed a 3½-hour parade in Belgrade marking the 20th anniversary of Yugoslavia's revolution, which was started by his partisans under the Nazi occupation.

BUDAPEST PARADE

Soviet rocketry featured Bupapests parade. Several hundred thousand Hungarians straggled along behind a 20-foot mockup of a Soviet rocket atop the globe. Balloons were set loose carrying cardboard rockets.

Several million Japanese turned out at May Day rallies, where the speakers' demanded closer relations with Communist China. Some workers carried papier mache heads of Castro and Patrice Lumumba, the slain Congo leader.

About 10,000 turned out in Naha, capital of the U.S.-administered island of Okinawa. This was far short of the number hoped for by the organizers.

ANTI-RED SPEECHES

Rallies were also held in South Viet Nam and the Nationalist Chinese island of Formosa. The meetings there were keynoted by anti-Communist speeches.

In the Vatican, Pope John XXIII held a special May Day audience and told 25,000 visitors the Roman Catholic Church has "always supported the moral and economic progress of man."

GOP Tells Ike Kennedy Plan 'Lays Big Egg'

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—Republican congressional leaders informed former President Dwight D. Eisenhwoer today that the Kennedy program "has laid a big egg so far."

The GOP chiefs, in a report on the "first hundred days" of the Kennedy administration, stressed domestic issues. But they also told Eisenhower that members of both parties "were badly shaken" by the Cuban invasion fiasco.

SEPARATE TALKS

Thirteen Republcans from Congress met with the former president. The meeting preceded separate news conferences scheduled by the GOP leaders and Eisenhower.

Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in a prepared statement although Congress has been "inundated" with presidential legislative proposals," not one of the Kennedy proposals have generated any enthusiasm on either the Democratic or the Republican side nor can we find any evidence of real support by the American people.

House GOP leader, Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, in his opening statement on the weekly "Ev and Charlie" show, said he had joined Dirksen in telling Eisenhower that "the Kennedy program has laid a big egg so far."

'NOT WORTHY'

Halleck said the "quality" of Kennedy proposals has "hardly been worthy of the 1960 campaign speeches which President Kennedy made." Added Halleck:

"We have seen no legislative proposals which would deal in any lasting way with economic or unemployment problems; no policy utterances that might be raising our prestige abroad."

Boy Scout Cabins Destroyed By Fire

Fire today destroyed two cabins at Camp Lilienthal, the San Francisco Boy Scout camp above Fairfax, and the caretaker collapsed from exhaustion as he was helping to pull a fire hose up the steep mountainside.

Asst. Chief Louis J. Bloom of the Marin County Fire Department estimated value of the two 20-by-20 foot camp buildings at $2,000. A third camp building was scorched, he reported.

The fire broke in a pile of mattresses in the corner of one of the buildings, which had been vacated at 3 p.m. yesterday by weekend Boy Scout campers. First report was telephoned to the Fairfax Fire Department at 7:45 a.m. by a neighboring resident who saw smoke.

Three minutes later, Mrs. Raymond Briggs, wife of the caretaker, called the county department, which already had a truck on the way from its Woodacre station, having received a relay call from Fairfax.

Four trucks and fire crews were dispatched, and by 8:28 a.m. the blaze was under control, Bloom reported.

Briggs, who is 50, was helping to pull a fire hose to the scene when he collapsed. A fire department resuscitator crew revived him and he was taken to Marin General Hospital. Attendants there said no heart attack was indicated, and he was to be released later today.

Bloom said he was unable to determine the exact cause of the fire but it started in the pile of mattresses. As flames licked up the sides of the frame structure, they leaped quickly to the neighboring one, only about eight feet away.

Camp Lilienthal is used by the San Francisco Boy Scout Council. Nearby Camp Tamarancho is operated by the Marin County Boy Scout Council.

Cancer Fund Drive Starts

The drive for funds to fight cancer in 1961 started today in Marin and will continue tomorrow and Wednesday.

Volunteers are soliciting contributions in the hopes of topping the $31,700 raised locally in 1960, county campaign chairman Leland H. Jordan said.

According to American Cancer Society figures approximately 200 residents of Marin County will die of cancer in 1961.

The door-to-door drive will continue all day for the three days scheduled. The American Cancer Society is not a member of the United Crusade.

SCHOOL BOARD GETS FIRED UP OVER SMOKE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Officials of the suburban Clifton Heights School Board were working overtime on school business last night when the building filled with smoke.

They went from classroom to classroom but couldn't find a fire. An alarm was sounded, summoning three fire companies.

Quentin Inmate, Guard In Fracas Over Movie

A San Quentin Prison inmate attacked a guard who wouldn't let him into a movie Saturday at the prison.

George E. Riddle, serving a five year to life sentence for first degree burglary in Los Angeles, was reported in good condition today in the prison hospital after undergoing surgery for removal of a blood clot.

Riddle suffered the injury after striking correctional officer Raymond W. Stanley. Stanley refused Riddle admittance to a movie matinee Saturday at 3:45 p.m. after telling the prisoner that the movie was over at 4 p.m.

Stanley said Riddle struck him in the face with his fist. The officer then struck Riddle in the shins with a baton. Riddle was finally subdued by a blow to the head with the baton.

Riddle was taken to the hospital and went into a semi-coma prior to surgery. Dale Frady, associate warden at the prison, said today Riddle was "resting comfortably."

AUTO HITS TREE, DRIVER CRITICAL

Rider Hurt As 'Cycle, Vehicle Hit; Daly City Man Hurt As Auto Skids

A San Francisco merchant marine officer was near death today after ramming his automobile into a tree in Novato at 1:20 a.m.

HITS LARGE TREE

The California Highway Patrol said Andrews' sports car left South Novato Boulevard on a curve south of Stone Drive and smashed into a large oak tree. He was alone in the car.

Frankie Clayton Woodard, 21-year-old garage metal man of Forest Knolls, was riding his motorcycle south on the Nicasio-San Geronimo Road a mile south of the Lucas Valley intersection at 1:30 p.m. Immediately behind him rode Miss Oehschlager, while perched on the rear fender was Woodard's wife, Kathleen, 20.

"GOOD CONDITION"

James L. Mooney, 56, of Daly City was in "good condition" today with a neck injury and scalp cuts which he suffered when the car he was driving southbound at 5:45 p.m. Saturday skidded and overturned twice on Highway 101 near Lucas Valley overpass.

A passenger in his car, Hazel Beck, 37, of San Francisco, suffered a fractured pelvis. Both Mooney and Mrs. Beck were taken to San Rafael General Hospital but Mrs. Beck was transferred to the San Francisco City and County Hospital.

Witnesses James and Pearl Henning of 916 Burkhart Avenue, San Leandro, told the deputy sheriff that Mooney swerved in front of their car, and in swerving back, overcorrected, then overturned.

High Court Rules On Rail Workers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today decided the Interstate Commerce Act does not require that employees of merged railroads must be continued in active employment status.

The court ruled on an appeal by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and the Railway Labor Executives' Association. The organizations asked better job protection for workers affected by the 1960 merger of the Erie and Lackawanna railroads.

The Interstate Commerce Act says that as a result of railroad mergers no employees may be placed "in a worse position with respect to their employment" for four years from the date of the Interstate Commerce Commission's merger order. For those who worked for a railroad less than four years, the protective period would equal the time of their service before the merger.

Counsel for the labor organizations told the Supreme Court that provisions fixed by ICC to protect workers in the Erie-Lackawanna merger violated the act. The argument was that employees could be dismissed with financial compensation because of the merger instead of being given comparable jobs.

Burglar Suspect Caught —Returned For Shoes

Richard T. Kaemmer, 21, of Novato, was jailed in a charge of burglary today after he returned to the scene of a crime and walked into the arms of two citizens — one with a rifle.

Kaemmer, of 2 Plaza Loma, Novato, allegedly entered the home of Nicholas Del Priore, 15 Villa Maria, about 12:30 a.m. today.

Nicolas Jr., 13, awoke to see a man in his bedroom. He moaned with fear, waking his father, who entered and turned on a light. They told Novato police that Kaemmer dashed out the front door of the house when the elder Del Priore attempted to question him. He apparently had entered through a sliding glass door.

Police found a pair of shoes in the rear of a vacant house next door to the Del Priore home. About 1:15 a.m., Kaemmer returned for his shoes.

Del Priore spotted a man hidden in weeds near the house and called police again. As officer Floyd Hollowell arrived, he heard a man scrambling through undergrowth. Hollowell followed him into a drainage ditch and over a fence, then returned to the home.

Kaemmer returned yet again for the shoes. This time Del Priore and neighbor Paul J. Thorpe, 20 Villa Maria, were prepared. They circled Kaemmer and held him at the point of Thorpe's 30.06 rifle until police arrived.

The drive for funds to fight cancer in 1961 started today in Marin and will continue tomorrow and Wednesday.

Volunteers are soliciting contributions in the hopes of topping the $31,700 raised locally in 1960, county campaign chairman Leland H. Jordan said.

According to American Cancer Society figures approximately 200 residents of Marin County will die of cancer in 1961.

The door-to-door drive will continue all day for the three days scheduled. The American Cancer Society is not a member of the United Crusade.

SCHOOL BOARD GETS FIRED UP OVER SMOKE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Officials of the suburban Clifton Heights School Board were working overtime on school business last night when the building filled with smoke.

They went from classroom to classroom but couldn't find a fire. An alarm was sounded, summoning three fire companies.

Quentin Inmate, Guard In Fracas Over Movie

A San Quentin Prison inmate attacked a guard who wouldn't let him into a movie Saturday at the prison.

George E. Riddle, serving a five year to life sentence for first degree burglary in Los Angeles, was reported in good condition today in the prison hospital after undergoing surgery for removal of a blood clot.

Riddle suffered the injury after striking correctional officer Raymond W. Stanley. Stanley refused Riddle admittance to a movie matinee Saturday at 3:45 p.m. after telling the prisoner that the movie was over at 4 p.m.

Stanley said Riddle struck him in the face with his fist. The officer then struck Riddle in the shins with a baton. Riddle was finally subdued by a blow to the head with the baton.

Riddle was taken to the hospital and went into a semi-coma prior to surgery. Dale Frady, associate warden at the prison, said today Riddle was "resting comfortably."

AUTO HITS TREE, DRIVER CRITICAL

A San Francisco merchant marine officer was near death today after ramming his automobile into a tree in Novato at 1:20 a.m.

Alexander Andrews, a first mate with Matson Navigation Co., was reported in "poor condition" with a basal skull fracture at Marin General Hospital, where he was transferred after emergency treatment at Novato Hospital.

HITS LARGE TREE

The California Highway Patrol said Andrews' sports car left South Novato Boulevard on a curve south of Stone Drive and smashed into a large oak tree. He was alone in the car.

Frankie Clayton Woodard, 21-year-old garage metal man of Forest Knolls, was riding his motorcycle south on the Nicasio-San Geronimo Road a mile south of the Lucas Valley intersection at 1:30 p.m. Immediately behind him rode Miss Oehschlager, while perched on the rear fender was Woodard's wife, Kathleen, 20.

"GOOD CONDITION"

James L. Mooney, 56, of Daly City was in "good condition" today with a neck injury and scalp cuts which he suffered when the car he was driving southbound at 5:45 p.m. Saturday skidded and overturned twice on Highway 101 near Lucas Valley overpass.

A passenger in his car, Hazel Beck, 37, of San Francisco, suffered a fractured pelvis. Both Mooney and Mrs. Beck were taken to San Rafael General Hospital but Mrs. Beck was transferred to the San Francisco City and County Hospital.

Witnesses James and Pearl Henning of 916 Burkhart Avenue, San Leandro, told the deputy sheriff that Mooney swerved in front of their car, and in swerving back, overcorrected, then overturned.

High Court Rules On Rail Workers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today decided the Interstate Commerce Act does not require that employees of merged railroads must be continued in active employment status.

The court ruled on an appeal by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and the Railway Labor Executives' Association. The organizations asked better job protection for workers affected by the 1960 merger of the Erie and Lackawanna railroads.

The Interstate Commerce Act says that as a result of railroad mergers no employees may be placed "in a worse position with respect to their employment" for four years from the date of the Interstate Commerce Commission's merger order. For those who worked for a railroad less than four years, the protective period would equal the time of their service before the merger.

Counsel for the labor organizations told the Supreme Court that provisions fixed by ICC to protect workers in the Erie-Lackawanna merger violated the act. The argument was that employees could be dismissed with financial compensation because of the merger instead of being given comparable jobs.

Burglar Suspect Caught —Returned For Shoes

Richard E. Kaemmer, 21, of Novato, was jailed in a charge of burglary today after he returned to the scene of a crime and walked into the arms of two citizens — one with a rifle.

Kaemmer, of 2 Plaza Loma, Novato, allegedly entered the home of Nicholas Del Priore, 15 Villa Maria, about 12:30 a.m. today.

Nicolas Jr., 13, awoke to see a man in his bedroom. He moaned with fear, waking his father, who entered and turned on a light. They told Novato police that Kaemmer dashed out the front door of the house when the elder Del Priore attempted to question him. He apparently had entered through a sliding glass door.

Police found a pair of shoes in the rear of a vacant house next door to the Del Priore home. About 1:15 a.m., Kaemmer returned for his shoes.

Del Priore spotted a man hidden in weeds near the house and called police again. As officer Floyd Hollowell arrived, he heard a man scrambling through undergrowth. Hollowell followed him into a drainage ditch and over a fence, then returned to the home.

Kaemmer returned yet again for the shoes. This time Del Priore and neighbor Paul J. Thorpe, 20 Villa Maria, were prepared. They circled Kaemmer and held him at the point of Thorpe's 30.06 rifle until police arrived.

Boy Scout Cabins Destroyed By Fire

Fire today destroyed two cabins at Camp Lilienthal, the San Francisco Boy Scout camp above Fairfax, and the caretaker collapsed from exhaustion as he was helping to pull a fire hose up the steep mountainside.

Asst. Chief Louis J. Bloom of the Marin County Fire Department estimated value of the two 20-by-20 foot camp buildings at $2,000. A third camp building was scorched, he reported.

The fire broke in a pile of mattresses in the corner of one of the buildings, which had been vacated at 3 p.m. yesterday by weekend Boy Scout campers. First report was telephoned to the Fairfax Fire Department at 7:45 a.m. by a neighboring resident who saw smoke.

Three minutes later, Mrs. Raymond Briggs, wife of the caretaker, called the county department, which already had a truck on the way from its Woodacre station, having received a relay call from Fairfax.

Four trucks and fire crews were dispatched, and by 8:28 a.m. the blaze was under control, Bloom reported.

Briggs, who is 50, was helping to pull a fire hose to the scene when he collapsed. A fire department resuscitator crew revived him and he was taken to Marin General Hospital. Attendants there said no heart attack was indicated, and he was to be released later today.

Bloom said he was unable to determine the exact cause of the fire but it started in the pile of mattresses. As flames licked up the sides of the frame structure, they leaped quickly to the neighboring one, only about eight feet away.

Turn About's Fair Play, They Say —2 Architects Remodel Own Offices

If you have noticed the remodeling going on at 1539 Fourth Street, San Rafael, it is designed for improved office facilities of the architectural firm of Carl F. Gromme and Ralph B. Priestly at ground floor level. Gromme and Priestly heretofore have occupied the second floor. Spacious reception and conference rooms supplemented by greatly enlarged design and drafting accommodations are in the making.

The upper floor will be divided into offices and drafting rooms for Robert Ritter, consulting electrical and mechanical engineer, and Harold M. Engle, structural engineer, and their staffs.

More room for everyone and an excellent example of upgrading an old structure into a modern, attractive building.

Gromme and Priestly are the architects for the new Pacific Gas and Electric Co. building to be erected at Third and Brooks Streets, San Rafael.

U.S. Chamber Opens 49th Annual Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Misdeeds of a few businessmen can blemish the whole free enterprise system, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce President Arthur H. Motley said today.

It is not the chamber's function to enforce the antitrust laws, Motley said in an address prepared for the opening of the organization's 49th annual meeting here.

But he told 3,000 business delegates:

"Our free market economic system demands protection against such violations as the recently exposed price fixing conspiracy among electrical equipment manufacturers.

"Competition must be maintained," said Motley, publisher of Parade magazine. "The antitrust laws are a proper form of government regulation and those laws must be obeyed.

"Violations should be punished, and all businessmen should recognize that even the relatively few misdeeds of this nature tend to weaken the whole economic system and make it harder to defend against those who want to change it," he said.

Motley said many of his friends have asked "why doesn't the chamber do something about these price fixers?"

Enforcement and punishment in the anti-trust field is the function of the Justice Department and the courts," he said.

"The duty of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States is to support the anti-trust laws, but not to go beyond them in vigilante fashion and try to impose its own brand of punishment on wrongdoers."

There was some indication that the chamber's directors might try to draft a recommended code of ethics for industry and offer it for the approval of delegates.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges has a 24-member committee of his own working on such a code, which he hopes can provide the basis for declarations of principle by business organizations, trade associations, and individual companies.

Seven Teeners Jailed After Beer Party

A Sausalito beer party turned into something of a melee Saturday night, with seven teenagers taken into police custody.

Five were booked into county jail and nine youngsters were reprimanded and released to their parents. One 16-year-old into juvenile hall.

Police Chief Howard Goerndt said he was tipped early in the week that a teen-age drinking party was being planned. He had four regular officers plus reserves on duty besides himself.

The party was at the home of Carl G. Wooley, former planning commissioner, at 510 Pine Street. However, according to Juvenile officer Ted Zink, the offenders were not in the home but outside in their cars.

Booked at 1:30 a.m. yesterday possession of alcoholic beverages by minors were Peter Haluska, 18 of 143 Blackfield Drive, Belvedere; Floyd Dean, 18 of Apt. C-23, Marin City; Leonard Beckett, 18, of 77 Tomales Street, Sausalito, and Kenneth Suzuki, 18, of 5 Colma Street, Sausalito.

Edmond Prosch, 19, of Wisteria Way, Mill Valley, was booked on a charge of resisting arrest, and William M. Cavanaugh, 18, of 32 Ryan Street, Mill Valley, on a charge of being drunk in a public place.

A Bel Aire 16-year-old, already on probation, was booked at Juvenile Hall for possession of alcoholic beverage by a minor.

Youngsters were picked up in groups, Zink said, most of them in cars, and all in the party area. In most cases they had beer in the car and admitted drinking it. Some were outside of their cars and "having difficulty walking," Zink said.

SUNDAY SERMON

Pastor Says God's Blessings Are Ours

Describing a relationship between God and man, Pastor Jerald H. Traeger told his congregation at the First Baptist Church of San Anselmo yesterday on the first day of the church's "Mission Emphasis Week," that "God's blessings will be found upon our own level as we live before our fellowmen and are concerned about their well being."

Said Pastor Traeger: "Someone has well said and it has often been quoted that God reaches in two directions: 'He reaches down and He reaches out.'

STORY TOLD

"The story of the woman who touched the hem of Christ's garment is an excellent illustration of both God's downreach and His outreach. A woman with a deep sense of need quietly joined a throng about Jesus. She reached out her hand and with a touch of faith touched the hem of Christ's garment and with the touch came healing. She received an answer to her prayers — her faith was rewarded—and now she was content to go her way, but the Great Physician would make much more of the incident.

"The woman had experienced the healing of God's downreach and was content to go her way forgetful of His outreach. Jesus would not let her do so. He had a lesson for her to learn and for all of us who wish to remain unidentified partakers of His goodness, neglectful of the needs of others. Our Lord desires that God's blessings to us should flow forth through us to others.

"In a coal mine there are usually shafts sunk deep into the heart of the earth. The sinking of those shafts is done at great expense and the cost involved is never justified by the amount of coal found at the bottom of the shaft. The mine plays for itself through the outreach from the shaft as miners follow the rich vein of coal.

"And so in our relation to God, it is the outreach that bears fruit, that causes the downreach to be worth while. The importance of man's relationship with God cannot be over emphasized, it is vital, but the reward of God's blessings will be found upon our own level as we live before our fellowmen and are concerned about their well being.

MESSAGES OF LOVE

"The world needs to hear the message of God's love, but it cannot hear unless there is someone to tell it. We who have received so abundantly of God's Grace, His foregiveness, His strength, His blessings must be willing to confess Him before men and take the message of the Gospel to all people.

"God's downreach and God's outreach work together in perfect harmony. Actually they complete a cycle: the one extending the other only to find itself strengthened and enriched. We who have received His downreach must not hinder but rather be a clear channel for His outreach.

Sausalito Democratic Club Meeting Set

An organizational meeting of the Sausalito Democratic Club will be held at 8:15 p.m. Thursday at Zacks by the Bay in Sausalito, according to Mrs. Myra Wise, temporary secretary.

Election of officers and adoption of bylaws will be held, with Robert Green, temporary chairman, presiding.

This Thief Knew What He Wanted

A burglar who knew exactly what he wanted and apparently can get into apartments without forcing the door, took $140 in cash from the apartment of Jo Ann Louise Fedje, 24, at 192 Belvedere Street, San Rafael police reported today.

Miss Fedje told police she returned home from a movie about 1:45 a.m. today, locked the door and took her purse into her bedroom.

When her sister, Carol Jean Fedje, 22, got up at 5:20 a.m., the front door was open. Jo-Ann's purse was in the living room. The $140 it had contained was missing.

This was the fifth burglary in recent months in the same apartment house in which there has been no evidence of a door being forced, police said.

Pharmacist Held On Dope Charge

A Mill Valley registered pharmacist formerly employed at a Vallejo drug store was in Solano County jail today, held for investigation on suspicion of possession of drugs.

James G. Duffy, 35, of 8 Robertson Terrace, was to appear in Municipal Court in Vallejo today or tomorrow.

Vallejo police said they found 784 tablets, pills and capsules containing narcotics, hypnotic and stimulant drugs in his possession without a prescription. They picked him up Thursday after they received a report he was carrying a gun. The weapon, they found, was a starting pistol which only fires blanks.

The cache of drugs was found distributed throughout Duffy's auto.

New TB Cases Found In Minifilm Service

Four new cases and two reinfected cases of tuberculosis were discovered during 1960 by the Minifilm Chest X-Ray service, according to the annual report of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. released today.

The chest X-Ray service, provided and financed by the Christmas Seal Organization in cooperation with Marin General Hospital, is only one of many services performed by the Marin TB and Health Assn., Mrs. William Hoxie, president, announced.

"The 1960-61 Christmas Seal campaign was the most successful in the history of the Marin association," said Mrs. Hoxie. "A total of $32,000 was contributed, representing 12 per cent increase over the previous year."

Among other accomplishments during the past year were these:

Educational literature for teaching aids were provided schools. The second annual high school speech contest and a workshop for laboratory personnel were conducted. Services to TB patients included distribution of educational literature, weekly visiting, and personal shopping by volunteers.

"In addition to the many hours of volunteer work by the board of directors of the association, more than 120 individuals gave well over 2,600 hours of their time in combatting tuberculosis," said Mrs. Hoxie.

During the 1960-1961 fiscal year the local TB Association spent in Marin County $8,471 for health education, $7,883 for case detection, $1,070 for patient services and rehabilitation, and $990 for statistics and fact finding. The research allocations totaled $2,063; and support of state and national programs totaled $5,071. The Marin association's administrative costs were $1,339 and costs to conduct the Christmas Seal Campaign were $4,278.

San Rafael Completes Record Building Month

The City of San Rafael has just completed its biggest month for building permits, Building Inspector Andrew Thomas announced.

During April, San Rafael issued permits for a total of $3,853,258 in new construction, mostly new homes.

"This is the biggest month in the four years since I've been head of the building department," Thomas said. "I'm sure that it is the biggest month on record."

Permits issued for major construction included 122 residences for Eichler homes, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph building worth $548,000 and the D Street Apartments of 22 units valued at $215,000.

Thus far this year, San Rafael has issued permits for construction worth $7,070,530, as campared with $4,205,239 for the same period last year.

"The building in San Rafael has shown a steady increase since the recession year of 1957," Thomas said. "Building permits in 1958 were $6,314,401; in 1959, $10,931,859 and in 1960 $15,999,578."

This represents a steady growth of about one third more per year.

"If the present rate continues, we should hit $20,000,000 this year," Thomas said.

The city receives approximately twice as much in fees as the expenses of the building department, Thomas added.

Spacious reception and conference rooms supplemented by greatly enlarged design and drafting accommodations are in the making.

The upper floor will be divided into offices and drafting rooms for Robert Ritter, consulting electrical and mechanical engineer, and Harold M. Engle, structural engineer, and their staffs.

More room for everyone and an excellent example of upgrading an old structure into a modern, attractive building.

Gromme and Priestly are the architects for the new Pacific Gas and Electric Co. building to be erected at Third and Brooks Streets, San Rafael.

U.S. Chamber Opens 49th Annual Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Misdeeds of a few businessmen can blemish the whole free enterprise system, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce President Arthur H. Motley said today.

It is not the chamber's function to enforce the antitrust laws, Motley said in an address prepared for the opening of the organization's 49th annual meeting here.

But he told 3,000 business delegates:

"Our free market economic system demands protection against such violations as the recently exposed price fixing conspiracy among electrical equipment manufacturers.

"Competition must be maintained," said Motley, publisher of Parade magazine. "The antitrust laws are a proper form of government regulation and those laws must be obeyed.

"Violations should be punished, and all businessmen should recognize that even the relatively few misdeeds of this nature tend to weaken the whole economic system and make it harder to defend against those who want to change it," he said.

Motley said many of his friends have asked "why doesn't the chamber do something about these price fixers?"

Enforcement and punishment in the anti-trust field is the function of the Justice Department and the courts," he said.

"The duty of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States is to support the anti-trust laws, but not to go beyond them in vigilante fashion and try to impose its own brand of punishment on wrongdoers."

There was some indication that the chamber's directors might try to draft a recommended code of ethics for industry and offer it for the approval of delegates.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges has a 24-member committee of his own working on such a code, which he hopes can provide the basis for declarations of principle by business organizations, trade associations, and individual companies.

Five were booked into county jail and nine youngsters were reprimanded and released to their parents. One 16-year-old into juvenile hall.

Police Chief Howard Goerndt said he was tipped early in the week that a teen-age drinking party was being planned. He had four regular officers plus reserves on duty besides himself.

The party was at the home of Carl G. Wooley, former planning commissioner, at 510 Pine Street. However, according to Juvenile officer Ted Zink, the offenders were not in the home but outside in their cars.

Booked at 1:30 a.m. yesterday possession of alcoholic beverages by minors were Peter Haluska, 18 of 143 Blackfield Drive, Belvedere; Floyd Dean, 18 of Apt. C-23, Marin City; Leonard Beckett, 18, of 77 Tomales Street, Sausalito, and Kenneth Suzuki, 18, of 5 Colma Street, Sausalito.

Edmond Prosch, 19, of Wisteria Way, Mill Valley, was booked on a charge of resisting arrest, and William M. Cavanaugh, 18, of 32 Ryan Street, Mill Valley, on a charge of being drunk in a public place.

A Bel Aire 16-year-old, already on probation, was booked at Juvenile Hall for possession of alcoholic beverage by a minor.

Youngsters were picked up in groups, Zink said, most of them in cars, and all in the party area. In most cases they had beer in the car and admitted drinking it. Some were outside of their cars and "having difficulty walking," Zink said.

This Thief Knew What He Wanted

A burglar who knew exactly what he wanted and apparently can get into apartments without forcing the door, took $140 in cash from the apartment of Jo Ann Louise Fedje, 24, at 192 Belvedere Street, San Rafael police reported today.

Miss Fedje told police she returned home from a movie about 1:45 a.m. today, locked the door and took her purse into her bedroom.

When her sister, Carol Jean Fedje, 22, got up at 5:20 a.m., the front door was open. Jo-Ann's purse was in the living room. The $140 it had contained was missing.

This was the fifth burglary in recent months in the same apartment house in which there has been no evidence of a door being forced, police said.

Pharmacist Held On Dope Charge

A Mill Valley registered pharmacist formerly employed at a Vallejo drug store was in Solano County jail today, held for investigation on suspicion of possession of drugs.

James G. Duffy, 35, of 8 Robertson Terrace, was to appear in Municipal Court in Vallejo today or tomorrow.

Vallejo police said they found 784 tablets, pills and capsules containing narcotics, hypnotic and stimulant drugs in his possession without a prescription. They picked him up Thursday after they received a report he was carrying a gun. The weapon, they found, was a starting pistol which only fires blanks.

The cache of drugs was found distributed throughout Duffy's auto.

New TB Cases Found In Minifilm Service

Four new cases and two reinfected cases of tuberculosis were discovered during 1960 by the Minifilm Chest X-Ray service, according to the annual report of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. released today.

The chest X-Ray service, provided and financed by the Christmas Seal Organization in cooperation with Marin General Hospital, is only one of many services performed by the Marin TB and Health Assn., Mrs. William Hoxie, president, announced.

"The 1960-61 Christmas Seal campaign was the most successful in the history of the Marin association," said Mrs. Hoxie. "A total of $32,000 was contributed, representing 12 per cent increase over the previous year."

Among other accomplishments during the past year were these:

Educational literature for teaching aids were provided schools. The second annual high school speech contest and a workshop for laboratory personnel were conducted. Services to TB patients included distribution of educational literature, weekly visiting, and personal shopping by volunteers.

"In addition to the many hours of volunteer work by the board of directors of the association, more than 120 individuals gave well over 2,600 hours of their time in combatting tuberculosis," said Mrs. Hoxie.

During the 1960-1961 fiscal year the local TB Association spent in Marin County $8,471 for health education, $7,883 for case detection, $1,070 for patient services and rehabilitation, and $990 for statistics and fact finding. The research allocations totaled $2,063; and support of state and national programs totaled $5,071. The Marin association's administrative costs were $1,339 and costs to conduct the Christmas Seal Campaign were $4,278.

A Mill Valley registered pharmacist formerly employed at a Vallejo drug store was in Solano County jail today, held for investigation on suspicion of possession of drugs.

James G. Duffy, 35, of 8 Robertson Terrace, was to appear in Municipal Court in Vallejo today or tomorrow.

Vallejo police said they found 784 tablets, pills and capsules containing narcotics, hypnotic and stimulant drugs in his possession without a prescription. They picked him up Thursday after they received a report he was carrying a gun. The weapon, they found, was a starting pistol which only fires blanks.

The cache of drugs was found distributed throughout Duffy's auto.

New TB Cases Found In Minifilm Service

Four new cases and two reinfected cases of tuberculosis were discovered during 1960 by the Minifilm Chest X-Ray service, according to the annual report of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. released today.

The chest X-Ray service, provided and financed by the Christmas Seal Organization in cooperation with Marin General Hospital, is only one of many services performed by the Marin TB and Health Assn., Mrs. William Hoxie, president, announced.

"The 1960-61 Christmas Seal campaign was the most successful in the history of the Marin association," said Mrs. Hoxie. "A total of $32,000 was contributed, representing 12 per cent increase over the previous year."

Among other accomplishments during the past year were these:

Educational literature for teaching aids were provided schools. The second annual high school speech contest and a workshop for laboratory personnel were conducted. Services to TB patients included distribution of educational literature, weekly visiting, and personal shopping by volunteers.

"In addition to the many hours of volunteer work by the board of directors of the association, more than 120 individuals gave well over 2,600 hours of their time in combatting tuberculosis," said Mrs. Hoxie.

During the 1960-1961 fiscal year the local TB Association spent in Marin County $8,471 for health education, $7,883 for case detection, $1,070 for patient services and rehabilitation, and $990 for statistics and fact finding. The research allocations totaled $2,063; and support of state and national programs totaled $5,071. The Marin association's administrative costs were $1,339 and costs to conduct the Christmas Seal Campaign were $4,278.

San Rafael Completes Record Building Month

The City of San Rafael has just completed its biggest month for building permits, Building Inspector Andrew Thomas announced.

"This is the biggest month in the four years since I've been head of the building department," Thomas said. "I'm sure that it is the biggest month on record."

Permits issued for major construction included 122 residences for Eichler homes, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph building worth $548,000 and the D Street Apartments of 22 units valued at $215,000.

Thus far this year, San Rafael has issued permits for construction worth $7,070,530, as campared with $4,205,239 for the same period last year.

"The building in San Rafael has shown a steady increase since the recession year of 1957," Thomas said. "Building permits in 1958 were $6,314,401; in 1959, $10,931,859 and in 1960 $15,999,578."

This represents a steady growth of about one third more per year.

"If the present rate continues, we should hit $20,000,000 this year," Thomas said.

The city receives approximately twice as much in fees as the expenses of the building department, Thomas added.

"Freedom under law is like the air we breathe. People take it for granted and are unaware of it—until they are deprived of it."

Men have died to leave YOU these 4 symbols of freedom —

(First amendment, U. S. Constitution)

(Fourth amendment, U.S. Constitution)

Brown Seeks Way To Speed His Program

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown's call for a "people's lobby" to help put over his slow-moving program today pointed up a growing problem in the 1961 legislature.

The problem: How to get action on more than 2,000 bills still before the lawmakers in the barely seven weeks left of the 156-day session.

FAR BEHIND

Brown, far behind his 1959 pace, showed concern over the fact that little of his own program has cleared the Democratic majorities in both houses.

Legislative leaders apparently aren't worried. The senate took the day off to go picnicking at a Napa Valley winery, and the Assembly planned to debate the death penalty issue all over again.

Two weeks ago Brown signed a letter to "Dear Fellow Democrats" throughout the state asking support for his legislation, particularly on narcotics.

The bill boosting narcotics penalties was voted to the governor's desk last Friday. But with administration budget, education, reorganization, traffic safety, welfare and other bills still lagging, the Democratic chief executive issued another appeal.

SEEKS INFLUENCE

Speaking to a Democratic women's legislative seminar last night, he emphasized that time was running out and asked the delegates to lobby for him.

"I earnestly suggest to you that during the next two days, and after you return to your homes, you bring the power of your people's lobby into full play," he said.

Police Probing Death Of Marin Teacher

San Francisco homicide officers continued today to probe the death of Ross teacher William P. Hall, fatally injured by a streetcar early Saturday morning after he apparently was robbed and slugged near his San Francisco home.

Officers said it still has not been definitely determined just what happened before Hall was struck by the streetcar as he lay on the tracks, waving his arms weakly.

Investigators had two theories: Hall either collapsed on the tracks after he was slugged, or was placed there by his attacker to cover up the crime.

Hall's body was sent to Nacogdoches, Tex., today for funeral services and burial. His mother, Mrs. Effie May Hall, lives in Lamarque, Tex.

Hall had taught eighth grade in Ross School since last February. He was a native of Texas.

Subdivision Ordinance To Be Read

City Manager Britton Rey explained the revised section will authorize the Belvedere Planning Commission to report to subdividers directly its action under the ordinance.

Councilmen will also hear a report from the city engineer on the Crest Road water storage tank

Young Man About Town Is Jailed

A young San Rafael man and his San Francisco companion tried to make an unconventional exit from the Mark Hopkins Hotel yesterday— and wound up in jail.

Richard Skinner, 22, of 325 Fairhills Drive, son of a former San Anselmo city councilman, and his friend Michael Lumpy, also 22, were charged with being drunk and defrauding an innkeeper.

They were released on bail for appearance in San Francisco Municipal Court today.

HAD ONLY $5

The pair started out on the town Saturday night with $5 between them, and wound up living in luxury at the Mark until suspicious hotel officials called police.

Police said the boys spent their money on drinks in the Fairmont Hotel, across the street from the Mark, then tried to check in and live on credit. It didn't work because they had no luggage.

So they went home, packed a couple of suitcases, and checked into the Mark. Skinner signed the register with a fictitious name and said he was an advertising executive from Phoenix.

They kept room service busy bringing scotches, and ordered more drinks in the bars. They eventually ran up a bill totaling $137.43.

The hotel called police after they found the big spenders' luggage in the shrubbery beneath their window, a length of wire still dangling from it. The suitcases contained more scotch, towels, bath mats, books, a desk blotter and telephone directory, all belonging to the hotel.

Skinner and Lumpy were nabbed in an elevator by a house detective. "We did it as a gag," they explained.

Military Academy Boys Digs Up Indian Bones

Ever since Mrs. Merle Coppock told her arts and crafts students at San Rafael Military Academy that her house was built on an old Indian burial ground, they've been begging her to let them go digging.

Last week she agreed. Nine of the youngsters turned up Thursday at her house at 4 Hillside Avenue, Kentfield.

They dug in the back yard, and four feet down they started to find skeletons.

The boys unearthed three or four skeletons, apparently of Miwok Indians. The remains are believed to be 800 to 1,000 years old, judging from a University of California report on a skeleton found previously in the area.

Mrs. Coppock's husband, Irvin, a chemistry teacher at the academy, plans to send some sample bones to the university to have a test made to determine their age.

The young "archeologists" are Jed Stevenson, Sam Barnum and Stephen Nelson of Hamilton Air Force Base, Scott Davaly of Berkeley, Michael Leong of Sacramento, Martin Gold of San Francisco, Charles Aby, Stephen Schoonmaker and Bart Norman of San Rafael.

What was their reaction when they unearthed the skeletons? "They felt like they had discovered King Tut's tomb," reports Albert C. Agnew, academy business administrator.

Town Council Meets Tonight

Two admendments to the zoning ordinance, both approved by the planning commission, will come before the Corte Madera Town Council tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the town hall.

One would rezone six lots in Fifer Industrial Park from highway commercial to shopping district commercial. The other would permit construction of fences to a height of eight feet in side yards.

The council will hear a protest from the Meadowsweet Improvement Assn. regarding a proposed rezoning of 188 acres of county land adjacent to Corte Madera and Mill Valley. The town planning commission last week opposed the rezoning which would permit construction of apartment houses.

Salary Schedule On Tap Tonight For Tam Board

A salary schedule for teachers in Tamalpais Union High School District will be discussed by board members tonight at 8 o'clock in the district office in Larkspur.

Two salary schedule proposals have been submitted by the District Teachers Assn. One would be in effect for two years and range from $5,450 to $10,200. The other would run for one year starting at $5,315 with a $9,960 maximum.

The trustees will consider 23 teachers eligible for tenure next year. A decision is scheduled to be made on a language laboratory for Tamalpais High School on which five bids were submitted.

Fairfax Couple Fete 60 Years Of Marriage

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ravani of 26 Acacia Road, Fairfax, yesterday helped the couple celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax.

Charles Ravani married Rose Borel in Notre Dame De Victoire Church in San Francisco, April 30, 1901. Ravani worked as a plumber during the first part of his life. The couple survived the earthquake and fire in San Francisco in 1906.

In 1913 they moved to Marin County where Ravani continued work as a plumber. The following year he went to work in the street department of the City of Fairfax. He worked there for 30 years, retiring in 1944.

Ravani has been a volunteer fireman throughout his life in Fairfax. He is the oldest member of the California State Firemen's Assn.

All seven of the children and their husbands and wives, all 14 grandchildren and one great grandchild attended the observance.

Friends, Patients Rallying To Defense Of Dr. O'Rourke

Friends and former patients of Dr. Paul F. O'Rourke, former Novato physician who resigned last week as Imperial County health officer, are rallying to his defense.

Fairfax contractor Tom Hotchkin has collected about 30 letters in support of Dr. O'Rourke from Marin residents. He plans to forward them to the Imperial County Board of Supervisors, Mrs. Hotchkin said today.

After the resignation and the controversy stirred up by it, Hotchkin wired the doctor to "come back to Marin County where you are appreciated."

O'Rourke wired back that he would give "serious consideration" to the offer "after I have finished this fight."

The doctor's resignation, incited by a controversy over his wife's refusal to salute the flag, was accepted by the Imperial supervisors after they heard letters from Dr. Warren L. Bostick of San Rafael.

Dr. Bostick, who is to be installed Wednesday as president of the California Medical Assn., attacked O'Rourke's views on organized medicine as "hostile" and "disruptive."

O'Rourke charged Bostick with "violation of professional ethics" when he wrote the letters and accused him of "unwarranted interference."

Two admendments to the zoning ordinance, both approved by the planning commission, will come before the Corte Madera Town Council tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the town hall.

Fairfax Couple Fete 60 Years Of Marriage

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ravani of 26 Acacia Road, Fairfax, yesterday helped the couple celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax.

Charles Ravani married Rose Borel in Notre Dame De Victoire Church in San Francisco, April 30, 1901. Ravani worked as a plumber during the first part of his life. The couple survived the earthquake and fire in San Francisco in 1906.

In 1913 they moved to Marin County where Ravani continued work as a plumber. The following year he went to work in the street department of the City of Fairfax. He worked there for 30 years, retiring in 1944.

Ravani has been a volunteer fireman throughout his life in Fairfax. He is the oldest member of the California State Firemen's Assn.

Friends and former patients of Dr. Paul F. O'Rourke, former Novato physician who resigned last week as Imperial County health officer, are rallying to his defense.

Fairfax contractor Tom Hotchkin has collected about 30 letters in support of Dr. O'Rourke from Marin residents. He plans to forward them to the Imperial County Board of Supervisors, Mrs. Hotchkin said today.

After the resignation and the controversy stirred up by it, Hotchkin wired the doctor to "come back to Marin County where you are appreciated."

O'Rourke wired back that he would give "serious consideration" to the offer "after I have finished this fight."

The doctor's resignation, incited by a controversy over his wife's refusal to salute the flag, was accepted by the Imperial supervisors after they heard letters from Dr. Warren L. Bostick of San Rafael.

Dr. Bostick, who is to be installed Wednesday as president of the California Medical Assn., attacked O'Rourke's views on organized medicine as "hostile" and "disruptive."

O'Rourke charged Bostick with "violation of professional ethics" when he wrote the letters and accused him of "unwarranted interference."

Brown Seeks Way To Speed His Program

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown's call for a "people's lobby" to help put over his slow-moving program today pointed up a growing problem in the 1961 legislature.

The problem: How to get action on more than 2,000 bills still before the lawmakers in the barely seven weeks left of the 156-day session.

FAR BEHIND

Brown, far behind his 1959 pace, showed concern over the fact that little of his own program has cleared the Democratic majorities in both houses.

Legislative leaders apparently aren't worried. The senate took the day off to go picnicking at a Napa Valley winery, and the Assembly planned to debate the death penalty issue all over again.

Two weeks ago Brown signed a letter to "Dear Fellow Democrats" throughout the state asking support for his legislation, particularly on narcotics.

The bill boosting narcotics penalties was voted to the governor's desk last Friday. But with administration budget, education, reorganization, traffic safety, welfare and other bills still lagging, the Democratic chief executive issued another appeal.

SEEKS INFLUENCE

Speaking to a Democratic women's legislative seminar last night, he emphasized that time was running out and asked the delegates to lobby for him.

"I earnestly suggest to you that during the next two days, and after you return to your homes, you bring the power of your people's lobby into full play," he said.

Police Probing Death Of Marin Teacher

San Francisco homicide officers continued today to probe the death of Ross teacher William P. Hall, fatally injured by a streetcar early Saturday morning after he apparently was robbed and slugged near his San Francisco home.

Officers said it still has not been definitely determined just what happened before Hall was struck by the streetcar as he lay on the tracks, waving his arms weakly.

Investigators had two theories: Hall either collapsed on the tracks after he was slugged, or was placed there by his attacker to cover up the crime.

Hall's body was sent to Nacogdoches, Tex., today for funeral services and burial. His mother, Mrs. Effie May Hall, lives in Lamarque, Tex.

Hall had taught eighth grade in Ross School since last February. He was a native of Texas.

Young Man About Town Is Jailed

A young San Rafael man and his San Francisco companion tried to make an unconventional exit from the Mark Hopkins Hotel yesterday— and wound up in jail.

Richard Skinner, 22, of 325 Fairhills Drive, son of a former San Anselmo city councilman, and his friend Michael Lumpy, also 22, were charged with being drunk and defrauding an innkeeper.

They were released on bail for appearance in San Francisco Municipal Court today.

HAD ONLY $5

The pair started out on the town Saturday night with $5 between them, and wound up living in luxury at the Mark until suspicious hotel officials called police.

Police said the boys spent their money on drinks in the Fairmont Hotel, across the street from the Mark, then tried to check in and live on credit. It didn't work because they had no luggage.

So they went home, packed a couple of suitcases, and checked into the Mark. Skinner signed the register with a fictitious name and said he was an advertising executive from Phoenix.

They kept room service busy bringing scotches, and ordered more drinks in the bars. They eventually ran up a bill totaling $137.43.

The hotel called police after they found the big spenders' luggage in the shrubbery beneath their window, a length of wire still dangling from it. The suitcases contained more scotch, towels, bath mats, books, a desk blotter and telephone directory, all belonging to the hotel.

Skinner and Lumpy were nabbed in an elevator by a house detective. "We did it as a gag," they explained.

IT WAS A GREAT DAY ON THE BAY

Sail of boat from which Independent-Journal reporter-photographer Ellen Bry took this picture form pattern with sails of three other vessels that were among hundreds parading in San Francisco Bay yesterday for formal opening of the 1961 boating season. The weather was warm, the water quite smooth and the sun shining as the boaters unfurled their handsomest sails. Craft ranged from tiny 10-footers with a single piece of canvas to the big schooner Wanderer with five sails flying. See also photo on page 1.

Alleghany Power Fight Is Delayed

BALTIMORE (AP) — Stockholders of Alleghany Corp., subject of a power struggle for control, today met for 90 minutes and recessed their annual meeting until next Monday without deciding a contest to depose Allan P. Kirby as chairman.

Opposing forces agreed to keep open voting until 9 a.m. Tuesday, delaying the start of a painstaking count that will decide whether Kirby stays on or surrenders control to dissident stockholders led by Texas financier John D. Murchison.

BASIC HARMONY

The session was conducted in basic harmony despite disorder by a pair of minority share owners who were forcibly ejected after a raucous demonstration against the present management of the $6.7 billion corporation.

Management opened the meeting with a report by Charles T. Ireland Jr., Alleghany president, that said the holding company was on the threshhold of new prosperity.

That was the gist of a report, to a disappointingly small turnout of share owners by Charles T. Ireland Jr., corporation president.

WAS CHALLENGED

Ireland is right hand man to wealthy Allan P. Kirby, Alleghany chairman, who sought to stave off a challenge to his leadership mounted by the Murchison brothers of Texas.

Ireland stressed declaration 12 days ago of the first dividened on Alleghany common stock in the firm's 32-year-old history.

Murchison forces ridiculed the payment by passing out nickles sealed inside clear plastic disks. Inscribed over the coins were the words, "The Kirby Dollar."

Among the heavy items were IBM and Texas Instruments, Bristol-Myers, Kerr-McGee, Bell and Howell, Lehn and Fink, International Telephone and some international oils.

Lower Truck Tolls Go Into Effect

Lower light truck tolls went into effect today on the Golden Gate Bridge while the bridge's finance committee continued indecisive about proposals to give another reduction to passenger vehicles whether cash payers, commuters or both categories.

Two-axle trucks from today pay only 25 cents instead of 50 cents as hitherto. But they will pay 50 cents if they are pulling trailers, and larger trucks continue to pay 50 cents.

Wheelwright went at once, he said, to the Jim Dias ranch, about a mile and one-half away, where he telephoned the Marin County sheriff's office, Dr. Donald C. Fowler of Mill Valley and Coroner Frank J. Keaton.

Dr. Fowler pronounced the three victims dead at 6:15 p.m.

Wheelwright, himself a private pilot, praised Karen Helmstaedter for her quick thinking in going directly to his ranch house for help.

He said that the plane manifolds were still warm when he got there. This made him believe the accident happened about 4 p.m.

He said the plane plowed along up a 35-degree slope for about 100 feet from where it hit. "It hit with an awful impact," he said. "The plane was under full power, headed northwest. The altimeter read lower than the altitude they were at. They flew into the hill. They weren't coasting nor out of gas."

Young found several hundred dollars in paper money scattered around.

He told Sheriff's Deputy William N. McKillop that he knew the Glasgows as his family's friends but had not seen them for years. He identified Glasgow but found it difficult to identify Mrs. Glasgow because of the crash injuries.

Young said that, from the marked maps, he believed the plane had been headed for Portland, Ore.

Glasgow, who was an insurance agent for 15 years with Occidental Life Insurance Co., and his wife are to be buried in Santa Barbara.

Inverness residents saw yesterday's plane crash about 8 p.m. A search party was organized after no trace of the pilot could be found.

The plane burned completely. Blood nearby indicated the pilot might have escaped when Torre was found, however, he had only bad scratches on his face, and said he did not need hospitalization.

Torre had been taking flying lessons at West Coast Aviation, and had left there at 6 p.m. He crashed about 8:13 p.m., and was found at 9:57.

Michael McLean of San Rafael was called to help search the area with his bloodhounds, but the pilot was found before McLean arrived.

Two fire trucks were sent, one from Point Reyes substation and one from Inverness, to put out fire in brush and trees which was started by the burning plane.

Death Penalty Move Rejected By Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Opponents of the death penalty today failed to force the Assembly to reconsider its rejection of a bill halting most executions for a four-year trial period.

A motion to reconsider the moratorium—defeated in an unusual 40-40 vote last Tuesday—was turned down 41-36.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles), author of the moratorium bill, said several assesmblymen had told him they would change their vote if given a second chance.

"It is only fair to grant this request for reconsideration," he said.

"We've had this before us for more than a year," said Assemblyman Joseuh Shell (R-Los Angeles), an advocate of capital punishment.

rine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., 39, of New Concord, Ohio.

Whoever went would be a busy man from 3 a.m. of shot day to the time, possibly 10 hours later, when a helicopter would pluck him from the sea 70 to 80 miles northeast of Grand Bahama Island.

During the 15-minute hop through space he will have no time to worry about any dangers lucking in his equipment or in the hostile environment outside the double walls of his spacecraft.

For much of the time he will control the cabin's orientation in space. He will monitor all the automatic equipment. He will be reporting continuously to the ground on the way it is operating.

Because of this, the first American in space may be piling up more experience and more information vital to the future of space exploration than was gleaned by Russia's Yuri Gagarin in his space flight around the earth April 12.

Gagarin flew eight times as far as the first American astronaut. He flew four times as fast. He went some 70 miles higher, and he experienced the space sensation of weightlessness nearly 90 minutes compared to five scheduled for the mercury pilot.

But Gagarin, according to Soviet reports, went along mainly for the ride. Everything aboard his five-ton cabin was automatic, or controlled from the ground.

IT WAS A GREAT DAY ON THE BAY

Sail of boat from which Independent-Journal reporter-photographer Ellen Bry took this picture form pattern with sails of three other vessels that were among hundreds parading in San Francisco Bay yesterday for formal opening of the 1961 boating season. The weather was warm, the water quite smooth and the sun shining as the boaters unfurled their handsomest sails. Craft ranged from tiny 10-footers with a single piece of canvas to the big schooner Wanderer with five sails flying. See also photo on page 1.

Wheelwright went at once, he said, to the Jim Dias ranch, about a mile and one-half away, where he telephoned the Marin County sheriff's office, Dr. Donald C. Fowler of Mill Valley and Coroner Frank J. Keaton.

Dr. Fowler pronounced the three victims dead at 6:15 p.m.

Wheelwright, himself a private pilot, praised Karen Helmstaedter for her quick thinking in going directly to his ranch house for help.

He said that the plane manifolds were still warm when he got there. This made him believe the accident happened about 4 p.m.

He said the plane plowed along up a 35-degree slope for about 100 feet from where it hit. "It hit with an awful impact," he said. "The plane was under full power, headed northwest. The altimeter read lower than the altitude they were at. They flew into the hill. They weren't coasting nor out of gas."

Young found several hundred dollars in paper money scattered around.

He told Sheriff's Deputy William N. McKillop that he knew the Glasgows as his family's friends but had not seen them for years. He identified Glasgow but found it difficult to identify Mrs. Glasgow because of the crash injuries.

Young said that, from the marked maps, he believed the plane had been headed for Portland, Ore.

Glasgow, who was an insurance agent for 15 years with Occidental Life Insurance Co., and his wife are to be buried in Santa Barbara.

Inverness residents saw yesterday's plane crash about 8 p.m. A search party was organized after no trace of the pilot could be found.

The plane burned completely. Blood nearby indicated the pilot might have escaped when Torre was found, however, he had only bad scratches on his face, and said he did not need hospitalization.

Torre had been taking flying lessons at West Coast Aviation, and had left there at 6 p.m. He crashed about 8:13 p.m., and was found at 9:57.

Michael McLean of San Rafael was called to help search the area with his bloodhounds, but the pilot was found before McLean arrived.

Two fire trucks were sent, one from Point Reyes substation and one from Inverness, to put out fire in brush and trees which was started by the burning plane.

Death Penalty Move Rejected By Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Opponents of the death penalty today failed to force the Assembly to reconsider its rejection of a bill halting most executions for a four-year trial period.

A motion to reconsider the moratorium—defeated in an unusual 40-40 vote last Tuesday—was turned down 41-36.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles), author of the moratorium bill, said several assesmblymen had told him they would change their vote if given a second chance.

"It is only fair to grant this request for reconsideration," he said.

"We've had this before us for more than a year," said Assemblyman Joseuh Shell (R-Los Angeles), an advocate of capital punishment.

Whoever went would be a busy man from 3 a.m. of shot day to the time, possibly 10 hours later, when a helicopter would pluck him from the sea 70 to 80 miles northeast of Grand Bahama Island.

During the 15-minute hop through space he will have no time to worry about any dangers lucking in his equipment or in the hostile environment outside the double walls of his spacecraft.

For much of the time he will control the cabin's orientation in space. He will monitor all the automatic equipment. He will be reporting continuously to the ground on the way it is operating.

Because of this, the first American in space may be piling up more experience and more information vital to the future of space exploration than was gleaned by Russia's Yuri Gagarin in his space flight around the earth April 12.

Gagarin flew eight times as far as the first American astronaut. He flew four times as fast. He went some 70 miles higher, and he experienced the space sensation of weightlessness nearly 90 minutes compared to five scheduled for the mercury pilot.

But Gagarin, according to Soviet reports, went along mainly for the ride. Everything aboard his five-ton cabin was automatic, or controlled from the ground.

Alleghany Power Fight Is Delayed

BALTIMORE (AP) — Stockholders of Alleghany Corp., subject of a power struggle for control, today met for 90 minutes and recessed their annual meeting until next Monday without deciding a contest to depose Allan P. Kirby as chairman.

Opposing forces agreed to keep open voting until 9 a.m. Tuesday, delaying the start of a painstaking count that will decide whether Kirby stays on or surrenders control to dissident stockholders led by Texas financier John D. Murchison.

BASIC HARMONY

The session was conducted in basic harmony despite disorder by a pair of minority share owners who were forcibly ejected after a raucous demonstration against the present management of the $6.7 billion corporation.

Management opened the meeting with a report by Charles T. Ireland Jr., Alleghany president, that said the holding company was on the threshhold of new prosperity.

That was the gist of a report, to a disappointingly small turnout of share owners by Charles T. Ireland Jr., corporation president.

WAS CHALLENGED

Ireland is right hand man to wealthy Allan P. Kirby, Alleghany chairman, who sought to stave off a challenge to his leadership mounted by the Murchison brothers of Texas.

Ireland stressed declaration 12 days ago of the first dividened on Alleghany common stock in the firm's 32-year-old history.

Murchison forces ridiculed the payment by passing out nickles sealed inside clear plastic disks. Inscribed over the coins were the words, "The Kirby Dollar."

STUDENTS WATCH MOCK TRIAL ON 'LAW DAY'

The famous "stinger trial," in which the question was how long it took for drinks to take effect on a scooter driver, was re-enacted as a mock trial today in Judge N. Charles Brusatori's division of Marin Superior Court as a feature of "Law Day," sponsored here by the Marin County Bar Assn. A throng of high school students watches, learning court procedure as part of social studies, as Lawrence Kopenski, a clinical analyst, testified for the prosecution. (Independent-Journal photo)

Planners Continue Hearing On Tank

Indefinite continuance of David R. Baty's effort to bring about rezoning of an Olema property for butane storage by McPhail's, Inc., was agreed to by Baty at suggestion of the Marin County Planning Commission today.

This came after a lively battle between Baty and his next door neighbor, Larry H. Marks Jr., at a planning commission hearing.

Marks argued, among other things, that the location west of the Shoreline Highway and north of Bear Valley Road lies squarely on the San Andreas Fault.

"A shift could rupture the tank," said Marks. "Since the situation is in a low valley, gas from the tank would blanket all our houses."

Chairman William Upton pointed out that since the previous hearing, research had brought out that butane storage tanks can be put underground.

But spokesmen from McPhail Fuel Co., which seeks to locate the tank there, said such an 18,000-gallon tank of 7½ by 50-foot dimension would have a tendency when half empty to bob right up out of the ground because of the high water level.

Baty said trucks would be infrequent as there would be no direct sale. McPhail's has sought for years to find a suitable location in the vicinity, he said, without success.

Commissioners objected and Baty agreed that the application for change to heavy industrial zoning hardly met intent as no actual heavy industry was contemplated.

Possibilities seemed to narrow to choice between rezoning to another agricultural type and then considering use permit or retaining the present limited agricultural district zoning and considering a variance.

Baty consented to indefinite continuance while selecting another approach.

Bolinas, Stinson Beach Master Plan Finshed

Completion of the long-awaited Bolinas-Stinson Beach Master Plan was announced today before the Marin County Planning Commission.

The commission promptly continued hearing on a resolution of intent for adoption to June 5, in order that organizations and individuals interested might study the plan and possibly hold discussion meetings.

Chairman William Upton ordered that files be searched and copies of the scheme sent to everyone known to have shown interest in the past.

The plan is 36 mimeographed long pages including an introduction, a section devoted to elements of the plan with analysis and recommendations, and a final section on how the plan is to be put into effect.

Tribute is paid to the unique beauty, natural blessings and recreational possibilities of the whole area, highly varied and with "a great variety of magnificent views," and the plan is declared based on a concept of conserving natural values rather than creating new ones.

The plan was greatly influenced by seasonal changes brought by visitors, with 1,000 permanent residents swelled to 12,000 present during a summer day and with summer residents almost doubling normal population.

Basic framework of the plan is "the superb natural environment," the outline says, stressing that primary uses proposed for the whole area are residential and recreational.

"Stinson Beach will continue to be a residential community," says the draft, "as well as a center increasingly devoted to the accommodational and recreational needs of the tourist or short-time visitor.

"The entire uplands area is considered to be adaptable only for very low density residential use, offering a spectacular environment for such use.

"The Bolinas Lagoon has many functions such as commercial and recreational boating, access to the surrounding lands, fishing, a wildlife sanctuary, and is a major part of a grand visual scene.

"The Bolinas Peninsula is conceived as primary residential, with recreational facilities of a less intensive kind, to serve a population generally more permanent, with a high proportion of home owners."

Natural Gas Complaint Refused

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court today refused to look into California's complaint that natural gas company accounting procedures are improperly allowed to hike consumer rates.

The issue arose when the El Paso Natural Gas Co., which produces, transports and sells gas, asked the Federal Power Commission in 1954 for a rate increase. The company's customers are in Arizona, California, New Mexico and Texas.

These increases, as well as later ones, have since become effective.

California took the case to court because of the commission's treatment of tax benefits resulting from the company's use of "liberalized depreciation." The 1954 Internal Revenu Law allows large deductions for depreciation in the earlier years of a new facility. This reduces taxes in those years.

In later years, smaller deductions are made and taxes increase.

California argued that consumers should get the benefit of the lower taxes in the earlier years through lower gas rates.

But the FPC denied them. Instead, it ordered El Paso to keep the extra money in a special fund against the time when its taxes would go up.

The commission argued that it has discretion in the matter. It urged the Supreme Court not to go into the problem.

Kathy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bodeen of 3 Hazel Avenue, San Anselmo. Earlier this year she won the state "Voice of Democracy" contest.

The girls were judged on horsemanship, general appearance and appearance in western attire. Al St. Johns of Vallejo and Harry Cabaud of Sonoma were judges.

Hospital Aide's Body Is Found

The body was identified late yesterday by Romaine's stepdaughter, Roberta Dykes of Vacaville. The body was found by Thomas J. Bell of San Francisco and was towed to Ondine pier in Sausalito by the Coast Guard.

Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputy Warren Pruitt said Romaine had been in poor health and that his wife is confined in a hospital at Mendocino. He listed the death as probably suicide.

Civil Rights Announcement Is Planned

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy plans a major pronouncement on civil rights when he travels to the deep south next Saturday to speak at the University of Georgia, informed sources said today.

These sources said Kennedy deliberately chose this forum for a civil rights speech to point up the administration's determination to use personal influence and moral persuasion in fighting racial discrimination.

The President's brother recently has told numerous groups and individuals he believed great strides could be made in ending voter discrimination and school segregation under existing laws. As a result, observers have concluded the administration will not seek new civil rights legislation in the near future.

The attorney general has indicated, for example, that the administration has no plans to ask Congress to give him power to file desegregation suits.

But he intends to continue his vigorous behind-the-scenes activities to end racial discrimination in public schools in Louisiana and elsewhere.

When such attempts fail, the Justice Department will intervene as an active partner of the courts in enforcing court orders.

The Justice Department has considerable power under the Civil Rights Act, passed in 1957 and amended in 1960, to inspect voter registration records and sue on behalf of disenfranchised Negroes.

METROPOLITAN
announces a service for all fathers
FAMILY SECURITY CHECK-UP

Family Security Check-Up

Now you can check up on your financial health, just as you check up on your physical health. This service is more than an interview. It is a review every father should have regularly—whether he needs insurance or not.

EVERY YEAR, millions of fathers have health check-ups. Yet, millions of fathers don't check up on their family's financial health.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company now offers a service which lets you do just that: The Family Security Check-Up. It is a service which can bring you new information and correct mistakes. It lets you make sure you've planned your family's future with your head as well as your heart.

What you could lose without one

Our experience with millions of families shows there are mistakes, oversights, gaps in the average man's financial security program. Too much of it is haphazard. Too much of it is left to chance. It lacks a plan or too often it simply falls behind the times. For example—

You can unintentionally "disinherit" a child, in effect, if you have overlooked naming him among your beneficiaries.

Social Security benefits for your wife and your children may not dovetail efficiently with your pension or insurance programs.

As much as 20% more actual cash can be provided depending upon the mode of payment selected.

A guaranteed income—until your youngest child is grown up—can be provided even if you are a man with a moderate income.

Times change; many changes can affect your plans. Changes in income, occupation, in children's ages, in the cost of living—all these mean that a father should have a financial check-up regularly. And he should also make sure he has taken advantage of the most modern insurance provisions and benefits.

More than an interview—a service

Metropolitan, the company you look to for authoritative information on physical health, offers a way to check up on your family's financial health.

You'll see, below, all the steps you go through to satisfy yourself that the provisions you have made for your family will do what you intend.

Metropolitan representatives have been trained in Metropolitan's own schools and are qualified by solid experience to bring you this service. They are equipped with businesslike charts and tables that show you exactly where you stand.

Whether you need insurance or not, this service makes sense. Remember, Metropolitan is as local as Main Street . . . as close as your phone. Call your Metropolitan man today.

There is no obligation—except to those you love.

Family Security Check-Up

WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT DOES FOR YOU

With the help of your Metropolitan man—

1. You check the facts: your Social Security, your home, your life insurance, your pension plan, your savings and other assets. You may be surprised to learn how much you're worth.

2. You weigh your responsibilities: mortgage or rent payments, education, retirement, accident and sickness emergencies; how much it would cost your family to live without you.

3. You learn where you stand. You determine your weak and strong points . . . whether the provisions you have made for your family will do what you intend. You get the facts in front of you.

4. You plan for the future. Based on these facts, you decide what action, if any, may be needed to give you a family security plan, tailor-made to your own needs and ambitions—one which makes good sense for you.

Natural Gas Complaint Refused

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court today refused to look into California's complaint that natural gas company accounting procedures are improperly allowed to hike consumer rates.

The issue arose when the El Paso Natural Gas Co., which produces, transports and sells gas, asked the Federal Power Commission in 1954 for a rate increase. The company's customers are in Arizona, California, New Mexico and Texas.

These increases, as well as later ones, have since become effective.

California took the case to court because of the commission's treatment of tax benefits resulting from the company's use of "liberalized depreciation." The 1954 Internal Revenu Law allows large deductions for depreciation in the earlier years of a new facility. This reduces taxes in those years.

In later years, smaller deductions are made and taxes increase.

California argued that consumers should get the benefit of the lower taxes in the earlier years through lower gas rates.

But the FPC denied them. Instead, it ordered El Paso to keep the extra money in a special fund against the time when its taxes would go up.

The commission argued that it has discretion in the matter. It urged the Supreme Court not to go into the problem.

Hospital Aide's Body Is Found

The body was identified late yesterday by Romaine's stepdaughter, Roberta Dykes of Vacaville. The body was found by Thomas J. Bell of San Francisco and was towed to Ondine pier in Sausalito by the Coast Guard.

Mendocino County Sheriff's Deputy Warren Pruitt said Romaine had been in poor health and that his wife is confined in a hospital at Mendocino. He listed the death as probably suicide.

Civil Rights Announcement Is Planned

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy plans a major pronouncement on civil rights when he travels to the deep south next Saturday to speak at the University of Georgia, informed sources said today.

These sources said Kennedy deliberately chose this forum for a civil rights speech to point up the administration's determination to use personal influence and moral persuasion in fighting racial discrimination.

The President's brother recently has told numerous groups and individuals he believed great strides could be made in ending voter discrimination and school segregation under existing laws. As a result, observers have concluded the administration will not seek new civil rights legislation in the near future.

The attorney general has indicated, for example, that the administration has no plans to ask Congress to give him power to file desegregation suits.

But he intends to continue his vigorous behind-the-scenes activities to end racial discrimination in public schools in Louisiana and elsewhere.

When such attempts fail, the Justice Department will intervene as an active partner of the courts in enforcing court orders.

The Justice Department has considerable power under the Civil Rights Act, passed in 1957 and amended in 1960, to inspect voter registration records and sue on behalf of disenfranchised Negroes.

Meeting Postponed

METROPOLITAN
announces a service for all fathers
FAMILY SECURITY CHECK-UP

Family Security Check-Up

Now you can check up on your financial health, just as you check up on your physical health. This service is more than an interview. It is a review every father should have regularly—whether he needs insurance or not.

EVERY YEAR, millions of fathers have health check-ups. Yet, millions of fathers don't check up on their family's financial health.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company now offers a service which lets you do just that: The Family Security Check-Up. It is a service which can bring you new information and correct mistakes. It lets you make sure you've planned your family's future with your head as well as your heart.

What you could lose without one

Our experience with millions of families shows there are mistakes, oversights, gaps in the average man's financial security program. Too much of it is haphazard. Too much of it is left to chance. It lacks a plan or too often it simply falls behind the times. For example—

You can unintentionally "disinherit" a child, in effect, if you have overlooked naming him among your beneficiaries.

Social Security benefits for your wife and your children may not dovetail efficiently with your pension or insurance programs.

As much as 20% more actual cash can be provided depending upon the mode of payment selected.

A guaranteed income—until your youngest child is grown up—can be provided even if you are a man with a moderate income.

Times change; many changes can affect your plans. Changes in income, occupation, in children's ages, in the cost of living—all these mean that a father should have a financial check-up regularly. And he should also make sure he has taken advantage of the most modern insurance provisions and benefits.

More than an interview—a service

Metropolitan, the company you look to for authoritative information on physical health, offers a way to check up on your family's financial health.

You'll see, below, all the steps you go through to satisfy yourself that the provisions you have made for your family will do what you intend.

Metropolitan representatives have been trained in Metropolitan's own schools and are qualified by solid experience to bring you this service. They are equipped with businesslike charts and tables that show you exactly where you stand.

Whether you need insurance or not, this service makes sense. Remember, Metropolitan is as local as Main Street . . . as close as your phone. Call your Metropolitan man today.

There is no obligation—except to those you love.

Family Security Check-Up

WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT DOES FOR YOU

With the help of your Metropolitan man—

1. You check the facts: your Social Security, your home, your life insurance, your pension plan, your savings and other assets. You may be surprised to learn how much you're worth.

2. You weigh your responsibilities: mortgage or rent payments, education, retirement, accident and sickness emergencies; how much it would cost your family to live without you.

3. You learn where you stand. You determine your weak and strong points . . . whether the provisions you have made for your family will do what you intend. You get the facts in front of you.

4. You plan for the future. Based on these facts, you decide what action, if any, may be needed to give you a family security plan, tailor-made to your own needs and ambitions—one which makes good sense for you.

STUDENTS WATCH MOCK TRIAL ON 'LAW DAY'

The famous "stinger trial," in which the question was how long it took for drinks to take effect on a scooter driver, was re-enacted as a mock trial today in Judge N. Charles Brusatori's division of Marin Superior Court as a feature of "Law Day," sponsored here by the Marin County Bar Assn. A throng of high school students watches, learning court procedure as part of social studies, as Lawrence Kopenski, a clinical analyst, testified for the prosecution. (Independent-Journal photo)

Planners Continue Hearing On Tank

Indefinite continuance of David R. Baty's effort to bring about rezoning of an Olema property for butane storage by McPhail's, Inc., was agreed to by Baty at suggestion of the Marin County Planning Commission today.

Marks argued, among other things, that the location west of the Shoreline Highway and north of Bear Valley Road lies squarely on the San Andreas Fault.

"A shift could rupture the tank," said Marks. "Since the situation is in a low valley, gas from the tank would blanket all our houses."

Chairman William Upton pointed out that since the previous hearing, research had brought out that butane storage tanks can be put underground.

But spokesmen from McPhail Fuel Co., which seeks to locate the tank there, said such an 18,000-gallon tank of 7½ by 50-foot dimension would have a tendency when half empty to bob right up out of the ground because of the high water level.

Baty said trucks would be infrequent as there would be no direct sale. McPhail's has sought for years to find a suitable location in the vicinity, he said, without success.

Commissioners objected and Baty agreed that the application for change to heavy industrial zoning hardly met intent as no actual heavy industry was contemplated.

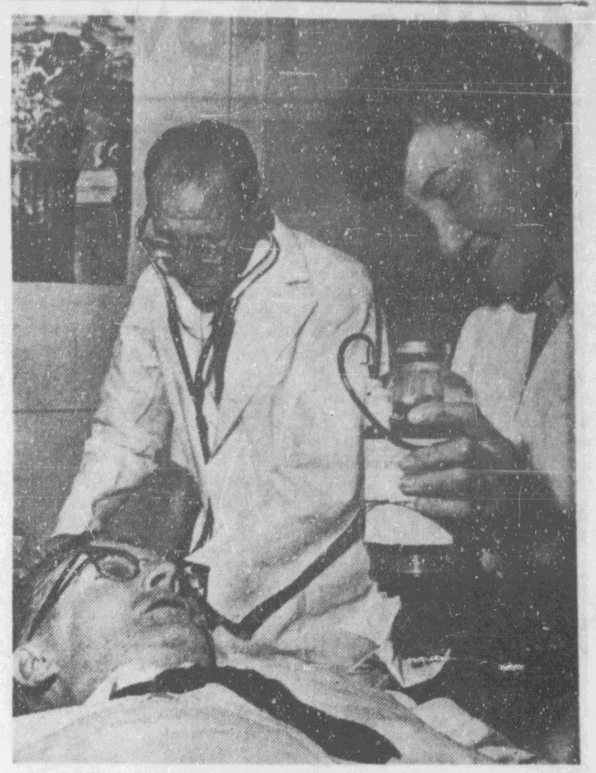
Possibilities seemed to narrow to choice between rezoning to another agricultural type and then considering use permit or retaining the present limited agricultural district zoning and considering a variance.

Baty consented to indefinite continuance while selecting another approach.

Dry CYO Camp May Get Dam

William Seeger, president of the Marin County Catholic Youth Organization board and general manager of Marin Municipal Water District, will study the possibility of the construction of a dam at the CYO summer camp for boys and girls in Sonoma County.

Rev. Eugene A. Gallagher, head of the CYO for the 13 Bay Area counties which operates the camp, reported that a drive to raise $25,000 to underwrite the construction costs of a dam at the drought-closed Sonoma County camp has been launched.



FIRST AGAIN AT NEW BLOOD CENTER

Bolinas, Stinson Beach Master Plan Finshed

Completion of the long-awaited Bolinas-Stinson Beach Master Plan was announced today before the Marin County Planning Commission.

The commission promptly continued hearing on a resolution of intent for adoption to June 5, in order that organizations and individuals interested might study the plan and possibly hold discussion meetings.

Chairman William Upton ordered that files be searched and copies of the scheme sent to everyone known to have shown interest in the past.

The plan is 36 mimeographed long pages including an introduction, a section devoted to elements of the plan with analysis and recommendations, and a final section on how the plan is to be put into effect.

Tribute is paid to the unique beauty, natural blessings and recreational possibilities of the whole area, highly varied and with "a great variety of magnificent views," and the plan is declared based on a concept of conserving natural values rather than creating new ones.

The plan was greatly influenced by seasonal changes brought by visitors, with 1,000 permanent residents swelled to 12,000 present during a summer day and with summer residents almost doubling normal population.

Basic framework of the plan is "the superb natural environment," the outline says, stressing that primary uses proposed for the whole area are residential and recreational.

"Stinson Beach will continue to be a residential community," says the draft, "as well as a center increasingly devoted to the accommodational and recreational needs of the tourist or short-time visitor.

"The entire uplands area is considered to be adaptable only for very low density residential use, offering a spectacular environment for such use.

"The Bolinas Lagoon has many functions such as commercial and recreational boating, access to the surrounding lands, fishing, a wildlife sanctuary, and is a major part of a grand visual scene.

"The Bolinas Peninsula is conceived as primary residential, with recreational facilities of a less intensive kind, to serve a population generally more permanent, with a high proportion of home owners."

Natural Gas Complaint Refused

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court today refused to look into California's complaint that natural gas company accounting procedures are improperly allowed to hike consumer rates.

The issue arose when the El Paso Natural Gas Co., which produces, transports and sells gas, asked the Federal Power Commission in 1954 for a rate increase. The company's customers are in Arizona, California, New Mexico and Texas.

These increases, as well as later ones, have since become effective.

California took the case to court because of the commission's treatment of tax benefits resulting from the company's use of "liberalized depreciation." The 1954 Internal Revenu Law allows large deductions for depreciation in the earlier years of a new facility. This reduces taxes in those years.

In later years, smaller deductions are made and taxes increase.

California argued that consumers should get the benefit of the lower taxes in the earlier years through lower gas rates.

But the FPC denied them. Instead, it ordered El Paso to keep the extra money in a special fund against the time when its taxes would go up.

The commission argued that it has discretion in the matter. It urged the Supreme Court not to go into the problem.

Marin Catholic Speaker Wins

Luisa Miranda of Corte Madera, also from Marin Catholic, placed fifth in the dramatic interpretation competition. Two other Marin Catholic students, Joan Moran of San Rafael and Colleen Handley of Mill Valley, made the semi-finals.

Kathy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bodeen of 3 Hazel Avenue, San Anselmo. Earlier this year she won the state "Voice of Democracy" contest.

Student Still Critical After Auto Accident

George John Silvestri III, 19, of San Rafael, sophomore at St. Mary's College, remained in critical condition today at Providence Hospital in Oakland from injuries suffered in an automobile crash last Wednesday.

His mother, Mrs. George Silvestri Jr. of 260 Mountain View Avenue, San Rafael, today said her son is "holding his own." She said oxygen treatments are being used to aid his breathing. He suffered chest injuries, lung and heart damage and a jaw fracture in the accident.

All three were given ribbons by Candy Hollis, 5, daughter of Marin County Schools. Supt. Virgil S. Hollis, chairman of the queen contest.

The girls were judged on horsemanship, general appearance and appearance in western attire. Al St. Johns of Vallejo and Harry Cabaud of Sonoma were judges.

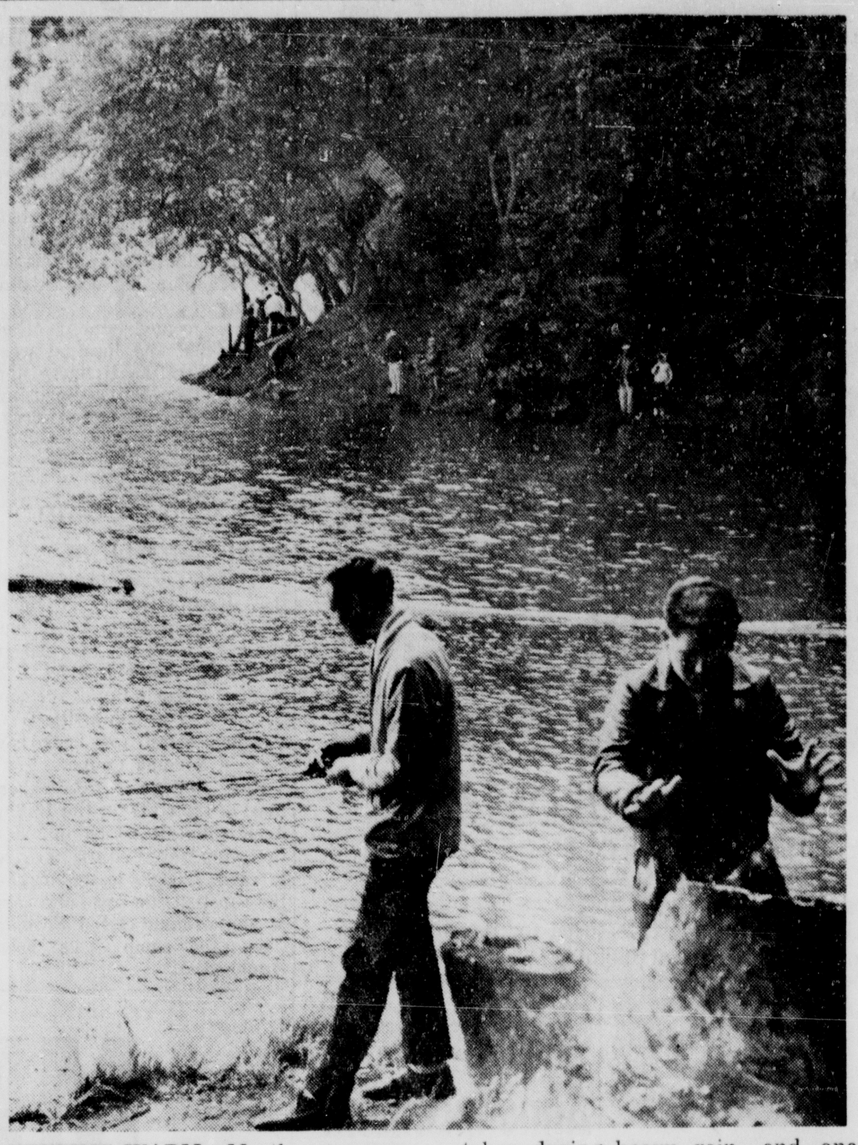
Willie Now The Mightiest Giant In Club's History

TROUT OPENER WET, BUT WORTH IT

Marin's army of trout fishermen tourned out by the thousands Saturday for the opening of the 1961 season and, while some were drenched by the surprise early morning rain, not many complained much because there were plenty of fish hauled out of Marin lakes. This is a scene at Rodeo Lagoon, Fort Cronkhite where just about everyone enjoyed success, in spite of the crowded conditions and tangled lines.



KEEPING WARM—Mostly everyone was caught unprepared for the early morning downpour that hit Marin Saturday, so thousands of anglers were drenched. This photograph was taken during heavy rain, and one youngster eased the pain of cold and wet by building a fire in stump of tree on the shore of Lake Lagunitas while his pal kept right on fishing.

Four Homers Lifts Mays To Peak Of His Career

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ten Giants of other years, including such illustrious names as Mel Ott, Bill Terry, Johnny Mize, George Kelly and Roger Connor, of the team for which the nickname was first conceived, hit three home runs in one game. But it remained for Willie Mays, of the 1961 Giants, to become the first in the history of the club to hit four home runs in one game. Wondrous Willie did it yesterday, a feat accomplished previously by only eight major league players—actually six in a nine-inning game—as his San Francisco mates helped him bury the Milwaukee Braves 14-4. The victory, coupled with Pittsburgh's split of a double-header in Cincinnati, boosted the Giants into first place in the National League.

Willie wasn't very far from becoming the first major leaguer ever to hit five home runs in one game. In the only time at bat in which he failed to hit a homer, Mays sent a screaming liner deep to center field. That was in the fifth inning.

In other National League games, Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 11-7 in 10 innings, and Los Angeles divided a pair with Chicago. The Cubs won the nightcap 10-5 after the Dodgers had taken the opener 2-1. The Pirates beat Cincinnati 6-3 in the first game but the Reds won the second 4-2 to snap an eight-game losing streak.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

In the American League, Chicago defeated Minnesota 5-3 in 11 innings. New York nipped Washington 4-3 in their first game, the Senators taking the second 2-1. Detroit walloped Baltimore 8-2 but the Orioles came back to win the second game 4-2. Kansas City and Los Angeles swapped victories, the A's winning the second game 3-2 after Los Angeles had won the opener 6-4.

The Giants' slugging bee set or tied a flock of records. They hit eight home runs, including two by Jose Pagan and one each by Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou, to equal the major league mark for most homers in one game. With five homers the day before, the Giants set a National League mark of 13 in two games. Henry Aaron had two homers for the Braves to give the two teams a record-tying 10 homers in a game.

Mays put on a tremendous show for the 13,114 Milwaukee spectators. Probably the most interested was Joe Adcock, the slugging first baseman. Big Joe was the last National Leaguer to hammer four out of the park in one day. He did it July 31, 1954, in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn.

BURDETTE BOMBED

Willie, who had hit only two homers prior to yesterday's fireworks, greeted Milwaukee starter Lew Burdette with a four-bagger in the first inning. There was no one on base. Mays tagged Burdette again in the third with one mate aboard. Southpaw Seth Morehead was pitching in the sixth when Mays pounded his third homer with two on. Willie got his fourth homer in the eighth, off right-hander Don McMahon, with one mate aboard. That gave him a total of eight runs batted in for the day, four behind the record of 12 set by Sunny Jim Bottomley of the 1924 Cardinals.

Billy Loes was the winner. He went all the way, giving up eight hits for his second victory. Aaron drove in all four Milwaukee runs.

Pittsburgh dropped Cincinnati into last place, handing the Reds their eighth straight defeat in the opener. The Reds retaliated by knocking the Pirates out of first place with their second game triumph. Bob Friend won his fourth in a row in the opener but the Pirates had to call on Elroy Face in the ninth to retire the last three batters. Four hits, capped by Billy Virdon's triple produced three Pirate runs in the fifth and sent Cincinnati right-hander Jay Hook to the showers with his second defeat.

Bob Purkey hurled a six-hitter for his third Redleg victory in the nightcap. Shortstop Leo Cardenas drove in a pair of runs with a double and two singles off loser Joe Gibbon.

The Cubs shook off a tough 2-1 opening game loss to the Dodgers on Tommy Davis two-run homer in the ninth, scoring seven runs in the second inning of the nightcap for a split in their double-header. Chicago reached Dodger starter Roger Craig for five hits in that riotious inning.

What A Way To Come Out Of A Slump!

The former "say, hey" kid, now a poised veteran nearly 29, became the ninth player in major league history to hit four homers in a game as the Giants buried the Milwaukee Braves 14-4 yesterday with a spectacular display of power.

Hitless in seven times at bat in two previous games against the Braves, Mays admitted he was concerned about a slump and thought "I was going deeper."

"The last couple of days I did not hit a ball good at all," Mays said. "And now this. It's the greatest day of my baseball career. Anytime a fella hits four homers in one game it should be his greatest day."

420-FOOTER

In the fifth, Willie lined sharply to center against Moe Drabowsky. He teed off on a 1-1 pitch by Seth Morehead in the next inning. Homer No. 3 was a tape-measure job, travelling 450 feet just to the left of the bleachers in left. In the eighth, Mays hit his fourth circuit blast 430 feet to left center off Don McMahon. The crowd, rooting for Willie, booed as Jim Davenport grounded out with Mays on deck in the ninth.

"It's probably just as well I didn't get another chance up there," Mays said. "I probably wouldn't have done anything as I would have been pressing."

Willie said he was "just up there swinging," didn't know about any record until he heard it on the public address system—and wasn't trying for homers after his second one.

"After you get two in a game, you don't look for a third one. But today was the first time this year I've felt real good. This is my biggest thrill. I knew the fans were pulling for me and it felt wonderful."

Track Trials, Swim Finals Highlight Marin Prep Sports Slate This Week

With the swimming and dual track and field meet championships already decided, the Marin Athletic League's spotlight focuses this week on the sizzling baseball race the track and field trials and the swimming championships.

Action gets started tomorrow with each of the three co-leaders in the baseball standings meeting the so-called also-rans. San Rafael (3-1) fresh off a 7-6 upset victory over Tam, takes on Redwood (0-3) at San Rafael's Albert Field: Drake (3-1) hosts Marin Catholic (1-3) and Tam (3-1) entertains Novato (1-2) at Tam, all games starting at 4 p.m.

Also tomorrow, the undefeated Tamalpais swim team, which clinched the dual meet title last Friday, entertains San Rafael and Redwood's Giants invade Drake.

TRACK TRIALS

Track shares the headlines with the baseball on Friday as the county's spikers compete in the Marin League trials at Drake's track in San Anselmo starting at 3 p.m. Leading athletes will qualify for berths in the league finals scheduled May 12 at San Rafael.

San Rafael's powerful squad won the dual meet track title last Friday by completing a sweep of all five meets. Tam won the Class B title and San Rafael repeated with a pennant in Class C.

Baseball continues Friday with Drake and San Rafael clashing in a big one at Albert Field. The other games will be Tam at Redwood and Marin Catholic at Novato.

Lathrop, only a junior, was clocked at 4 minutes, 40.4 seconds against Tamalpais Friday as he and his teammates won their fifth straight dual meet for the league championship.

Lathrop, one of northern California's top prep milers, with a best clocking of 4:37, has never been pressed in league competition. His times should be better with tougher competition in future meets. He will receive a "Prep of the Week" certificate from the Independent-Journal and Radio KTIM.

NBA 'Distress' Meeting Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Basketball Assn. is scheduled for a May Day meeting today. The "Mayday" in this case stands for the distress signal as well as the date.

The dual subjects causing distress are NBA players who have jumped or are planning to jump to the new American Basketball League and Doug Moe, the University of North Carolina star, whose status is uncertain because of disclosures in the recent gambling scandals.

NBA President Maurice Podoloff said he had called the meeting of the board of governors after learning that Ken Sears of the New York Knickerbockers had joined the San Francisco Saints of the American League.

Two Cincinnati Royals players, Mike Farmer and Win Wilfong, reportedly have signed with San Francisco and Kansas City respectively, in the ABL.

The question of Moe's eligibility was brought up by David Trager, owner of the New Chicago club in the NBA, which drafted the Carolina player. Trager said he would ask clearance to sign Moe.

Palmer's Patented Finish Captures Texas Tournament

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Arnold Palmer returned to his role of golf's great clutch player, became the year's top tournament winner and closed in on young Gary Player in the race for the most money as he bagged the Texas Open.

With a dramatic finish, which saw Palmer come through with an eagle on one of the closing holes, the big-shouldered man from Pennsylvania shot a 3-under-par 68 for the 72-hole total of 270 and a one-strike victory in the storied Texas Open yesterday. It was a repeat with the championship and Palmer's fourth tournament triumph of the year.

Gary Player of Johannesburg, South Africa, the leading money-winner and a three-tournament winner, tied for 14th place with 277 and won only $651.00. Player closed with a 74 as his putting went sour.

So now Player has won $47,068.54 in 15 tournaments while Palmer has taken down $39,886.58 in 14.

The Texas Open started its final round yesterday with Paul Harney and Al Geiberger tied for first with 201 for 54 holes while Palmer, Rex Baxter, Doug Sanders and Al Balding were tied at 202.

But Palmer rallied for an eagle on 15, where his 4-iron travelled 250 yards to the green, just three feet from the pin.

Palmer was able to bogey the final hole and still win the $4,300 first money as Harney missed a long putt that would have given him a birdie. He went past the pin and then two-putted from 18 inches for a bogey.

It gave Harney a 71 and knocked him down to third place at 272, when Balding posted a 69 for 271. Balding birdied the final hole with a 12-foot putt to grab the $3,000 second money. Harney won $2,000.

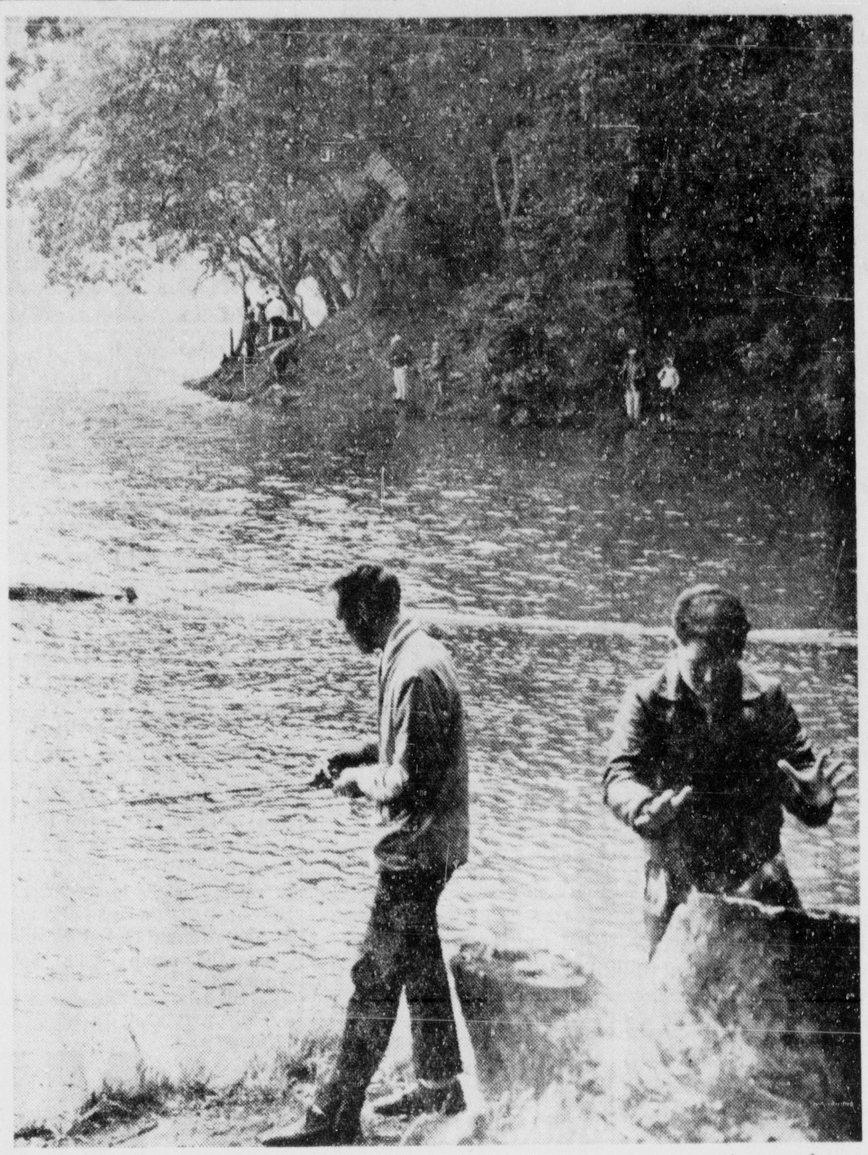
Willie Now The Mightiest Giant In Club's History

TROUT OPENER WET, BUT WORTH IT

Marin's army of trout fishermen tourned out by the thousands Saturday for the opening of the 1961 season and, while some were drenched by the surprise early morning rain, not many complained much because there were plenty of fish hauled out of Marin lakes. This is a scene at Rodeo Lagoon, Fort Cronkhite where just about everyone enjoyed success, in spite of the crowded conditions and tangled lines.



KEEPING WARM—Mostly everyone was caught unprepared for the early morning downpour that hit Marin Saturday, so thousands of anglers were drenched. This photograph was taken during heavy rain, and one youngster eased the pain of cold and wet by building a fire in stump of tree on the shore of Lake Lagunitas while his pal kept right on fishing.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ten Giants of other years, including such illustrious names as Mel Ott, Bill Terry, Johnny Mize, George Kelly and Roger Connor, of the team for which the nickname was first conceived, hit three home runs in one game. But it remained for Willie Mays, of the 1961 Giants, to become the first in the history of the club to hit four home runs in one game. Wondrous Willie did it yesterday, a feat accomplished previously by only eight major league players—actually six in a nine-inning game—as his San Francisco mates helped him bury the Milwaukee Braves 14-4. The victory, coupled with Pittsburgh's split of a double-header in Cincinnati, boosted the Giants into first place in the National League.

Willie wasn't very far from becoming the first major leaguer ever to hit five home runs in one game. In the only time at bat in which he failed to hit a homer, Mays sent a screaming liner deep to center field. That was in the fifth inning.

In other National League games, Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 11-7 in 10 innings, and Los Angeles divided a pair with Chicago. The Cubs won the nightcap 10-5 after the Dodgers had taken the opener 2-1. The Pirates beat Cincinnati 6-3 in the first game but the Reds won the second 4-2 to snap an eight-game losing streak.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

In the American League, Chicago defeated Minnesota 5-3 in 11 innings. New York nipped Washington 4-3 in their first game, the Senators taking the second 2-1. Detroit walloped Baltimore 8-2 but the Orioles came back to win the second game 4-2. Kansas City and Los Angeles swapped victories, the A's winning the second game 3-2 after Los Angeles had won the opener 6-4.

The Giants' slugging bee set or tied a flock of records. They hit eight home runs, including two by Jose Pagan and one each by Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou, to equal the major league mark for most homers in one game. With five homers the day before, the Giants set a National League mark of 13 in two games. Henry Aaron had two homers for the Braves to give the two teams a record-tying 10 homers in a game.

Mays put on a tremendous show for the 13,114 Milwaukee spectators. Probably the most interested was Joe Adcock, the slugging first baseman. Big Joe was the last National Leaguer to hammer four out of the park in one day. He did it July 31, 1954, in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn.

BURDETTE BOMBED

Willie, who had hit only two homers prior to yesterday's fireworks, greeted Milwaukee starter Lew Burdette with a four-bagger in the first inning. There was no one on base. Mays tagged Burdette again in the third with one mate aboard. Southpaw Seth Morehead was pitching in the sixth when Mays pounded his third homer with two on. Willie got his fourth homer in the eighth, off right-hander Don McMahon, with one mate aboard. That gave him a total of eight runs batted in for the day, four behind the record of 12 set by Sunny Jim Bottomley of the 1924 Cardinals.

Billy Loes was the winner. He went all the way, giving up eight hits for his second victory. Aaron drove in all four Milwaukee runs.

Pittsburgh dropped Cincinnati into last place, handing the Reds their eighth straight defeat in the opener. The Reds retaliated by knocking the Pirates out of first place with their second game triumph. Bob Friend won his fourth in a row in the opener but the Pirates had to call on Elroy Face in the ninth to retire the last three batters. Four hits, capped by Billy Virdon's triple produced three Pirate runs in the fifth and sent Cincinnati right-hander Jay Hook to the showers with his second defeat.

Bob Purkey hurled a six-hitter for his third Redleg victory in the nightcap. Shortstop Leo Cardenas drove in a pair of runs with a double and two singles off loser Joe Gibbon.

The Cubs shook off a tough 2-1 opening game loss to the Dodgers on Tommy Davis two-run homer in the ninth, scoring seven runs in the second inning of the nightcap for a split in their double-header. Chicago reached Dodger starter Roger Craig for five hits in that riotious inning.

What A Way To Come Out Of A Slump!

The former "say, hey" kid, now a poised veteran nearly 29, became the ninth player in major league history to hit four homers in a game as the Giants buried the Milwaukee Braves 14-4 yesterday with a spectacular display of power.

Hitless in seven times at bat in two previous games against the Braves, Mays admitted he was concerned about a slump and thought "I was going deeper."

"The last couple of days I did not hit a ball good at all," Mays said. "And now this. It's the greatest day of my baseball career. Anytime a fella hits four homers in one game it should be his greatest day."

420-FOOTER

In the fifth, Willie lined sharply to center against Moe Drabowsky. He teed off on a 1-1 pitch by Seth Morehead in the next inning. Homer No. 3 was a tape-measure job, travelling 450 feet just to the left of the bleachers in left. In the eighth, Mays hit his fourth circuit blast 430 feet to left center off Don McMahon. The crowd, rooting for Willie, booed as Jim Davenport grounded out with Mays on deck in the ninth.

"It's probably just as well I didn't get another chance up there," Mays said. "I probably wouldn't have done anything as I would have been pressing."

Willie said he was "just up there swinging," didn't know about any record until he heard it on the public address system —and wasn't trying for homers after his second one.

"After you get two in a game, you don't look for a third one. But today was the first time this year I've felt real good. This is my biggest thrill. I knew the fans were pulling for me and it felt wonderful."

Lathrop, one of northern California's top prep milers, with a best clocking of 4:37, has never been pressed in league competition. His times should be better with tougher competition in future meets. He will receive a "Prep of the Week" certificate from the Independent-Journal and Radio KTIM.

NBA 'Distress' Meeting Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Basketball Assn. is scheduled for a May Day meeting today. The "Mayday" in this case stands for the distress signal as well as the date.

The dual subjects causing distress are NBA players who have jumped or are planning to jump to the new American Basketball League and Doug Moe, the University of North Carolina star, whose status is uncertain because of disclosures in the recent gambling scandals.

NBA President Maurice Podoloff said he had called the meeting of the board of governors after learning that Ken Sears of the New York Knickerbockers had joined the San Francisco Saints of the American League.

Two Cincinnati Royals players, Mike Farmer and Win Wilfong, reportedly have signed with San Francisco and Kansas City respectively, in the ABL.

The question of Moe's eligibility was brought up by David Trager, owner of the New Chicago club in the NBA, which drafted the Carolina player. Trager said he would ask clearance to sign Moe.

Palmer's Patented Finish Captures Texas Tournament

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Arnold Palmer returned to his role of golf's great clutch player, became the year's top tournament winner and closed in on young Gary Player in the race for the most money as he bagged the Texas Open.

With a dramatic finish, which saw Palmer come through with an eagle on one of the closing holes, the big-shouldered man from Pennsylvania shot a 3-under-par 68 for the 72-hole total of 270 and a one-strike victory in the storied Texas Open yesterday. It was a repeat with the championship and Palmer's fourth tournament triumph of the year.

Gary Player of Johannesburg, South Africa, the leading money-winner and a three-tournament winner, tied for 14th place with 277 and won only $651.00. Player closed with a 74 as his putting went sour.

So now Player has won $47,068.54 in 15 tournaments while Palmer has taken down $39,886.58 in 14.

The Texas Open started its final round yesterday with Paul Harney and Al Geiberger tied for first with 201 for 54 holes while Palmer, Rex Baxter, Doug Sanders and Al Balding were tied at 202.

But Palmer rallied for an eagle on 15, where his 4-iron travelled 250 yards to the green, just three feet from the pin.

Palmer was able to bogey the final hole and still win the $4,300 first money as Harney missed a long putt that would have given him a birdie. He went past the pin and then two-putted from 18 inches for a bogey.

It gave Harney a 71 and knocked him down to third place at 272, when Balding posted a 69 for 271. Balding birdied the final hole with a 12-foot putt to grab the $3,000 second money. Harney won $2,000.

What A Way To Come Out Of A Slump!

The former "say, hey" kid, now a poised veteran nearly 29, became the ninth player in major league history to hit four homers in a game as the Giants buried the Milwaukee Braves 14-4 yesterday with a spectacular display of power.

Hitless in seven times at bat in two previous games against the Braves, Mays admitted he was concerned about a slump and thought "I was going deeper."

"The last couple of days I did not hit a ball good at all," Mays said. "And now this. It's the greatest day of my baseball career. Anytime a fella hits four homers in one game it should be his greatest day."

420-FOOTER

In the fifth, Willie lined sharply to center against Moe Drabowsky. He teed off on a 1-1 pitch by Seth Morehead in the next inning. Homer No. 3 was a tape-measure job, travelling 450 feet just to the left of the bleachers in left. In the eighth, Mays hit his fourth circuit blast 430 feet to left center off Don McMahon. The crowd, rooting for Willie, booed as Jim Davenport grounded out with Mays on deck in the ninth.

"It's probably just as well I didn't get another chance up there," Mays said. "I probably wouldn't have done anything as I would have been pressing."

Willie said he was "just up there swinging," didn't know about any record until he heard it on the public address system—and wasn't trying for homers after his second one.

"After you get two in a game, you don't look for a third one. But today was the first time this year I've felt real good. This is my biggest thrill. I knew the fans were pulling for me and it felt wonderful."

San Rafael's powerful squad won the dual meet track title last Friday by completing a sweep of all five meets. Tam won the Class B title and San Rafael repeated with a pennant in Class C.

Baseball continues Friday with Drake and San Rafael clashing in a big one at Albert Field. The other games will be Tam at Redwood and Marin Catholic at Novato.

San Rafael Miler Named Prep Of Week

San Rafael's mile champion Jay Lathrop has been named the Marin Athletic League's "Prep of the Week" after completing the league's dual meet season last Friday with an undefeated record.

Lathrop, only a junior, was clocked at 4 minutes, 40.4 seconds against Tamalpais Friday as he and his teammates won their fifth straight dual meet for the league championship.

Lathrop, one of northern California's top prep milers, with a best clocking of 4:37, has never been pressed in league competition. His times should be better with tougher competition in future meets. He will receive a "Prep of the Week" certificate from the Independent-Journal and Radio KTIM.

NBA 'Distress' Meeting Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Basketball Assn. is scheduled for a May Day meeting today. The "Mayday" in this case stands for the distress signal as well as the date.

The dual subjects causing distress are NBA players who have jumped or are planning to jump to the new American Basketball League and Doug Moe, the University of North Carolina star, whose status is uncertain because of disclosures in the recent gambling scandals.

NBA President Maurice Podoloff said he had called the meeting of the board of governors after learning that Ken Sears of the New York Knickerbockers had joined the San Francisco Saints of the American League.

Two Cincinnati Royals players, Mike Farmer and Win Wilfong, reportedly have signed with San Francisco and Kansas City respectively, in the ABL.

The question of Moe's eligibility was brought up by David Trager, owner of the New Chicago club in the NBA, which drafted the Carolina player. Trager said he would ask clearance to sign Moe.

Palmer's Patented Finish Captures Texas Tournament

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Arnold Palmer returned to his role of golf's great clutch player, became the year's top tournament winner and closed in on young Gary Player in the race for the most money as he bagged the Texas Open.

With a dramatic finish, which saw Palmer come through with an eagle on one of the closing holes, the big-shouldered man from Pennsylvania shot a 3-under-par 68 for the 72-hole total of 270 and a one-strike victory in the storied Texas Open yesterday. It was a repeat with the championship and Palmer's fourth tournament triumph of the year.

Gary Player of Johannesburg, South Africa, the leading money-winner and a three-tournament winner, tied for 14th place with 277 and won only $651.00. Player closed with a 74 as his putting went sour.

So now Player has won $47,068.54 in 15 tournaments while Palmer has taken down $39,886.58 in 14.

The Texas Open started its final round yesterday with Paul Harney and Al Geiberger tied for first with 201 for 54 holes while Palmer, Rex Baxter, Doug Sanders and Al Balding were tied at 202.

But Palmer rallied for an eagle on 15, where his 4-iron travelled 250 yards to the green, just three feet from the pin.

Palmer was able to bogey the final hole and still win the $4,300 first money as Harney missed a long putt that would have given him a birdie. He went past the pin and then two-putted from 18 inches for a bogey.

It gave Harney a 71 and knocked him down to third place at 272, when Balding posted a 69 for 271. Balding birdied the final hole with a 12-foot putt to grab the $3,000 second money. Harney won $2,000.

Penn Crew Triumphs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania's crew won the Childs Cup for the fourth straight year, beating Princeton by one-third length Saturday.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa—Del Flanagan, St. Paul, Minn., defeated Gert Van Heerden when South African was disqualified in eighth for low blows.

Gravely Ill Walter Judge Would Have Been Thrilled By No-Hitter

HANLEY

CHICAGO — Watching a no-hit, no-run is a rare privilege. We know lots of baseball writers who have covered thousands of games and never have seen one.

Take, for instance, Walter Judge. Walter and I used to pal together on the baseball beat the past three years. He was an old and experienced hand. Before major league baseball came to the Golden Gate four years ago, Walter had logged more than 20 years travelling with the old Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League.

A quiet, conscientious fellow, Walter faithfully performed his job, reporting at the ball park at least one hour in advance of every game, day or night. And he always was the last man to leave the press box, reading and re-reading the story he had just filed to see whether a word here or there might improve it.

But Walter never saw a no-hit, no-run game in person. Like thousands of others, he saw Don Larsen's perfect no-hit, no-run game for the Yankees against Brooklyn in the 1956 World Series. He saw that one on television.

LAST SEASON Walter confided to us that he was thinking of retiring "but first I'd like to see a no-hitter." If only the cancer that had been secretly destroying his liver had held off a little longer instead of spreading into his brain! Or, if Walter only had taken a little time off early last year when he ignored a recurrence of dizzy spells, a medical check-up might have caught the cancer in time and he would have seen his no-hitter the other night in Milwaukee.

AS WARREN Spahn was spinning it with his screwball, we couldn't help but think of Walter in San Francisco's Franklin Hospital where he now lies paralyzed, knowing he is beyond a medical but not a miraculous cure.

After the game, we went to the Milwaukee dressing room and Spahn was surrounded by reporters and cameramen doing their jobs. Spahn was saying "I was lucky," and that his backhanded flip of Matty Alou's drag bunt for the second out in the ninth was the key play.

Then, we spotted Charlie Dressen over in the corner—staying out of the spotlight, letting it shine fully on the 46-year-old southpaw wizard.

EARLIER, before the game had started, we had called on Dressen in his manager's office and he was terribly distressed to hear that his old friend was gravely ill. Now, as we approached Charlie the second time he, too, in his moment of jubilation in the Brave dressing room had a thought for Walter.

"I wish he had seen it," said Charlie. "I know he never saw one. I used to tell him when he travelled the old coast circuit together with the Oaks that if he just had patience he would witness a no-hitter.

"I'll write him about this one."

'I CAN'T HIT, RUN OR THROW ANYMORE'

Jensen Explains Why He Quit Baseball

BOSTON (AP) — Jackie Jensen quit the Red Sox because, he says, he can't hit, run or throw anymore, the Boston Traveler said today.

A dispatch from Kansas City by its baseball writer Bill Liston quoted Jensen as saying:

"I can't hit anymore. I can't run. I can't throw. Suddenly my reflexes are gone. I am quitting only because I have too much pride to be the 25th man on the Red Sox."

Liston wrote that Jensen spoke as he was stepping on a home-bound train in Cleveland for his second and positively final retirement from baseball.

"It's hard to understand how a fellow like me . . . who always kept himself in shape should suddenly lose his reflexes.

"But I have. I can't run anymore. I can't hit. I can't throw. We have lost four games already because I have been bad.

"So I am quitting."

In his 12-games this year Jensen has been at bat 46 times, had only six hits for an average of .130. He has batted in only one run.

"I'm not quitting this time, as I did last year, because of my family. I am not quitting because I fear flying, which I still do and always will. I'm quitting only because I have too much pride to be the 25th man on this ball club."

Jensen quit last year because he disliked airplane travel and the long absences from his family.

He signed this year for a reported $50,000 salary, explaining that a hypnotist had helped cure his fear of flying.

At their home in Crystal Bay, Nev., his wife said last night she didn't know what was wrong.

"The children and I were getting ready to move to Boston for the summer," said Mrs. Jensen. "Then this happens. He's still a little bugged about flying, but not to this extent."

Mrs. Jensen—former high diving star Zoe Ann Olsen—said Jackie wired her: "Arriving on train in Reno. Don't jump to conclusions."

In a copyright interview with the Boston Daily Record, Mrs. Jensen said she felt sure "that just as soon as we can get away together for a few days, we'll be on our way back to Boston."

Mrs. Jensen said Jackie's batting slump probably "got him down."

Dick O'Connell, Red Sox vice president, said in Boston that Jensen "is too fine an athlete and person for us to take any action against him until we know what his reasons are."

PARADE KICKS OFF LITTLE LEAGUE SEASON

This was the scene in San Rafael Saturday morning as hundreds of Little League players formed a parade at the Bank of America parking lot on B Street prior to marching to the Albert Field for the opening of the 1961 season. Nine of Marin County's 17 Little Leagues, totalling some 3,100 players, opened their season over the weekend. (Independent-Journal photo)

Record Turnout For Yacht Parade

By ALFRED MATSON

While the information, or lack of it, in the opening day yacht parade made accurate estimates of the number or participants quite impossible, it was agreed by all hands that never in the past has the fleet assumed such gigantic proportions.

Unfortunately the sailing craft which made up the first section didn't put on a well knit performance. Due to start the show at 11 a.m. they were by and large quite tardy and the procession didn't get moving until 11:30. And even then they straggled along with little semblance of formation—much of the confusion due undoubtedly to the daylight savings gimmick which set the starting time up one hour.

All accolades, however, to the power boats. They adhered strictly to the parade marshall's edict: To form off Yellow Bluff and not stray from the fold until their starting time of 12:15 p.m. And when the signal was given, they swung into a well knit formation and swung by the reviewing stands in brilliant fashion.

BOATS SCATTER

Once the paraders had finished their stint, they scattered to all points of the bay, but a great percentage descended on fair Marin's harbors and coves.

Next weekend the activities for both the power cruisers and sail boats is for real. The former will compete in a race Sunday on the Oakland Estuary sponsored by the Oakland Yacht Club. The windjammers will have at it in the two-day Vallejo classic.

John Rumsey tillered his hustling Hustler into first place in the annual Cliff Smith Trophy race for Starboats over the weekend. There were nine starters and near ideal conditions prevailed on the Richardson Bay course. John Scarborough grabbed off second in a tight duel that saw the first five boats finish within 40 seconds of each other.

Unbeaten Bulldog Netters Win Again

Steve Stockton, Harvey Klyce and Bill Clark won their singles matches and Ron Klyce and Warren DeGriff teamed up for San Rafael's fourth victory in the doubles.

Redwood's doubles team of Chris Lewis and Ned Griffith remained undefeated with a 6-3, 6-2 decision.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Johnson electrified a crowd of 9,000 at the St. San Antonio Relays in Walnut Saturday by running the 100-yard dash in 9.2 seconds. But an 11.2 mile-an-hour wind at his back nullified any claim to a world record.

The limit for record eligibility is a wind of no more than 4.473 miles-an-hour.

A world record-tying 9.3 by Johnson was disqualified at Stanford a few weeks ago because officials forgot to put an accurate wind gauge on the track. He has tied the record three times this spring.

Record or no, Johnson's performance was the highlight of a show that saw 11 meet records broken.

Southern California's Rex Cawley anchored the Trojan mile relay team to a 3:07.6 national collegiate record and also helped set meet records in three other races.

Cawley also won the 400-meter hurdles in 50.6, the fastest time for the event this year.

Southern Cal's Bob Avant became the fourth American to high jump seven feet. He cleared the bar at exactly that figure and beat Joe Faust—one of the other three. Faust was second with 6-10¾.

In other meets involving California teams, Stanford edged Washington 68-63 in a rain-swept dual meet at Seattle, California defeated Santa Clara Youth Village 76-51 at Berkeley, and San Francisco State won a four-way meet on its home grounds.

San Francisco State piled up 130 points on the strength of performances by Tom Skinner, who won both the high and low hurdles, and Bruce Byram, who topped the javelin and shotput events.

California's Dave Maggard set a school record of 57-9 in the shot put. The Bears topped a Youth Village team weakened because five of its top stars were competing at Walnut.

At Seattle, Stanford's mile relay team broke a tie with a five-yard victory in the final event.

Dave Will of Stanford won the discus with a toss of 174 feet 8½ inches. Craig Barrett, who won the low hurdles, took seconds in the 100-yard dash and broad jump and third in the high hurdles to chalk up 12 of Stanford's points.

Three Marin Weightlifters Win Pacific Coast Titles

Weightlifters representing San Rafael's MarVel Athletic Club won three of the seven first places in the 1961 Pacific Coast AAU Weightlifting Championships, over the weekend in Portland but lost the team championship by one point to a team from San Diego.

One of the MarVel first-place winners was Carrol Varner, who successfully defended his 164-pound championship against the efforts of the top middleweights from San Diego to Canada. Carrol, a 22-year-old San Rafael man, made a 240-pound Press in the course of the contest for the first time in hs career, and ended with a 750 total.

Chet Pape of San Anselmo was enthroned as the new king of the Pacific Coast heavyweights by making the best total of any heavyweight on the coast this year. Chet is a 25-year-old 205-pounder.

The third championship won by a MarVel lifter was won by 120-pound Mike Dooley, a 19-year-old Stanford student, who totalled 510 and set a new Pacific Coast meet record in the Clean-and-Jerk with his 210 pounds.

Two other Marin County boys lifted in the meet, Terry Johnson and Gerry Denman. Terry was the defending champ in the 132-pound class, but as a growing 16-year-old can so easily do, he outgrew his competitors and had to lift as a 148-pounder. The competition this time was a little too tough for him, although he did manage to outlift two of his competitors.

The contest was Saturday and yesterday at the Multnomah Athletic Club in Portland.

Next meet the local iron-tossers will be travelling to the 1961 Juniors Nationals, the Western Division of which will be held in Phoenix, Ariz., on May 13. Then comes the big one, the National Championship which this year is being held in the new Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

HANLEY

CHICAGO — Watching a no-hit, no-run is a rare privilege. We know lots of baseball writers who have covered thousands of games and never have seen one.

Take, for instance, Walter Judge. Walter and I used to pal together on the baseball beat the past three years. He was an old and experienced hand. Before major league baseball came to the Golden Gate four years ago, Walter had logged more than 20 years travelling with the old Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League.

A quiet, conscientious fellow, Walter faithfully performed his job, reporting at the ball park at least one hour in advance of every game, day or night. And he always was the last man to leave the press box, reading and re-reading the story he had just filed to see whether a word here or there might improve it.

But Walter never saw a no-hit, no-run game in person. Like thousands of others, he saw Don Larsen's perfect no-hit, no-run game for the Yankees against Brooklyn in the 1956 World Series. He saw that one on television.

LAST SEASON Walter confided to us that he was thinking of retiring "but first I'd like to see a no-hitter." If only the cancer that had been secretly destroying his liver had held off a little longer instead of spreading into his brain! Or, if Walter only had taken a little time off early last year when he ignored a recurrence of dizzy spells, a medical check-up might have caught the cancer in time and he would have seen his no-hitter the other night in Milwaukee.

AS WARREN Spahn was spinning it with his screwball, we couldn't help but think of Walter in San Francisco's Franklin Hospital where he now lies paralyzed, knowing he is beyond a medical but not a miraculous cure.

After the game, we went to the Milwaukee dressing room and Spahn was surrounded by reporters and cameramen doing their jobs. Spahn was saying "I was lucky," and that his backhanded flip of Matty Alou's drag bunt for the second out in the ninth was the key play.

Then, we spotted Charlie Dressen over in the corner—staying out of the spotlight, letting it shine fully on the 46-year-old southpaw wizard.

EARLIER, before the game had started, we had called on Dressen in his manager's office and he was terribly distressed to hear that his old friend was gravely ill. Now, as we approached Charlie the second time he, too, in his moment of jubilation in the Brave dressing room had a thought for Walter.

"I wish he had seen it," said Charlie. "I know he never saw one. I used to tell him when he travelled the old coast circuit together with the Oaks that if he just had patience he would witness a no-hitter.

"I'll write him about this one."

'I CAN'T HIT, RUN OR THROW ANYMORE'

Jensen Explains Why He Quit Baseball

BOSTON (AP) — Jackie Jensen quit the Red Sox because, he says, he can't hit, run or throw anymore, the Boston Traveler said today.

A dispatch from Kansas City by its baseball writer Bill Liston quoted Jensen as saying:

"I can't hit anymore. I can't run. I can't throw. Suddenly my reflexes are gone. I am quitting only because I have too much pride to be the 25th man on the Red Sox."

Liston wrote that Jensen spoke as he was stepping on a home-bound train in Cleveland for his second and positively final retirement from baseball.

"It's hard to understand how a fellow like me . . . who always kept himself in shape should suddenly lose his reflexes.

"But I have. I can't run anymore. I can't hit. I can't throw. We have lost four games already because I have been bad.

"So I am quitting."

In his 12-games this year Jensen has been at bat 46 times, had only six hits for an average of .130. He has batted in only one run.

"I don't want to take owner Tom Yakey's money under false pretenses," Jensen continued. His salary is estimated at $50,000.

"I'm not quitting this time, as I did last year, because of my family. I am not quitting because I fear flying, which I still do and always will. I'm quitting only because I have too much pride to be the 25th man on this ball club."

Jensen quit last year because he disliked airplane travel and the long absences from his family.

He signed this year for a reported $50,000 salary, explaining that a hypnotist had helped cure his fear of flying.

At their home in Crystal Bay, Nev., his wife said last night she didn't know what was wrong.

"The children and I were getting ready to move to Boston for the summer," said Mrs. Jensen. "Then this happens. He's still a little bugged about flying, but not to this extent."

Mrs. Jensen—former high diving star Zoe Ann Olsen—said Jackie wired her: "Arriving on train in Reno. Don't jump to conclusions."

In a copyright interview with the Boston Daily Record, Mrs. Jensen said she felt sure "that just as soon as we can get away together for a few days, we'll be on our way back to Boston."

Mrs. Jensen said Jackie's batting slump probably "got him down."

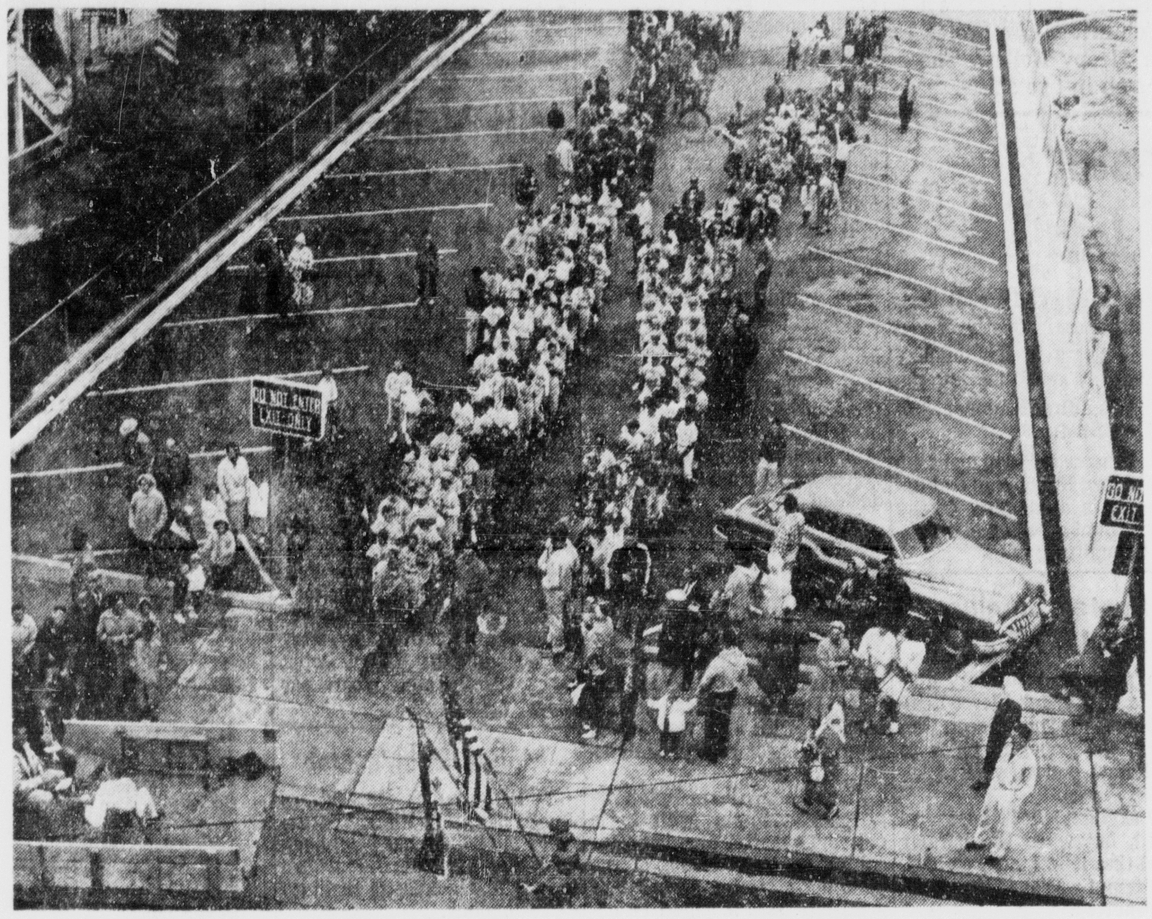
Dick O'Connell, Red Sox vice president, said in Boston that Jensen "is too fine an athlete and person for us to take any action against him until we know what his reasons are."



PARADE KICKS OFF LITTLE LEAGUE SEASON

This was the scene in San Rafael Saturday morning as hundreds of Little League players formed a parade at the Bank of America parking lot on B Street prior to marching to the Albert Field for the opening of the 1961 season. Record Turnout For Yacht Parade

By ALFRED MATSON

While the information, or lack of it, in the opening day yacht parade made accurate estimates of the number or participants quite impossible, it was agreed by all hands that never in the past has the fleet assumed such gigantic proportions.

Unfortunately the sailing craft which made up the first section didn't put on a well knit performance. Due to start the show at 11 a.m. they were by and large quite tardy and the procession didn't get moving until 11:30. And even then they straggled along with little semblance of formation—much of the confusion due undoubtedly to the daylight savings gimmick which set the starting time up one hour.

All accolades, however, to the power boats. They adhered strictly to the parade marshall's edict: To form off Yellow Bluff and not stray from the fold until their starting time of 12:15 p.m. And when the signal was given, they swung into a well knit formation and swung by the reviewing stands in brilliant fashion.

BOATS SCATTER

Once the paraders had finished their stint, they scattered to all points of the bay, but a great percentage descended on fair Marin's harbors and coves.

Next weekend the activities for both the power cruisers and sail boats is for real. The former will compete in a race Sunday on the Oakland Estuary sponsored by the Oakland Yacht Club. The windjammers will have at it in the two-day Vallejo classic.

John Rumsey tillered his hustling Hustler into first place in the annual Cliff Smith Trophy race for Starboats over the weekend. There were nine starters and near ideal conditions prevailed on the Richardson Bay course. John Scarborough grabbed off second in a tight duel that saw the first five boats finish within 40 seconds of each other.

Unbeaten Bulldog Netters Win Again

Steve Stockton, Harvey Klyce and Bill Clark won their singles matches and Ron Klyce and Warren DeGriff teamed up for San Rafael's fourth victory in the doubles.

Redwood's doubles team of Chris Lewis and Ned Griffith remained undefeated with a 6-3, 6-2 decision.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Johnson electrified a crowd of 9,000 at the St. San Antonio Relays in Walnut Saturday by running the 100-yard dash in 9.2 seconds. But an 11.2 mile-an-hour wind at his back nullified any claim to a world record.

The limit for record eligibility is a wind of no more than 4.473 miles-an-hour.

A world record-tying 9.3 by Johnson was disqualified at Stanford a few weeks ago because officials forgot to put an accurate wind gauge on the track. He has tied the record three times this spring.

Record or no, Johnson's performance was the highlight of a show that saw 11 meet records broken.

Southern California's Rex Cawley anchored the Trojan mile relay team to a 3:07.6 national collegiate record and also helped set meet records in three other races.

Cawley also won the 400-meter hurdles in 50.6, the fastest time for the event this year.

Southern Cal's Bob Avant became the fourth American to high jump seven feet. He cleared the bar at exactly that figure and beat Joe Faust—one of the other three. Faust was second with 6-10¾.

In other meets involving California teams, Stanford edged Washington 68-63 in a rain-swept dual meet at Seattle, California defeated Santa Clara Youth Village 76-51 at Berkeley, and San Francisco State won a four-way meet on its home grounds.

San Francisco State piled up 130 points on the strength of performances by Tom Skinner, who won both the high and low hurdles, and Bruce Byram, who topped the javelin and shotput events.

California's Dave Maggard set a school record of 57-9 in the shot put. The Bears topped a Youth Village team weakened because five of its top stars were competing at Walnut.

At Seattle, Stanford's mile relay team broke a tie with a five-yard victory in the final event.

Dave Will of Stanford won the discus with a toss of 174 feet 8½ inches. Craig Barrett, who won the low hurdles, took seconds in the 100-yard dash and broad jump and third in the high hurdles to chalk up 12 of Stanford's points.

Three Marin Weightlifters Win Pacific Coast Titles

Weightlifters representing San Rafael's MarVel Athletic Club won three of the seven first places in the 1961 Pacific Coast AAU Weightlifting Championships, over the weekend in Portland but lost the team championship by one point to a team from San Diego.

One of the MarVel first-place winners was Carrol Varner, who successfully defended his 164-pound championship against the efforts of the top middleweights from San Diego to Canada. Carrol, a 22-year-old San Rafael man, made a 240-pound Press in the course of the contest for the first time in hs career, and ended with a 750 total.

Chet Pape of San Anselmo was enthroned as the new king of the Pacific Coast heavyweights by making the best total of any heavyweight on the coast this year. Chet is a 25-year-old 205-pounder.

The third championship won by a MarVel lifter was won by 120-pound Mike Dooley, a 19-year-old Stanford student, who totalled 510 and set a new Pacific Coast meet record in the Clean-and-Jerk with his 210 pounds.

Two other Marin County boys lifted in the meet, Terry Johnson and Gerry Denman. Terry was the defending champ in the 132-pound class, but as a growing 16-year-old can so easily do, he outgrew his competitors and had to lift as a 148-pounder. The competition this time was a little too tough for him, although he did manage to outlift two of his competitors.

The contest was Saturday and yesterday at the Multnomah Athletic Club in Portland.

Next meet the local iron-tossers will be travelling to the 1961 Juniors Nationals, the Western Division of which will be held in Phoenix, Ariz., on May 13. Then comes the big one, the National Championship which this year is being held in the new Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

Three Marin Weightlifters Win Pacific Coast Titles

Weightlifters representing San Rafael's MarVel Athletic Club won three of the seven first places in the 1961 Pacific Coast AAU Weightlifting Championships, over the weekend in Portland but lost the team championship by one point to a team from San Diego.

One of the MarVel first-place winners was Carrol Varner, who successfully defended his 164-pound championship against the efforts of the top middleweights from San Diego to Canada. Carrol, a 22-year-old San Rafael man, made a 240-pound Press in the course of the contest for the first time in hs career, and ended with a 750 total.

Chet Pape of San Anselmo was enthroned as the new king of the Pacific Coast heavyweights by making the best total of any heavyweight on the coast this year. Chet is a 25-year-old 205-pounder.

The third championship won by a MarVel lifter was won by 120-pound Mike Dooley, a 19-year-old Stanford student, who totalled 510 and set a new Pacific Coast meet record in the Clean-and-Jerk with his 210 pounds.

Two other Marin County boys lifted in the meet, Terry Johnson and Gerry Denman. Terry was the defending champ in the 132-pound class, but as a growing 16-year-old can so easily do, he outgrew his competitors and had to lift as a 148-pounder. The competition this time was a little too tough for him, although he did manage to outlift two of his competitors.

The contest was Saturday and yesterday at the Multnomah Athletic Club in Portland.

Next meet the local iron-tossers will be travelling to the 1961 Juniors Nationals, the Western Division of which will be held in Phoenix, Ariz., on May 13. Then comes the big one, the National Championship which this year is being held in the new Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

Laos Pledged West Support By Harriman

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — U.S. support was pledged to the pro-Western government and W. Averell Harriman declared today any delay in a cease-fire "is squarely up to Premier Khrushchev and he must bear responsibility for it."

Harriman, roving ambassador for President John F. Kennedy, came here from two days of conferences in the royal capital of Luang Prabang, where he and Cambodia's neutralist chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, pressed for moves to establish a cease-fire as a first step toward peace.

EVERYTHING POSSIBLE

Harriman told a news conference the United States is doing everything possible to promote the cease-fire but will continue to stand behind the government in the Laotian civil war.

Sihanouk told reporters in Vientiane earlier in the day that King Savang Vathana opposes a 14-nation peace conference on Laos, a stand that might throw up another roadblock to a cease-fire.

But Harriman said the Laotian government of Premier Boun Oum and the United States both still favor the 14-nation conference after a cease-fire.

Sihanouk said he is withdrawing his sponsorship because King Savang Vathana opposed anything but a settlement among the Laotians themselves.

ROLE OF MEDIATOR

Sihanouk has been acting in a role of mediator in the civil conflict and it was he who first suggested the 14-nation conference. The Communist-led rebels made this the cornerstone of their peace proposals.

Sihanouk talked to reporters on a stopover here from Luang Prabang, the Laotian royal capital. The development came as government and pro-Communist rebel emissaries were supposed to be seeking each other out on the front north of Vientiane to discuss a cease-fire.

The impact of the king's decision is difficult to assess. The king by tradition stands aloof from politics. But as the crisis deepened in Laos he took a more active role in trying to settle the conflict—and the pro-Western government listened to his counsel.

Marinite Elected St. Mary's President

A 1958 graduate of Marin Catholic High School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noel T. Giacomini of 82 Lagoon Road. He was president of his class at St. Mary's for two years, served as co-chairman of the annual St. Mary's open house and co-chairman of the junior prom.

YOUR BABIES AND BREADWINNERS ARE POLIO'S TARGET!

POLIO can hit your family this summer

Polio is striking most sharply at infants and children too young to go to school—and at their parents, especially young fathers who have failed to get their Salk shots or complete their series of four doses.

Right in your own home town there are islands of population just as vulnerable to crippling polio as before the era of the Salk vaccine. Three-quarters of last year's cases were unvaccinated or not fully vaccinated people.

Polio shots are easy to get, cost very little. If everyone who needs them got at least three shots before next summer, there might be no polio epidemics. You and your neighbors can't feel safe until they go out and get them!

Getting babies, and toddlers, and their parents, vaccinated is important insurance against epidemics and the personal disaster of polio. Don't neglect it. Do it now.

Don't take a chance—take your POLIO shots

SLEEPY HOLLOW TO GET CHEAPER FIRE INSURANCE

Sleepy Hollow home owners will pay about 25 per cent less for fire insurance hereafter.

C. Paul Bettini, president of the Marin County Assn. of Insurance Agents, today announced the association has received word that fire insurance rates for Sleepy Hollow will be cut by that amount as result of its reclassification by the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau from "class 7" to "class 4."

The new rates will be automatic on all insurance written since April 15, Bettini said.

Chief Nello Marcucci of the San Anselmo Fire Department, which serves the Sleepy Hollow Fire district under contract, said there are about 470 homes in the area affected.

The rate reduction was credited to building of the San Anselmo No. 2 Fire Station at Butterfield Road and Arroyo Avenue, which brings fire protection several minutes closer to Sleepy Hollow. The station is manned by four firemen in two shifts.

Novato Postmaster Resigns From Job

Harry M. Overly, assistant postmaster, reported today he will seek appointment to the post. It was reported also that Ernest Schallinger of 31 Hillside Terrace, Black Point, will be a candidate for the appointment.

Morris, 50, has been postmaster of Novato since 1954. Before that he was assistant postmaster and acting postmaster, beginning in 1952. Morris is now on vacation until May 26, when his resignation will take effect. He said he hopes to be appointed to a post office job outside Novato and probably would move from the city.

Overly has been assistant postmaster for seven years. Previously, he was superintendent of mails at the San Anselmo post office and a mail clerk in Santa Rosa. Overly served for 3½ years in the infantry in World War II, leaving the service as a first lieutenant. He is a Democrat.

Schallinger is Marin manager for Western Builders in San Rafael and is a member of the Marin County Democratic Central Committee

Attempted Burglary Reported To Police

An attempted burglary during the weekend at Pierce Realty at 1601 Second Street, San Rafael, was reported today to San Rafael police by Mrs. Angela S. Pierce.

A skylight had been removed, but when the burglar found that it led to a corridor, the attempt was abandoned, police reported.

Planners Reject Apartment Plans

A packed Marin County Planning Commission chamber broke into applause today when the commission, after extensive hearing, denied application by Del Norte Lands, Inc., for rezoning of 25 acres near the county civic center for apartment and administrative-professional use.

More than a dozen protest communications were read at the outset of the hearing, continued from April 17 when Northbridge area property owners had also turned out to voice objections. Many residents spoke again today.

The opposition centered on already congested conditions of North San Pedro Road, alleged lack of demand for such facility, availability of other areas for such use, and desirability of a master plan for the whole civic center area. A Northbridge Recreation Club letter said 170 residents had protested, with only four favoring. One speaker said such development would mean "it won't be marvelous Marin any more."

Spokesmen for the land company said they had inquiries from various San Rafael professional people who expect to be driven out of present quarters when development of new acccesses to Highway 101 are decided upon.

It was argued that San Pedro Road overcrowding must be dealt with in any event, and brought out that four lanes are projected; also that the 25 acres would be half for apartment dwellers "who aren't second-class citizens, and are entitled to a nice location like others," with the rest to be used for professional-administrative offices.

Chairman William Upton expressed sympathy with those desiring a master plan but after calling on B. D. Dobbs of the planning staff for a report of prespects, said it would be optimistic to hope for such a plan within a year.

New zoning now might be premature, Upton concluded. Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. agreed.

Commissioner Felix M. Warburg ended the hesitation by saying: "I can't see justification for this. It seems premature and would be a hasty action." He moved denial and got a unanimous 5-0 vote with John Switzer absent.

The commission ordered continuation to May 15 of the resolution of intent to consider a Joaquin Ranch Master Plan, 72.5 acres east of San Rafael south of Sims Street.

Mill Valley Police Chief Starts Work

Dan Terzich, a Mill Valley police officer for eight years, today started as Mill Valley Police Chief, replacing James P. McGowan who retired because of health.

Terzich, 53, was a guard at San Quentin Prison from 1939 to 1942. From 1942 to 1946, he was deputy sheriff for Marin County and he served on the Willows Police force 1947-48. From 1950 to 1953, Terzich was a house detective for the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

Terzich, who lives at 109 Belvedere Drive, Mill Valley, started on the Mill Valley Police force exactly eight years ago today, May 1, 1953.

Cadillac

Even its economy says "yes"!

Let us reflect, for a moment, on the things that beckon a man to Cadillac.

There is, to begin with, the car's grace and majesty of styling—a temptation that is difficult indeed to deny.

There is its luxury and its comfort—eloquent invitations to ownership all by themselves.

There is its masterful performance and its reputation for quality—almost irresistible attractions in today's world of motor cars.

And now, more than ever, Cadillac's economy ranks high among those important considerations that lead inevitably to the "car of cars".

For a Cadillac has, over the years, become progressively more practical to own and to operate.

The purchase price of a 1961 Cadillac is remarkably reasonable in relation to the cost of other cars. In terms of value received, it might well represent the greatest bargain of all.

And consider how well a Cadillac holds that value—and makes your Cadillac a sound investment for whatever length of time you might choose to own it.

Then, too, the car is unusually conservative in its use of gasoline—and as free from maintenance as sound engineering and careful craftsmanship can make it.

Visit your dealer soon for the facts.

You'll find, we are certain, that even Cadillac's economy says "yes"!

Novato Postmaster Resigns From Job

Harry M. Overly, assistant postmaster, reported today he will seek appointment to the post. It was reported also that Ernest Schallinger of 31 Hillside Terrace, Black Point, will be a candidate for the appointment.

Morris, 50, has been postmaster of Novato since 1954. Before that he was assistant postmaster and acting postmaster, beginning in 1952. Morris is now on vacation until May 26, when his resignation will take effect. He said he hopes to be appointed to a post office job outside Novato and probably would move from the city.

Overly has been assistant postmaster for seven years. Previously, he was superintendent of mails at the San Anselmo post office and a mail clerk in Santa Rosa. Overly served for 3½ years in the infantry in World War II, leaving the service as a first lieutenant. He is a Democrat.

Schallinger is Marin manager for Western Builders in San Rafael and is a member of the Marin County Democratic Central Committee

Attempted Burglary Reported To Police

An attempted burglary during the weekend at Pierce Realty at 1601 Second Street, San Rafael, was reported today to San Rafael police by Mrs. Angela S. Pierce.

A skylight had been removed, but when the burglar found that it led to a corridor, the attempt was abandoned, police reported.

Planners Reject Apartment Plans

A packed Marin County Planning Commission chamber broke into applause today when the commission, after extensive hearing, denied application by Del Norte Lands, Inc., for rezoning of 25 acres near the county civic center for apartment and administrative-professional use.

More than a dozen protest communications were read at the outset of the hearing, continued from April 17 when Northbridge area property owners had also turned out to voice objections. Many residents spoke again today.

The opposition centered on already congested conditions of North San Pedro Road, alleged lack of demand for such facility, availability of other areas for such use, and desirability of a master plan for the whole civic center area. A Northbridge Recreation Club letter said 170 residents had protested, with only four favoring. One speaker said such development would mean "it won't be marvelous Marin any more."

Spokesmen for the land company said they had inquiries from various San Rafael professional people who expect to be driven out of present quarters when development of new acccesses to Highway 101 are decided upon.

It was argued that San Pedro Road overcrowding must be dealt with in any event, and brought out that four lanes are projected; also that the 25 acres would be half for apartment dwellers "who aren't second-class citizens, and are entitled to a nice location like others," with the rest to be used for professional-administrative offices.

Chairman William Upton expressed sympathy with those desiring a master plan but after calling on B. D. Dobbs of the planning staff for a report of prespects, said it would be optimistic to hope for such a plan within a year.

Commissioner Felix M. Warburg ended the hesitation by saying: "I can't see justification for this. It seems premature and would be a hasty action." He moved denial and got a unanimous 5-0 vote with John Switzer absent.

The commission ordered continuation to May 15 of the resolution of intent to consider a Joaquin Ranch Master Plan, 72.5 acres east of San Rafael south of Sims Street.

Cadillac

Even its economy says "yes"!

Let us reflect, for a moment, on the things that beckon a man to Cadillac.

There is, to begin with, the car's grace and majesty of styling—a temptation that is difficult indeed to deny.

There is its luxury and its comfort—eloquent invitations to ownership all by themselves.

There is its masterful performance and its reputation for quality—almost irresistible attractions in today's world of motor cars.

And now, more than ever, Cadillac's economy ranks high among those important considerations that lead inevitably to the "car of cars".

For a Cadillac has, over the years, become progressively more practical to own and to operate.

The purchase price of a 1961 Cadillac is remarkably reasonable in relation to the cost of other cars. In terms of value received, it might well represent the greatest bargain of all.

And consider how well a Cadillac holds that value—and makes your Cadillac a sound investment for whatever length of time you might choose to own it.

Then, too, the car is unusually conservative in its use of gasoline—and as free from maintenance as sound engineering and careful craftsmanship can make it.

Visit your dealer soon for the facts.

You'll find, we are certain, that even Cadillac's economy says "yes"!

Belvedere House Tour Encompasses 2 Isles

"Island Itinerary," the 11th annual Belvedere House Tour, is a springtime afternoon tour of two islands—Corinthian and Belvedere—and the Belvedere Lagoon.

Sponsored by St. Stephen's Guild of Belvedere, the tour is headed by Mrs. Edward M. Shelton, and provides 50 station wagons for transportation around the wooded islands, offering visitors the breath-taking views for which the area is so famous.

Thursday, May 11, is the date of the "Itinerary" and the hours are from 1 to 5 p.m., with tea served in the San Francisco Yacht Club from 3 to 5 p.m. Tickets are available by calling either Mrs. Clifford Kumler Jr., or Mrs. George C. Stephens.

Six homes will be open for admiration. They are the dramatic Peter Mantegani home on Corinthian, whose three levels are supported in a cantilevered concrete beam construction designed by Joseph Esherick. Henry Brogiotti of San Francisco designed the elegant interior, which spotlights touches of color against dark woods and white furnishings. Their spectacular vistas include the intimate Belvedere Cove activity below. Models will display the exotic creations of John Gavin, Ltd., of Sausalito, whose original fashions are creating a stir in Bay Area style centers.

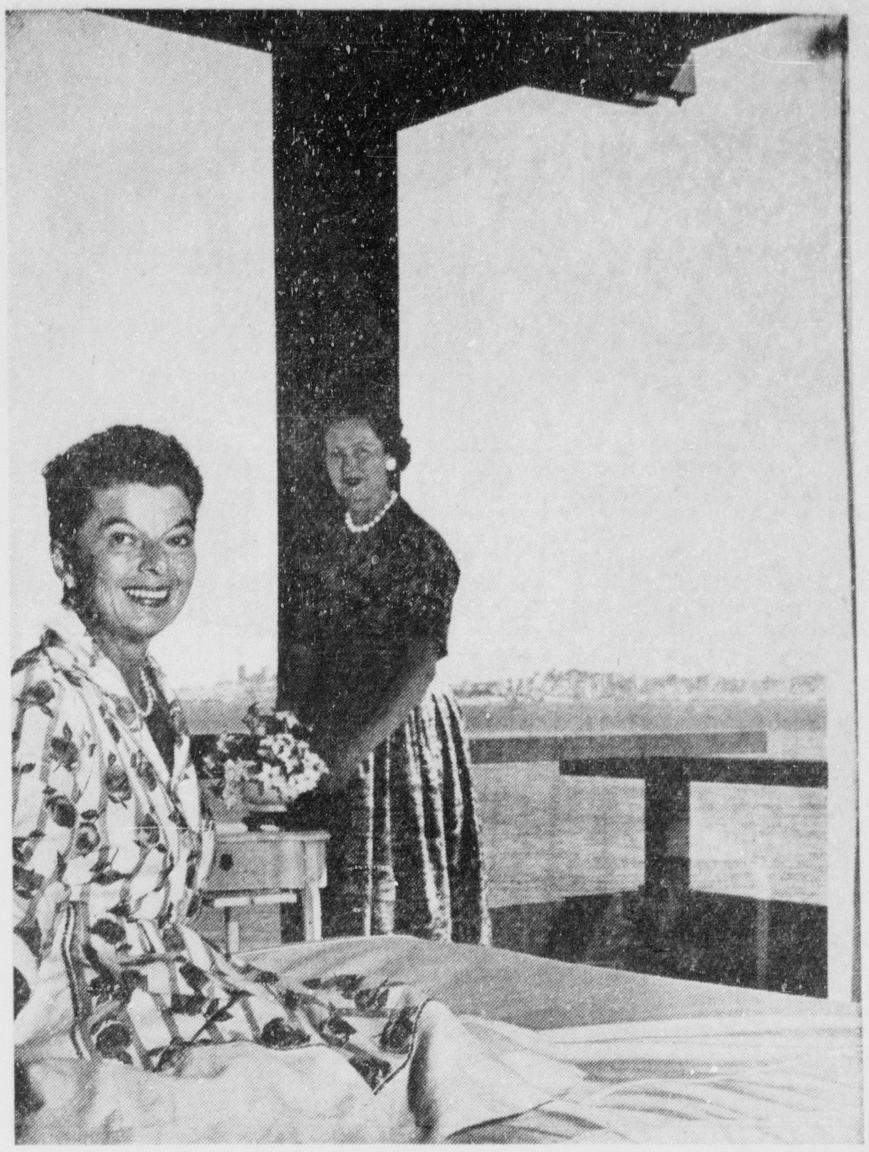
Another Belvedere estate, contrasting in period and location with "Landfall," is the lavish Gordon P. Kelley home. Built in contemporary style, vastly remodeled by John Lord King, it is situated on the opposite side of Belvedere from "Landfall," looks across to San Francisco. Mr. Kelley's beautiful home is elegantly furnished in a decor created by Vail Kasper and features an extensive collection of original art. The dining-room is suspended balcony-style above the two-story studio living room, looks out over the swimming pool and terrace.

Another John Lord King design is the William Steen home which also features an interesting art collection and magnificent views. It won a Sunset Magazine-A.I.A. award for its use of a difficult building site.

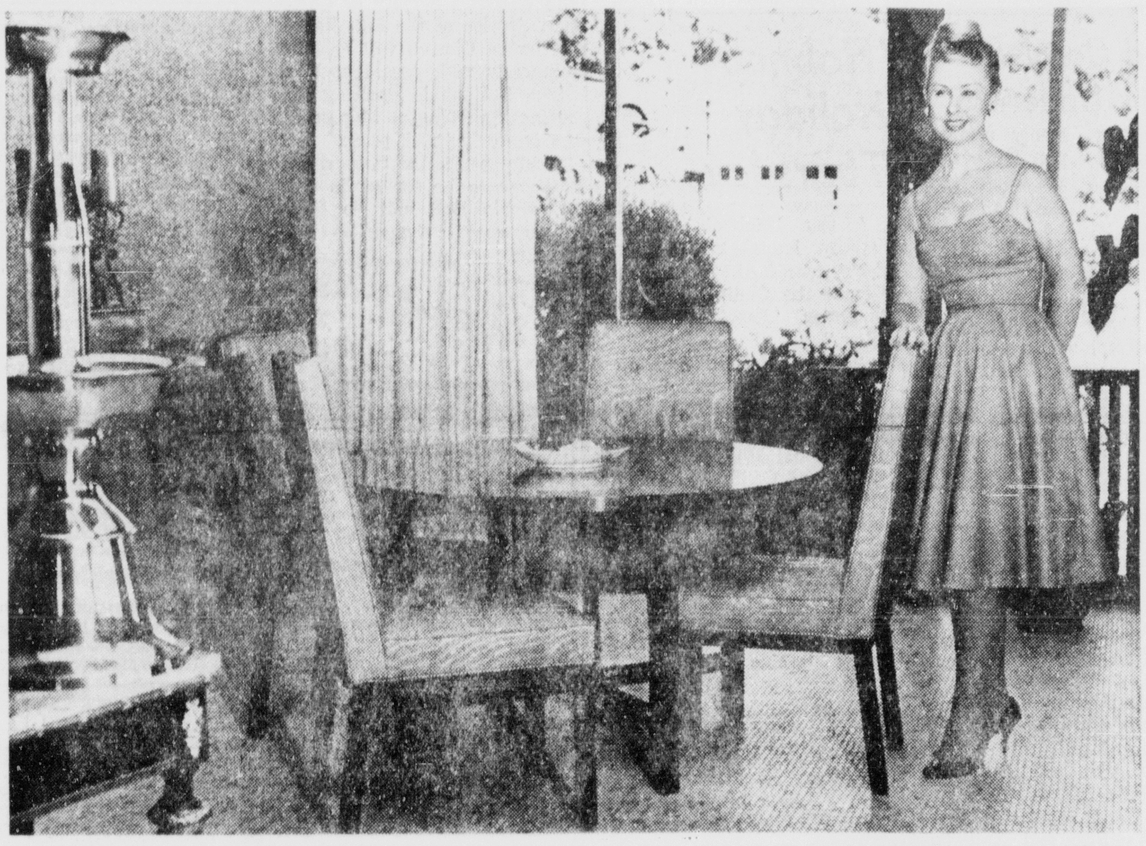
On the Lagoon, the tour features the Robert Rodden home, designed by George Rockrise, and featuring a colorful mosaic fountain in its interior patio. The bright lagoon reflection is softly muted by the warm dark wood interior of the living room.

Russell Gifford designed the unique Wallace E. Scott home on the opposite side of the Lagoon. Its two-story columns, although contemporary, resemble the graceful entrance of a Southern mansion, and provide an interesting entry to the appropriate setting for Mrs. Scott's lovely antique furniture.

Working with Mrs. Shelton on the tour have been the Mmes. James Michael, assistant chairman; Frank King and E. G. Weed, transportation; Edwin H. Sinclair and Chester Vargas, arrangements; William Hays Ballard and Gerard Elbert, hostesses; Shone Hollongworth, tea; Kenneth Frost, publicity; John H. Hoefer and Robert Bagnall, program. Mrs. John H. Flint is president of St. Stephen's Guild.



IN THE BEDROOM of the Mantegani home with its spacious view are Guild members, Mrs. Rod Taft, seated, and standing at the window, Mrs. Dickerson McAfee. Six homes will be open for the springtime afternoon tour of two islands — Corinthian and Belvedere — and the Belvedere Lagoon. Thursday, May 11 is the date for "Itinerary."



ST. STEPHEN'S Guild member Mrs. Watson Purdom is pictured in the Mantegani home designed by Joseph Esherick. Henry Brogiotti designed the elegant interior, which spotlights touches of color against dark woods and white furnishings. The tour will be from 1 to 5 p.m. on May 11 with tea served from 3 to 5 o'clock at the San Francisco Yacht Club. (Independent-Journal photos.)

Sharon Seglin Weds Craig L. Williams

Fragrant arrangements of white stock and rhodendrons decorated the Phoenix and Conquistador rooms at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco for the April 30th wedding of Sharon Diane Seglin of San Francisco and Craig Leroy Williams of San Anselmo.

The couple were united in marriage by Rabbi Morris Goldstein. The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, Leon Seglin of San Francisco. Sharon wore a white organdy gown accented with a huge taffeta cumberbund forming a bow in the back of the bell shaped skirt which was embroidered around the hemline. Her crown was of tiny seed pearls with a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, white roses and lily of the valley.

The ceremony which was attended only by member of the immediate family, including Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dell'Era of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Verbin of San Carlos, was followed by a champagne dinner.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Williams are spending their honeymoon in Southern California and upon their return will make their first home in San Rafael.

Craig is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Williams of San Anselmo and the brother of Hunter Williams of San Anselmo and Mrs. Lee Dell'Era of San Rafael. He was graduated from the College of Marin.

Sharon was graduated from City College of San Francisco.

Belvedere House Tour Encompasses 2 Isles

"Island Itinerary," the 11th annual Belvedere House Tour, is a springtime afternoon tour of two islands—Corinthian and Belvedere—and the Belvedere Lagoon.

Sponsored by St. Stephen's Guild of Belvedere, the tour is headed by Mrs. Edward M. Shelton, and provides 50 station wagons for transportation around the wooded islands, offering visitors the breath-taking views for which the area is so famous.

Thursday, May 11, is the date of the "Itinerary" and the hours are from 1 to 5 p.m., with tea served in the San Francisco Yacht Club from 3 to 5 p.m. Tickets are available by calling either Mrs. Clifford Kumler Jr., or Mrs. George C. Stephens.

Six homes will be open for admiration. They are the dramatic Peter Mantegani home on Corinthian, whose three levels are supported in a cantilevered concrete beam construction designed by Joseph Esherick. Henry Brogiotti of San Francisco designed the elegant interior, which spotlights touches of color against dark woods and white furnishings. Their spectacular vistas include the intimate Belvedere Cove activity below. Models will display the exotic creations of John Gavin, Ltd., of Sausalito, whose original fashions are creating a stir in Bay Area style centers.

Another Belvedere estate, contrasting in period and location with "Landfall," is the lavish Gordon P. Kelley home. Built in contemporary style, vastly remodeled by John Lord King, it is situated on the opposite side of Belvedere from "Landfall," looks across to San Francisco. Mr. Kelley's beautiful home is elegantly furnished in a decor created by Vail Kasper and features an extensive collection of original art. The dining-room is suspended balcony-style above the two-story studio living room, looks out over the swimming pool and terrace.

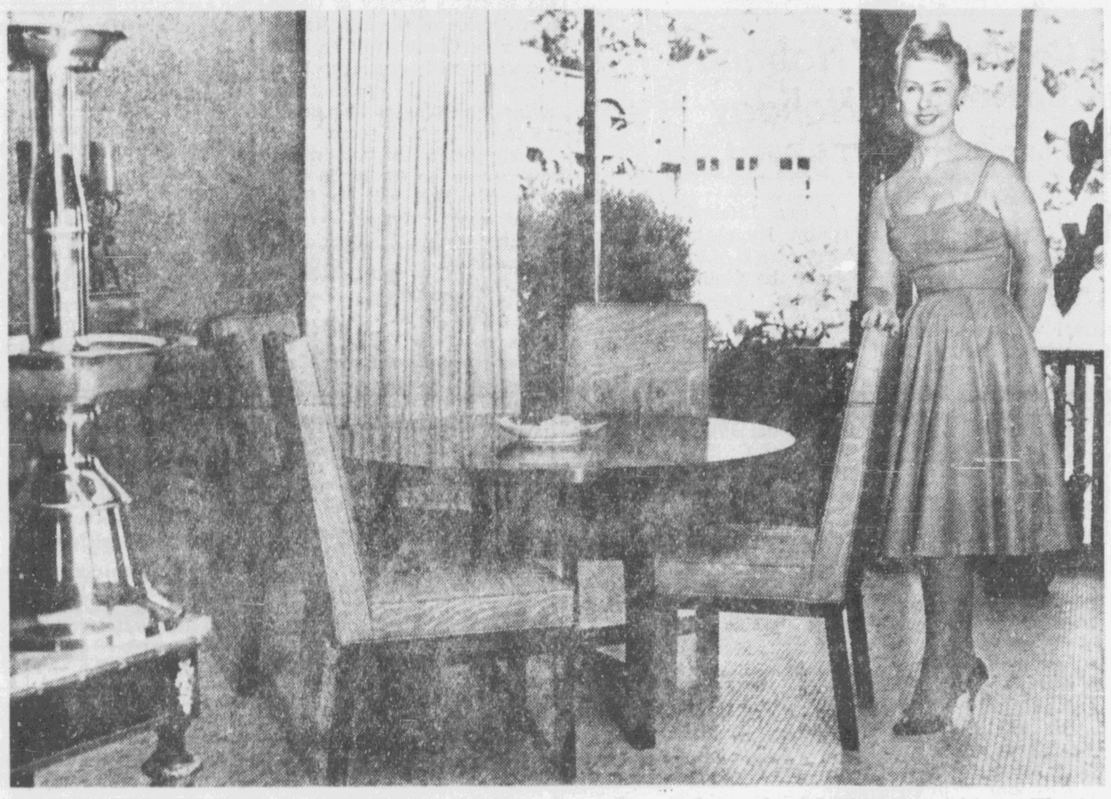
Another John Lord King design is the William Steen home which also features an interesting art collection and magnificent views. It won a Sunset Magazine-A.I.A. award for its use of a difficult building site.

On the Lagoon, the tour features the Robert Rodden home, designed by George Rockrise, and featuring a colorful mosaic fountain in its interior patio. The bright lagoon reflection is softly muted by the warm dark wood interior of the living room.

Russell Gifford designed the unique Wallace E. Scott home on the opposite side of the Lagoon. Its two-story columns, although contemporary, resemble the graceful entrance of a Southern mansion, and provide an interesting entry to the appropriate setting for Mrs. Scott's lovely antique furniture.

Working with Mrs. Shelton on the tour have been the Mmes. James Michael, assistant chairman; Frank King and E. G. Weed, transportation; Edwin H. Sinclair and Chester Vargas, arrangements; William Hays Ballard and Gerard Elbert, hostesses; Shone Hollingsworth, tea; Kenneth Frost, publicity; John H. Hoefer and Robert Bagnall, program. Mrs. John H. Flint is president of St. Stephen's Guild.

IN THE BEDROOM of the Mantegani home with its spacious view are Guild members, Mrs. Rod Taft, seated, and standing at the window, Mrs. Dickerson McAfee. Six homes will be open for the springtime afternoon tour of two islands — Corinthian and Belvedere — and the Belvedere Lagoon. Thursday, May 11 is the date for "Itinerary."



ST. STEPHEN'S Guild member Mrs. Watson Purdom is pictured in the Mantegani home designed by Joseph Esherick. Henry Brogiotti designed the elegant interior, which spotlights touches of color against dark woods and white furnishings. The tour will be from 1 to 5 p.m. on May 11 with tea served from 3 to 5 o'clock at the San Francisco Yacht Club. (Independent-Journal photos.)

The couple were united in marriage by Rabbi Morris Goldstein. The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, Leon Seglin of San Francisco. Her crown was of tiny seed pearls with a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, white roses and lily of the valley.

Will Marin Donate Enough Blood To Meet Local Needs?

Advancing medical techniques and improving hospital facilities in Marin County today enable the effective treatment right here "at home" of an increasing number of more complicated injuries and diseases.

And in the process increasing amounts of fresh blood are required for such as heart surgery, exchange transfusions, hemophilia, leukemia and so on.

Meanwhile, in the matter of donating blood, Marin residents have fallen short.

The blood bank, obviously, had to induce out-of-county donors to provide more than 2,000 units to make up our deficiency here in Marin.

This has become increasingly difficult to do because other communities likewise have growing needs for increased amounts of fresh blood.

What is the solution to this dilemma?

Obviously, more Marin residents must be persuaded to see the necessity of donating more blood, locally.

As a step toward achieving this goal, the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank today opened the "Marin Blood Center" at 506 Fourth Street in San Rafael.

The center will receive blood donations three days a week—Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.—right at the center every week. The combination of regular and frequent times together with establishment of a fixed, central location to receive blood donations is calculated to make it easier and more convenient for donors. And it is calculated, of course, to attract more donations.

The new Marin Blood Center will be the location, too, for a storage depot, one of the very few in Northern California outside San Francisco. The depot will comprise a kind of insurance that when blood is needed it can be obtained without delay.

Is the new center going to succeed in bringing forth sufficient blood to meet Marin's needs?

Only time will tell. But prospects appear good. Fifty or more organizations and individuals have contributed gifts of equipment and service to the undertaking thus far. More are pledged to sponsor blood donation drives.

As we say, prospects are good that Marin will begin to meet its own needs for precious fresh blood.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

THE CHALLENGE OF AUTOMATION

An electronic "weather plotter" that draws maps faster, more accurately and cheaper than the human hand was recently put into operation by the Weather Bureau.

The instrument can produce a complete weather map of the Northern Hemisphere in less than three minutes. It takes about 20 minutes by hand.

It processes data provided by 500 stations throughout the hemisphere which is channelled into the U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington.

This technological advance means that two machines, costing $50,000 each, are expected to replace about 10 analysts, each earning $7,000 a year.

The problems, as well as the opportunities, of automation are just beginning to dawn on most of us. Without being a roadblock to progress, take a Christ-like stand for a gradual and humane working-out of these problems.

If you don't try to apply divine principles to human affairs, then who will?

"For with the same measure that you shall mete, withal it shall be measured to you again." (Luke 6:38)

Make me, O Lord, view modern developments in the light of Your glory and the implication for many people.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Even though these lines may scan and line with line may rhyme,
Maybe What Our Readers Say wants the poem this time.

IN THE PASSING SCENE

Things I find annoying you may have missed completely;
In any case I'll set them forth for you discretely:
The maddening slow traffic on Second Street throughway;
Rough railroad crossings that wrench wheel alignment away;
The adults who frequent public places in playsuits;
Officers who chase their game in 90 mile pursuits;
The multiple demands of Those and These for more funds;
The dire results that come from giving city kids guns;
Centerline smashups where there are no divider rails;
Loud six-twenty A.M. bells much loss of sleep entails;
Left turns are made on Second Street with impunity;
Rapid transit's far away for this community;
"More Schools!" used only 160 days a year;
At night dog barks, train horns, truck blasts jar the sleeper's ear;
The nicks and dents that come from diagonal parking;
Meter coins dropped though metermaids homeward are starting;
The crowds that hamper fire and police emergencies;
Irwin Street underpass free-for-all contingencies;
Bridge toll we pay yet the rest of the highway is free;
Cigarette smokers to windward seem selfish to me;
Erring parents still expect their children to be good;
Folks who prefer pets to joys of foster parenthood;
The popular butcher shop but hated abattoir;
The rear end crashes because too close behind before;
The "needy" poor who have never tried to save a dime;
The nuisance caused by those who don't get places on time;
Slow drivers who stay in lanes designed for legal speed;
Those who shout Good-nights at 2 A.M. are boors indeed;
Hosts who allow their alcoholic guests to drive home;
Cowards in crowds do things no one would do if alone.
Is it our craving for individuality
That makes us the victims of eventuality?

Local History Help Sought

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

"Donald R. Dickey Memorial House, Marin County (1848)."

As a local-history hobbyist, I regret that there was no mention of Dr. Benjamin F. Lyford, who owned the house in its heyday and is one of our most important historical figures. I trust that his identity will not be lost.

Also, the date given for the house, 1848, seems rather early for this area. I wonder if this has been authenticated? If so, I would like to know the source, since we tried to find out the building date several years ago and were unsuccessful. We also tried to find out whether Dr. Lyford built the house after coming to California in 1866 or after he and Hilarita Reed were married in 1872; or whether the house was built earlier.

I would appreciate very much hearing from someone who can answer these questions.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A poignant memoir of Sir Cedric Hardwicke concerns the evening that Ellen Terry, then close to 80, elected to have another go at the demanding role of Portia in "The Merchant of Venice."

When the time came for her to deliver the familiar "quality of mercy is not strained" speech, poor Miss Terry's face suddenly blanched. She cudgeled her memory in vain for a moment, then moved down to the footlights and said forlornly, "I am a very silly old lady—and I cannot remember what I have to say."

In Palm Beach, a socialite told a bridge columnist quite seriously, "My wife loves the game of bridge passionately. It gives her something to occupy her mind while she's not talking!"

10 YEARS AGO

Orderly car parking arrangements in the west and east areas by the court house square was promised by county highway superintendent Carl Clow, who said he'd paint a total of 85 spaces. Major problem was how to keep any room for county employees. (This was later solved by giving them all the spaces.)

Only 67 dentists, doctors and veterinarians answered the Marin County call to sign up for selective service.

The Country Parson

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

The Air Was Bright And Blue And Third Graders Have Fine Time

The other day we went to class with the third graders at Tiburon school. The air was bright and blue, the bay was dancing and you could almost hit San Francisco with a stone's throw.

It was also hot dog day. Mrs. Bernard T. Bedilion, third grade teacher, said, "Hot dog day is for the birds. Wait around, and you'll see," she said.

It begins rather formally, then it turns into a napkins-and-mustardy affair. "But hot dogs are all American," we told Mrs. Bedilion, who is actually a bird fancier herself with all sorts of stalwart pelicans and gulls standing around in her school room. Some she said were found by students and all were stuffed by former Reed School student Bob McLaury.

THE DAY WE WENT to school in Tiburon there were a lot of students visiting from a place called Marshall, upcounty. They were great kids, alive, talkative, hungry.

Their mothers asked, "You mean you've never been to Marshall?" "No," we said, "we couldn't remember." Later we learned that it was the first time a lot of them had ever been to Tiburon.

Mrs. Horace Maggetti, the teacher of the 21 Marshall students, said her one-room schoolhouse was built in 1876. It is white with red trimmings, she said, and has a bell but the rope to pull the bell is broken.

Mrs. Bedilion admitted to a grave moment during the country-city exchange. She said her students had gone over the facts seven times on why Richardson Bay was named Richardson Bay. Asking, before the Marshall youngsters, one of her pupils answered , "Well, Richardson found it and decided he would name it for himself."

WE WENT TO SCHOOL at Central in Sausalito and heard the bayside instrnmental orchestra play for the seventh annual kick-off dinner for Public Schools Week. There's no orchestra like that orchestra—it's fine.

At Old Mill School's open house in Mill Valley, the youngsters seemed to believe the occasion means parents look at the displays and talk to other parents while children run up and down passageways with other children—not approved during regular school hours.

The parent-visits-classroom affair is very rewarding and smacks of something good to witness in a world that moves so fast that people may not always have time to talk to those short people we call kids who eat hot dogs every Tuesday.

Kennedy Pledge Of U.S. Aid May Have Smashed Algerian Rebellion

THE DAY BEFORE the insurrection, the position of Gaullist government was that for France the Algerian question was decided. The remaining problem was when the Algerian Nationalists would find enough unity among themselves to assume the powers that would follow the independence which France had decided to grant them. Then the Generals rebelled, and almost certainly the government in Paris had little or no advance notice. For seventy-two hours it was a question whether the government of Gen. de Gaulle had misjudged its power.

The rebellion had spread widely in Algeria and, when Gen. de Gaulle spoke to the nation, the mood in Paris was desperate. One Cabinet Minister, for example, was saying privately that Paris was defenseless against the paratroopers, that neither the Army, nor the Air Force, nor the Secret Service, nor the Police could be relied upon to defend the government. Only the Navy was reliable. Sunday night, April 23, in Paris was an anxious time, what with the reports that the paratroopers were already in their planes and would be dropping on Paris between 11 p.m, and 3 a.m. M. Debre, the Premier, had told the French people that when they heard the sirens announcing the invasion, they should take their cars and drive to the airports and argue with the paratroopers! This was a measure of how desperate was the mood.

NEVERTHELESS, during that Sunday night the situation changed radically. For reasons which are not clear as yet, but can perhaps be inferred, the paratroopers did not start for Paris, or they were recalled. From then on the insurrection began to fail. Earlier that day I had heard Ambassador Gavin say that nobody could judge the situation until he knew whether there was a strike against Paris.

The big reason, I believe, why the attack on Paris failed is that the pessimists around Gen. de Gaulle had underestimated his personal power and resourcefulness. When he had said earlier that for France the Algerian question was decided, he was speaking with the certainty that while the dissidents in the armed forces were strong men, the Gaullist measures during the past year or so had succeeded far more than most people realized, in weakening and breaking up the solidarity of the rebellious officers.

The second reason, and no doubt a smaller one—though I do not know this for certain—was that President Kennedy, acting on the advice of Gen. Gavin—who is a mighty good man in a crisis like this one—had rallied to Gen. de Gaulle, had offered him help if it were desired. The American presence in the Mediterranean of the air forces of the Sixth Fleet, which were quite capable of intercepting an invasion, may have done something to dissuade the rebels from taking off for Paris. It was widely remembered in Paris on Sunday night, and perhaps also in Algeria, that on a previous occasion when the paratroopers were threatening Paris President Eisenhower had rallied to Gen. de Gaulle with an offer of American help.

I repeat that I cannot prove this but I believe that the American presence in the Mediterranean was a factor, and that Ambassador Gavin's visit to Gen. de Gaulle late Sunday evening marked an American decision in which we can take a certain quiet satisfaction.

THE PROSPECTS of an Algerian peace have almost certainly been improved somewhat. Gen. de Gaulle has now had a showdown — hitherto something he has avoided—with the sworn enemies of his policy. In the aftermath, he will presumably take stern measures to break the back of the armed and organized military rebels, including that of the foreign mercenaries among them, and then will have a free hand to impose the terms of a settlement—if one can be agreed upon.

We must not, however, go overboard. A settlement in Algeria is exceedingly difficult. For nowhere in the world has any imperial power succeeded in creating a workable biracial independent state. The British, with all their success in liquidating their empire, have never succeeded in doing this in their colonies where there are two different religious and racial communities. This problem of the dual communities extends from French Algeria down through to British Central and Eastern Africa to South Africa. If Gen. de Gaulle can now succeed in establishing an independent Algeria, he will be a pioneer in international relations.

Will Marin Donate Enough Blood To Meet Local Needs?

Advancing medical techniques and improving hospital facilities in Marin County today enable the effective treatment right here "at home" of an increasing number of more complicated injuries and diseases.

And in the process increasing amounts of fresh blood are required for such as heart surgery, exchange transfusions, hemophilia, leukemia and so on.

Meanwhile, in the matter of donating blood, Marin residents have fallen short.

The blood bank, obviously, had to induce out-of-county donors to provide more than 2,000 units to make up our deficiency here in Marin.

This has become increasingly difficult to do because other communities likewise have growing needs for increased amounts of fresh blood.

What is the solution to this dilemma?

Obviously, more Marin residents must be persuaded to see the necessity of donating more blood, locally.

As a step toward achieving this goal, the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank today opened the "Marin Blood Center" at 506 Fourth Street in San Rafael.

The center will receive blood donations three days a week—Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.—right at the center every week. The combination of regular and frequent times together with establishment of a fixed, central location to receive blood donations is calculated to make it easier and more convenient for donors. And it is calculated, of course, to attract more donations.

The new Marin Blood Center will be the location, too, for a storage depot, one of the very few in Northern California outside San Francisco. The depot will comprise a kind of insurance that when blood is needed it can be obtained without delay.

Is the new center going to succeed in bringing forth sufficient blood to meet Marin's needs?

Only time will tell. But prospects appear good. Fifty or more organizations and individuals have contributed gifts of equipment and service to the undertaking thus far. More are pledged to sponsor blood donation drives.

As we say, prospects are good that Marin will begin to meet its own needs for precious fresh blood.

THE CHALLENGE OF AUTOMATION

An electronic "weather plotter" that draws maps faster, more accurately and cheaper than the human hand was recently put into operation by the Weather Bureau.

The instrument can produce a complete weather map of the Northern Hemisphere in less than three minutes. It takes about 20 minutes by hand.

It processes data provided by 500 stations throughout the hemisphere which is channelled into the U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington.

This technological advance means that two machines, costing $50,000 each, are expected to replace about 10 analysts, each earning $7,000 a year.

The problems, as well as the opportunities, of automation are just beginning to dawn on most of us. Without being a roadblock to progress, take a Christ-like stand for a gradual and humane working-out of these problems.

If you don't try to apply divine principles to human affairs, then who will?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

"Donald R. Dickey Memorial House, Marin County (1848)."

As a local-history hobbyist, I regret that there was no mention of Dr. Benjamin F. Lyford, who owned the house in its heyday and is one of our most important historical figures. I trust that his identity will not be lost.

Also, the date given for the house, 1848, seems rather early for this area. I wonder if this has been authenticated? If so, I would like to know the source, since we tried to find out the building date several years ago and were unsuccessful. We also tried to find out whether Dr. Lyford built the house after coming to California in 1866 or after he and Hilarita Reed were married in 1872; or whether the house was built earlier.

I would appreciate very much hearing from someone who can answer these questions.

When the time came for her to deliver the familiar "quality of mercy is not strained" speech, poor Miss Terry's face suddenly blanched. She cudgeled her memory in vain for a moment, then moved down to the footlights and said forlornly, "I am a very silly old lady—and I cannot remember what I have to say."

The Air Was Bright And Blue And Third Graders Have Fine Time

The other day we went to class with the third graders at Tiburon school. The air was bright and blue, the bay was dancing and you could almost hit San Francisco with a stone's throw.

It was also hot dog day. Mrs. Bernard T. Bedilion, third grade teacher, said, "Hot dog day is for the birds. Wait around, and you'll see," she said.

It begins rather formally, then it turns into a napkins-and-mustardy affair. "But hot dogs are all American," we told Mrs. Bedilion, who is actually a bird fancier herself with all sorts of stalwart pelicans and gulls standing around in her school room. Some she said were found by students and all were stuffed by former Reed School student Bob McLaury.

THE DAY WE WENT to school in Tiburon there were a lot of students visiting from a place called Marshall, upcounty. They were great kids, alive, talkative; hungry.

Their mothers asked, "You mean you've never been to Marshall?" "No," we said, "we couldn't remember." Later we learned that it was the first time a lot of them had ever been to Tiburon.

Mrs. Horace Maggetti, the teacher of the 21 Marshall students, said her one-room schoolhouse was built in 1876. It is white with red trimmings, she said, and has a bell but the rope to pull the bell is broken.

Mrs. Bedilion admitted to a grave moment during the country-city exchange. She said her students had gone over the facts seven times on why Richardson Bay was named Richardson Bay. Asking, before the Marshall youngsters, one of her pupils answered, "Well, Richardson found it and decided he would name it for himself."

WE WENT TO SCHOOL at Central in Sausalito and heard the bayside instrnmental orchestra play for the seventh annual kick-off dinner for Public Schools Week. There's no orchestra like that orchestra—it's fine.

At Old Mill School's open house in Mill Valley, the youngsters seemed to believe the occasion means parents look at the displays and talk to other parents while children run up and down passageways with other children—not approved during regular school hours.

The parent-visits-classroom affair is very rewarding and smacks of something good to witness in a world that moves so fast that people may not always have time to talk to those short people we call kids who eat hot dogs every Tuesday.

We must not, however, go overboard. A settlement in Algeria is exceedingly difficult. For nowhere in the world has any imperial power succeeded in creating a workable biracial independent state. The British, with all their success in liquidating their empire, have never succeeded in doing this in their colonies where there are two different religious and racial communities. This problem of the dual communities extends from French Algeria down through to British Central and Eastern Africa to South Africa. If Gen. de Gaulle can now succeed in establishing an independent Algeria, he will be a pioneer in international relations.

THE CHALLENGE OF AUTOMATION

An electronic "weather plotter" that draws maps faster, more accurately and cheaper than the human hand was recently put into operation by the Weather Bureau.

The instrument can produce a complete weather map of the Northern Hemisphere in less than three minutes. It takes about 20 minutes by hand.

It processes data provided by 500 stations throughout the hemisphere which is channelled into the U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington.

This technological advance means that two machines, costing $50,000 each, are expected to replace about 10 analysts, each earning $7,000 a year.

The problems, as well as the opportunities, of automation are just beginning to dawn on most of us. Without being a roadblock to progress, take a Christ-like stand for a gradual and humane working-out of these problems.

If you don't try to apply divine principles to human affairs, then who will?

"For with the same measure that you shall mete, withal it shall be measured to you again." (Luke 6:38)

A poignant memoir of Sir Cedric Hardwicke concerns the evening that Ellen Terry, then close to 80, elected to have another go at the demanding role of Portia in "The Merchant of Venice."

When the time came for her to deliver the familiar "quality of mercy is not strained" speech, poor Miss Terry's face suddenly blanched. She cudgeled her memory in vain for a moment, then moved down to the footlights and said forlornly, "I am a very silly old lady—and I cannot remember what I have to say."

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Guidance Counselor

Parents Should Warn Youngsters About Threat Of Sex Deviates

This is May Day. We're now in sex crime season. I predict more sex crimes than ever this year.

You'll have to be careful for if you overemphasize things you may create some unnecessary fears. But if you can be matter of fact in your teaching, your children will be okay.

The chances of your kids being molested are greater than you think. The big majority of the minor offenses against boys and girls are never reported to the police. The true picture is much worse than official figures indicate.

As a parent you should take at least one more precaution. If possible find out where the sex deviates congregate on your community. Often they hang around public restrooms in parks or at beaches. Sometimes they frequent a certain movie theater or a neighborhood bar.

Be sure your children never play near a hangout. The risk is greater there than anywhere else.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Dr. Barbour, why do you predict an increase in sex offenses?"

F. M.

(A) Most sex crimes are committed by relatively young adults. Our war babies are now entering their adulthood. The great majority of them are fine. However, the percentage of those with criminal or deviation tendencies is larger than normal. The bad ones will push the sex crime rate higher than it has been for years. Other adult crimes will increase also. Watch and see.

William de France Quits Kentfield Fire Commission

William de France resigned Thursday night from the Kentfield Fire District Commission. De France, a former fireman who is now a housepainter, has been a member of the commission for over three years.

A successor will be appointed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The commission adopted a preliminary budget of $98,000 for 1961-62 and set June 22 at 8 p.m. for a hearing on the final budget the the Kentfield Fire House. Until then, the preliminary budget will be on file in the firehouse for public inspection.

A payment of $10,000 was approved on the combination pumper-aerial fire truck purchased by the district last year, leaving a balance of about $15,000.

Bolinas Plans Parking Study

Jack Lowe and Captain David Edwards of Bolinas have been named to a committee to study the parking and police problems of Bolinas and report back to Bolinas Community, Inc. at its meeting May 13.

The committee will consult with the county counsel to see what can be done to meet these problems, Lowe said.

Poison Earwig Bait Will Be Distributed

The poison bait will be left only at homes where an adult is at home. Almost 200 members of the Novato, Jets, Aggies, Miwok and Novato Valley clubs will participate in the campaign against earwigs, which destroy wood, paper and clothing. This is the ninth year 4-H club in the area have distributed the bait.

FUTURE SHOP CENTER—This is design by Wagstaff and McDonald of San Anselmo for six-store shopping center, including supermarket, which Homer and Carlisle Rickards propose to build at Belvedere and Vivian Streets in east San Rafael. Two of the shops already have been leased, the developers reported today. The Rickardses, who built and formerly operated the Drake Market in San Anselmo, may operate the supermarket or lease it to another grocer.

San Rafael Supermarket Plans Told

Two longtime Marin County grocerymen plan to build a $175,000 supermarket and shopping center of six stores on the southwest corner of the Belvedere-Vivian Streets intersection in East San Rafael.

Homer and Carlisle Rickards, who have been in the grocery business for a quarter of a century, will build the shopping center on the 47,500-square-foot property. The brothers built the Drake Market in San Anselmo 10 years ago and operated it until recently.

The supermarket and buildings will take up 17,450 square feet of the center. The rest will be devoted to offstreet parking for 69 cars.

The building will be an ell-shaped, flat-roofed structure with the supermarket at the south end. The front will be glass and brick facing. The building will be tilt-up concrete construction. It will have glass bubbles in the roof for utilization of sunlight for lighting.

There will be landscaped strips along the Vivian Street frontage and at points on the Belvedere Street side, as well as at the ends of the parking lanes.

Two of the six smaller stores already have been leased, Carlisle Rickards reported today.

"We are negotiating with three firms for leasing the supermarket," he said. "If we cannot come to terms with one of them, then we will operate it ourselves."

The San Rafael Planning Commission Tuesday night approved all of the plans for the center except the plot plan showing elevations. This was delayed for two weeks.

Fairfax Runaways Back Home, Land In Juvenile Home

The two Fairfax youths who ran away from home last Wednesday came back the next day and were promptly booked in the juvenile home for investigation of breaking and entering.

The two boys, 15 and 16, admitted stealing three quart jars full of pennies from a home in the Fairfax hills before they returned from their brief "camping trip." The woman who lives alone in the home was away at the time of the theft, but reported it to Fairfax police on her return.

Stinson Beach Area Fire Plan

Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioners, expecting a heavy fire season because of large growth in weeds and brush, plan to have volunteer firemen burn off hazardous weed areas for property owners at small charge.

More information is expected to be available at the commission's next meeting, Commissioner E. C. Hubbard said.

The commission has under consideration purchase of a new four-wheel drive vehicle for use by the fire department.

Reunion Correction

The College of Marin Alumni reunion dinner will be held on May 7 at the Corte Madera recreation center, not on May 5 as previously reported.

HAPPY HULA CLASS—Can you see yourself in this picture, happily practicing hula lessons with the help of Hawaiian instructors at sea aboard the Matson liner Lurline? Better check with the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce about the tour they're planning next month if you feel you'd like to go along—perhaps free!

Longing For Ocean Trip To Hawaii?

If you are (and who isn't?) you can go on a tour, sponsored by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, on the Lurline, leaving San Francisco May 28.

And if you are lucky you even may get to go free. San Rafael merchants this week are celebrating "Hawaii Week in San Rafael," and the chamber of commerce is conducting its annual membership drive. In connection with these events the trip to Hawaii will be given away at a drawing May 1 at 12:15 p.m. at the courthouse.

But whether you get a free ticket or go on your own, the trip to Hawaii can be exciting. There will be plenty to do on board ship.

The ship's newspaper, the Polynesian, will outline shipboard activities for the day. Events start at 7 a.m. with eye-opening cup of coffee and continue to midnight, the hour for dancing.

Grandmothers have plenty to do, too. There's a malihini (newcomers to Hawaii) tea, just for them, with prizes for the grandmother who is youngest, oldest, has the most grandchildren, has the most pictures of her grandchildren, and has the most recently-born grandchildren.

Also you can stretch out in a deck chair and read a book or sleep.

'Butterfly,' Civil War In Spotlight

Giacomo Puccini will share the spotlight with the Civil War at the Tamalpais Choir concert at 8 p.m. Friday in Tamalpais High School's Ruby Scott auditorium.

The first half of the program will consist of selections from the first act of Puccini's "Madame Butterfly." After intermission, memorable songs of the Civil War will be presented, according to choir director Robert Greenwood.

The nine student soloists in "Madame Butterfly" will be Thurman Barnes, Lyn Elder, Sally Champlin, Biff Canlett, Brooke Atkisson, Dave Miller, Terry McClure, Val Meacham and Dan Smith.

Abraham Lincoln will be portrayed by Jim Weil and Robert E. Lee by Stewart Hindley. Student announcers Roger Drexler and Jennifer Herman will be assisted by percussionists Mike Zifcak and Craig Palmer. A war battle tape recording, prepared by Lee Bowman, will be used to recreate sounds of the Civil War.

Proceeds over expenses will go to the music scholarship fund.

Russia Study Award

Alan Power, Russian and history teacher at Tamalpais High School, has been awarded a scholarship under the national defense education act to permit him to study Russian for eight weeks this summer at San Francisco State College.

Parents Should Warn Youngsters About Threat Of Sex Deviates

This is May Day. We're now in sex crime season. I predict more sex crimes than ever this year.

Do your children know how to avoid deviates? If they don't you should teach them. Start today.

You'll have to be careful for if you overemphasize things you may create some unnecessary fears. But if you can be matter of fact in your teaching, your children will be okay.

The chances of your kids being molested are greater than you think. The big majority of the minor offenses against boys and girls are never reported to the police. The true picture is much worse than official figures indicate.

What should you teach your children? These simple lessons:

Never to talk with strangers, no matter how friendly they seem.

Never to accept gifts from strangers, no matter how nice their gifts may be.

Never to sit alone in the movies.

Always to report to a responsible adult if anyone makes advances.

As a parent you should take at least one more precaution. If possible find out where the sex deviates congregate on your community. Often they hang around public restrooms in parks or at beaches. Sometimes they frequent a certain movie theater or a neighborhood bar.

Be sure your children never play near a hangout. The risk is greater there than anywhere else.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Dr. Barbour, why do you predict an increase in sex offenses?"

F. M.

(A) Most sex crimes are committed by relatively young adults. Our war babies are now entering their adulthood. The great majority of them are fine. However, the percentage of those with criminal or deviation tendencies is larger than normal. The bad ones will push the sex crime rate higher than it has been for years. Other adult crimes will increase also. Watch and see.

William de France Quits Kentfield Fire Commission

William de France resigned Thursday night from the Kentfield Fire District Commission. De France, a former fireman who is now a housepainter, has been a member of the commission for over three years.

A successor will be appointed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The commission adopted a preliminary budget of $98,000 for 1961-62 and set June 22 at 8 p.m. for a hearing on the final budget the the Kentfield Fire House. Until then, the preliminary budget will be on file in the firehouse for public inspection.

A payment of $10,000 was approved on the combination pumper-aerial fire truck purchased by the district last year, leaving a balance of about $15,000.

Bolinas Plans Parking Study

Jack Lowe and Captain David Edwards of Bolinas have been named to a committee to study the parking and police problems of Bolinas and report back to Bolinas Community, Inc. at its meeting May 13.

The committee will consult with the county counsel to see what can be done to meet these problems, Lowe said.

FUTURE SHOP CENTER—This is design by Wagstaff and McDonald of San Anselmo for six-store shopping center, including supermarket, which Homer and Carlisle Rickards propose to build at Belvedere and Vivian Streets in east San Rafael. Two of the shops already have been leased, the developers reported today. The Rickardses, who built and formerly operated the Drake Market in San Anselmo, may operate the supermarket or lease it to another grocer.

San Rafael Supermarket Plans Told

Two longtime Marin County grocerymen plan to build a $175,000 supermarket and shopping center of six stores on the southwest corner of the Belvedere-Vivian Streets intersection in East San Rafael.

Homer and Carlisle Rickards, who have been in the grocery business for a quarter of a century, will build the shopping center on the 47,500-square-foot property. The brothers built the Drake Market in San Anselmo 10 years ago and operated it until recently.

The supermarket and buildings will take up 17,450 square feet of the center. The rest will be devoted to offstreet parking for 69 cars.

The building will be an ell-shaped, flat-roofed structure with the supermarket at the south end. The front will be glass and brick facing. The building will be tilt-up concrete construction. It will have glass bubbles in the roof for utilization of sunlight for lighting.

There will be landscaped strips along the Vivian Street frontage and at points on the Belvedere Street side, as well as at the ends of the parking lanes.

Two of the six smaller stores already have been leased, Carlisle Rickards reported today.

"We are negotiating with three firms for leasing the supermarket," he said. "If we cannot come to terms with one of them, then we will operate it ourselves."

The San Rafael Planning Commission Tuesday night approved all of the plans for the center except the plot plan showing elevations. This was delayed for two weeks.

Fairfax Runaways Back Home, Land In Juvenile Home

The two Fairfax youths who ran away from home last Wednesday came back the next day and were promptly booked in the juvenile home for investigation of breaking and entering.

The two boys, 15 and 16, admitted stealing three quart jars full of pennies from a home in the Fairfax hills before they returned from their brief "camping trip." The woman who lives alone in the home was away at the time of the theft, but reported it to Fairfax police on her return.

Stinson Beach Area Fire Plan

Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioners, expecting a heavy fire season because of large growth in weeds and brush, plan to have volunteer firemen burn off hazardous weed areas for property owners at small charge.

More information is expected to be available at the commission's next meeting, Commissioner E. C. Hubbard said.

The commission has under consideration purchase of a new four-wheel drive vehicle for use by the fire department.

Reunion Correction

The College of Marin Alumni reunion dinner will be held on May 7 at the Corte Madera recreation center, not on May 5 as previously reported.

HAPPY HULA CLASS—Can you see yourself in this picture, happily practicing hula lessons with the help of Hawaiian instructors at sea aboard the Matson liner Lurline? Better check with the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce about the tour they're planning next month if you feel you'd like to go along—perhaps free!

Longing For Ocean Trip To Hawaii?

Longing for a trip to sea and Hawaii?

If you are (and who isn't?) you can go on a tour, sponsored by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, on the Lurline, leaving San Francisco May 28.

And if you are lucky you even may get to go free. San Rafael merchants this week are celebrating "Hawaii Week in San Rafael," and the chamber of commerce is conducting its annual membership drive. In connection with these events the trip to Hawaii will be given away at a drawing May 1 at 12:15 p.m. at the courthouse.

But whether you get a free ticket or go on your own, the trip to Hawaii can be exciting. There will be plenty to do on board ship.

The ship's newspaper, the Polynesian, will outline shipboard activities for the day. Events start at 7 a.m. with eye-opening cup of coffee and continue to midnight, the hour for dancing.

Hawaiian cruise hosts and hostesses keep the activities moving.

You can enter games that guess each day's mileage or take part in shipboard "horse-racing."

Another shipboard sport is trapshooting. You stand at the fan tail with one or two other passengers, banging away at clay pigeons launched over the sea.

Other activities include photo clinics, hula lessons, inspection of the bridge, table tennis tournaments, bridge, canasta, travelogues and travel lectures, first-run movies and a passenger talent show, the captain's dinner and the ship's champagne party.

Grandmothers have plenty to do, too. There's a malihini (newcomers to Hawaii) tea, just for them, with prizes for the grandmother who is youngest, oldest, has the most grandchildren, has the most pictures of her grandchildren, and has the most recently-born grandchildren.

Also you can stretch out in a deck chair and read a book or sleep.

'Butterfly,' Civil War In Spotlight

Giacomo Puccini will share the spotlight with the Civil War at the Tamalpais Choir concert at 8 p.m. Friday in Tamalpais High School's Ruby Scott auditorium.

The first half of the program will consist of selections from the first act of Puccini's "Madame Butterfly." After intermission, memorable songs of the Civil War will be presented, according to choir director Robert Greenwood.

The nine student soloists in "Madame Butterfly" will be Thurman Barnes, Lyn Elder, Sally Champlin, Biff Canlett, Brooke Atkisson, Dave Miller, Terry McClure, Val Meacham and Dan Smith.

Abraham Lincoln will be portrayed by Jim Weil and Robert E. Lee by Stewart Hindley. Student announcers Roger Drexler and Jennifer Herman will be assisted by percussionists Mike Zifcak and Craig Palmer. A war battle tape recording, prepared by Lee Bowman, will be used to recreate sounds of the Civil War.

Proceeds over expenses will go to the music scholarship fund.

Russia Study Award

Alan Power, Russian and history teacher at Tamalpais High School, has been awarded a scholarship under the national defense education act to permit him to study Russian for eight weeks this summer at San Francisco State College.

Parents Should Warn Youngsters About Threat Of Sex Deviates

This is May Day. We're now in sex crime season. I predict more sex crimes than ever this year.

Do your children know how to avoid deviates? If they don't you should teach them. Start today.

You'll have to be careful for if you overemphasize things you may create some unnecessary fears. But if you can be matter of fact in your teaching, your children will be okay.

The chances of your kids being molested are greater than you think. The big majority of the minor offenses against boys and girls are never reported to the police. The true picture is much worse than official figures indicate.

What should you teach your children? These simple lessons:

Never to talk with strangers, no matter how friendly they seem.

Never to accept gifts from strangers, no matter how nice their gifts may be.

Never to sit alone in the movies.

Always to report to a responsible adult if anyone makes advances.

As a parent you should take at least one more precaution. If possible find out where the sex deviates congregate on your community. Often they hang around public restrooms in parks or at beaches. Sometimes they frequent a certain movie theater or a neighborhood bar.

Be sure your children never play near a hangout. The risk is greater there than anywhere else.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Dr. Barbour, why do you predict an increase in sex offenses?"

F. M.

(A) Most sex crimes are committed by relatively young adults. Our war babies are now entering their adulthood. The great majority of them are fine. However, the percentage of those with criminal or deviation tendencies is larger than normal. The bad ones will push the sex crime rate higher than it has been for years. Other adult crimes will increase also. Watch and see.

William de France Quits Kentfield Fire Commission

William de France resigned Thursday night from the Kentfield Fire District Commission. De France, a former fireman who is now a housepainter, has been a member of the commission for over three years.

A successor will be appointed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The commission adopted a preliminary budget of $98,000 for 1961-62 and set June 22 at 8 p.m. for a hearing on the final budget the the Kentfield Fire House. Until then, the preliminary budget will be on file in the firehouse for public inspection.

A payment of $10,000 was approved on the combination pumper-aerial fire truck purchased by the district last year, leaving a balance of about $15,000.

FUTURE SHOP CENTER—This is design by Wagstaff and McDonald of San Anselmo for six-store shopping center, including supermarket, which Homer and Carlisle Rickards propose to build at Belvedere and Vivian Streets in east San Rafael. Two of the shops already have been leased, the developers reported today. The Rickardses, who built and formerly operated the Drake Market in San Anselmo, may operate the supermarket or lease it to another grocer.

San Rafael Supermarket Plans Told

Two longtime Marin County grocerymen plan to build a $175,000 supermarket and shopping center of six stores on the southwest corner of the Belvedere-Vivian Streets intersection in East San Rafael.

Homer and Carlisle Rickards, who have been in the grocery business for a quarter of a century, will build the shopping center on the 47,500-square-foot property. The brothers built the Drake Market in San Anselmo 10 years ago and operated it until recently.

The supermarket and buildings will take up 17,450 square feet of the center. The rest will be devoted to offstreet parking for 69 cars.

The building will be an ell-shaped, flat-roofed structure with the supermarket at the south end. The front will be glass and brick facing. The building will be tilt-up concrete construction. It will have glass bubbles in the roof for utilization of sunlight for lighting.

There will be landscaped strips along the Vivian Street frontage and at points on the Belvedere Street side, as well as at the ends of the parking lanes.

Two of the six smaller stores already have been leased, Carlisle Rickards reported today.

"We are negotiating with three firms for leasing the supermarket," he said. "If we cannot come to terms with one of them, then we will operate it ourselves."

The San Rafael Planning Commission Tuesday night approved all of the plans for the center except the plot plan showing elevations. This was delayed for two weeks.

Fairfax Runaways Back Home, Land In Juvenile Home

The two Fairfax youths who ran away from home last Wednesday came back the next day and were promptly booked in the juvenile home for investigation of breaking and entering.

The two boys, 15 and 16, admitted stealing three quart jars full of pennies from a home in the Fairfax hills before they returned from their brief "camping trip." The woman who lives alone in the home was away at the time of the theft, but reported it to Fairfax police on her return.

Stinson Beach Area Fire Plan

Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioners, expecting a heavy fire season because of large growth in weeds and brush, plan to have volunteer firemen burn off hazardous weed areas for property owners at small charge.

More information is expected to be available at the commission's next meeting, Commissioner E. C. Hubbard said.

The commission has under consideration purchase of a new four-wheel drive vehicle for use by the fire department.

Reunion Correction

The College of Marin Alumni reunion dinner will be held on May 7 at the Corte Madera recreation center, not on May 5 as previously reported.

HAPPY HULA CLASS—Can you see yourself in this picture, happily practicing hula lessons with the help of Hawaiian instructors at sea aboard the Matson liner Lurline? Better check with the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce about the tour they're planning next month if you feel you'd like to go along—perhaps free!

Longing For Ocean Trip To Hawaii?

Longing for a trip to sea and Hawaii?

If you are (and who isn't?) you can go on a tour, sponsored by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, on the Lurline, leaving San Francisco May 28.

And if you are lucky you even may get to go free. San Rafael merchants this week are celebrating "Hawaii Week in San Rafael," and the chamber of commerce is conducting its annual membership drive. In connection with these events the trip to Hawaii will be given away at a drawing May 1 at 12:15 p.m. at the courthouse.

But whether you get a free ticket or go on your own, the trip to Hawaii can be exciting. There will be plenty to do on board ship.

The ship's newspaper, the Polynesian, will outline shipboard activities for the day. Events start at 7 a.m. with eye-opening cup of coffee and continue to midnight, the hour for dancing.

Hawaiian cruise hosts and hostesses keep the activities moving.

You can enter games that guess each day's mileage or take part in shipboard "horse-racing."

Another shipboard sport is trapshooting. You stand at the fan tail with one or two other passengers, banging away at clay pigeons launched over the sea.

Other activities include photo clinics, hula lessons, inspection of the bridge, table tennis tournaments, bridge, canasta, travelogues and travel lectures, first-run movies and a passenger talent show, the captain's dinner and the ship's champagne party.

Grandmothers have plenty to do, too. There's a malihini (newcomers to Hawaii) tea, just for them, with prizes for the grandmother who is youngest, oldest, has the most grandchildren, has the most pictures of her grandchildren, and has the most recently-born grandchildren.

Also you can stretch out in a deck chair and read a book or sleep.

'Butterfly,' Civil War In Spotlight

Giacomo Puccini will share the spotlight with the Civil War at the Tamalpais Choir concert at 8 p.m. Friday in Tamalpais High School's Ruby Scott auditorium.

The first half of the program will consist of selections from the first act of Puccini's "Madame Butterfly." After intermission, memorable songs of the Civil War will be presented, according to choir director Robert Greenwood.

The nine student soloists in "Madame Butterfly" will be Thurman Barnes, Lyn Elder, Sally Champlin, Biff Canlett, Brooke Atkisson, Dave Miller, Terry McClure, Val Meacham and Dan Smith.

Abraham Lincoln will be portrayed by Jim Weil and Robert E. Lee by Stewart Hindley. Student announcers Roger Drexler and Jennifer Herman will be assisted by percussionists Mike Zifcak and Craig Palmer. A war battle tape recording, prepared by Lee Bowman, will be used to recreate sounds of the Civil War.

Proceeds over expenses will go to the music scholarship fund.

Russia Study Award

Alan Power, Russian and history teacher at Tamalpais High School, has been awarded a scholarship under the national defense education act to permit him to study Russian for eight weeks this summer at San Francisco State College.

"Stayed tuned for 'Concentration.'"

Bay Area network television stations are prepared to cut into their regular programming for coverage of the first flight by a U.S. astronaut expected sometime tomorrow morning between 6 and 11 o'clock.

Radio Station KGO will come on the air at 4:00 a.m. to cover the launching.

Hotel Electricity Told In Article By Fairfax Man

Lloyd G. Dehrer, a 14-year resident of Fairfax now living at 21 Meadow Way, is author of "Electrical System Features of the Jack Tar Hotel" in the last month's issue of Electrical Construction and Maintenance, national McGraw-Hill magazine for maintenance experts.

Dehrer was electrical engineer in charge of construction for the Jack Tar structure in San Francisco. His article describes the hotel's complex of TV communication provisions designed to speed up service without losing the human touch.

Motoring guests who drive into the garage lobby, Dehrer writes, are advised by luminous signs to park and step into a television registration booth where they see their room clerk (up at the lobby desk) on a television screen as they register and get colored-light instructions.

Novato City Council To Hear 101 Report

A special meeting of the Novato City Council to hear a report on Highway 101 traffic surveys has been set for 8 p.m. Thursday at city hall.

The meeting had been scheduled today, but is being postponed so all councilmen can attend. Mrs. Mary Summers, county planning director, will report on a city-financed survey of traffic on the highway, which runs through the Novato business section. The report will influence whether the city will continue to attempt to have the highway rerouted outside the city.

Youth Service Talk

Orville Luster, director of the Youth for Service, will speak to the Marin Foster Parents Group at 8 p.m. tonight at the Marin Council of Community Services, 820 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael. A film will be shown.

Class Set Tomorrow On Handicapped Problems

High school students enrolled in the current class in "Introduction to Problems of the Handicapped" will see a demonstration at Marindale School at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow, conducted by Marindale teachers with the program under the auspices of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

Two more classes are scheduled, according to Kreig S. Vezie, director. Thursday night, the program will be sponsored by the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults with Mrs. Gertrude Cherry as speaker. The class will be held at 7:30 p.m. in room 200 at Redwood High School, Larkspur.

Graduation is scheduled for May 11, when the topic will be "Professional and Vocational Opportunities." The program will be under the sponsorship of the North Bay Chapter, Council for Exceptional Children; San Anselmo Post 179, American Legion, coordinator of the course, and auxiliary; Twin Cities Post 313 and auxiliary, and Marin Voiture 1112 of the Societie des 40 et 8.

Protest Expected In Novato Over Proposed PG&E Line

A delegation of homeowners from Indian Valley near Novato is expected at Monday's county planning commission meeting to protest the route of a proposed Pacific Gas and Electric Co. high voltage line.

At least five homeowners, led by Elizabeth E. Debaun, say the tentative route will either mean the end of their homes, be an unsightly nuisance or affect radio and television reception.

220 VOLTAGE

PG&E proposes two 220-volt lines from the Ignacio substation and from the Lakeville substation in Sonoma County, across Marin to the proposed atomic power plant at Bodega Bay.

The lines would be on steel towers with a median height of 130 feet, a maximum of 170 feet. An easement of 120 feet, where no building may be, would be sought under the line.

County planning staff members said the exact location of the lines still may be open to question, as PG&E has not surveyed the route.

ITS COURSE

As shown on the application, the line would pass just south of the junction of Indian Valley Road and what was Arroyo Avichi. It would extend along the ridge to the rear of Rickey's Rancho Rafael and Novato Fire Station No. 2, skirting the most developed areas of southwest Novato. It would cross Novato Boulevard just east of Stafford Dam and head for Bodega Bay paralleling the Marin-Sonoma border.

Footpaths To Modern Freeways —History of Local Travel On TV

The story of how Bay Area freeways and major highways developed from Indian footpaths, horseback trails and wheel-rutted roads will be told tomorrow night at 7 o'clock on KGO.

The "Expedition—California" program has been entitled "Footpaths to Freeways." It will feature the histories of such thoroughfares as our Highway 101, El Camino Real, Skyline Boulevard, Highways 40 and 50, the St. Helena Toll Road and Oakland's Tunnel Road.

Also to be shown are some of the unusual vehicles—the carretas, covered wagons, gas buggies, cable cars, horse cars, etc.—that have traveled these routes.

DR. WALLACE STERLING
Guest on 'Career' show

COVERAGE of the U.S. astronaut flight will, of course, if it takes place as scheduled, result in wholesale revision of tomorrow's television schedule. KGO has slated an evening wrap-up of its coverage for 10:30.

ALSO TOMORROW night: The guest on "Career" (7:30 on KPIX) will be Dr. J. E. Wallace Sterling, president of Stanford University, who will be quizzed by students of his own school concerning education as a profession; conducting the Chicago Symphony in the "Great Music from Chicago" concert (9 o'clock on KTVU) will be Fritz Reiner in a program including two Strauss waltzes and a Schubert symphony; and "The Square World of Jack Paar," a travelogue with laughs, will be given a repeat showing at 10 o'clock on KRON.

AS FOR TONIGHT, KRON will carry an NBC news special, "May Day in Moscow," at 9 o'clock. The network is cooperating with the British Broadcasting Corp. in bringing the big Soviet spectacle to U.S. viewers on the same day it takes place. The parade was televised live in Moscow and transmitted to London on a special BBC hookup. In London, the live signal was converted to U.S. television standards and recorded on tape which is being flown to New York for tonight's broadcast.

Also scheduled for this evening: Dr. Jack Finegan of the Pacific School of Religion will tell how the sources of the Bible have been preserved and also something about the new translations of the Holy Book on "Science in Action" at 7 o'clock on KRON; Dr. James B. Conant, president emeritus of Harvard University, chemist and diplomat, will be interviewed on KQED's "Kaleidoscope" at 8 o'clock; Gov. Edmund G. Brown will appear on KRON at 9:30 to explain his stand on the narcotics problem; and the movie, "The Informer," will be shown on KPIX at 11:15 and repeated at the same time on the following three nights. The film, made in 1935, is the drama of the Irish Revolution which won for the late Victor McLaglen an Academy Award as that year's best actor.

WEDNESDAY'S "Play of the Week," (KTVU, 8 p.m.) will be Truman Capote's romantic fantasy about the pure in heart, "The Grass Harp." Lillian Gish makes one of her infrequent TV appearances to co-star with Carmen Mathews. Former San Francisco comedienne Jane Connell also has a role.

Tam High Newspaper Rated 'First Class'

Tamalpais News, the Tamalpais High School newspaper, has been rated as a first class newspaper by the National Scholastic Press Assn. rating board.

The association has called the newspaper's coverage of the student congress, the student government at the school, "the best seen in a high school paper."

Neck Injuries Can Be Serious
by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

A Detroit doctor says cars should be equipped with headrests. He states a driver's head is likely to snap back and cause a neck injury if the car is struck from the rear.

Neck injuries often are dismissed too lightly. The slight stiffness in the neck you may notice after a fall or a minor accident can develop into serious trouble.

Your neck has seven of the twenty-four bones or vertebrae of the spine. A fall or accident that snaps your neck may push one of the vertebrae out of line. This means that your spine will be out of line and the misaligned vertebrae are likely to pinch nerves leading to cells, muscles and organs. Any part of your body can break down when this happens. All parts of the body must receive vital nerve impulses from the brain to function properly. A lack of proper nerve impulses can cause almost any sickness you can name.

For safety, be examined by a chiropractor for any stiffness or tenderness of the neck or back.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.)

Hotel Electricity Told In Article By Fairfax Man

Lloyd G. Dehrer, a 14-year resident of Fairfax now living at 21 Meadow Way, is author of "Electrical System Features of the Jack Tar Hotel" in the last month's issue of Electrical Construction and Maintenance, national McGraw-Hill magazine for maintenance experts.

Dehrer was electrical engineer in charge of construction for the Jack Tar structure in San Francisco. His article describes the hotel's complex of TV communication provisions designed to speed up service without losing the human touch.

Motoring guests who drive into the garage lobby, Dehrer writes, are advised by luminous signs to park and step into a television registration booth where they see their room clerk (up at the lobby desk) on a television screen as they register and get colored-light instructions.

Novato City Council To Hear 101 Report

A special meeting of the Novato City Council to hear a report on Highway 101 traffic surveys has been set for 8 p.m. Thursday at city hall.

The meeting had been scheduled today, but is being postponed so all councilmen can attend. Mrs. Mary Summers, county planning director, will report on a city-financed survey of traffic on the highway, which runs through the Novato business section. The report will influence whether the city will continue to attempt to have the highway rerouted outside the city.

Youth Service Talk

Orville Luster, director of the Youth for Service, will speak to the Marin Foster Parents Group at 8 p.m. tonight at the Marin Council of Community Services, 820 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael. A film will be shown.

Class Set Tomorrow On Handicapped Problems

High school students enrolled in the current class in "Introduction to Problems of the Handicapped" will see a demonstration at Marindale School at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow, conducted by Marindale teachers with the program under the auspices of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

Two more classes are scheduled, according to Kreig S. Vezie, director. Thursday night, the program will be sponsored by the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults with Mrs. Gertrude Cherry as speaker. The class will be held at 7:30 p.m. in room 200 at Redwood High School, Larkspur.

Graduation is scheduled for May 11, when the topic will be "Professional and Vocational Opportunities." The program will be under the sponsorship of the North Bay Chapter, Council for Exceptional Children; San Anselmo Post 179, American Legion, coordinator of the course, and auxiliary; Twin Cities Post 313 and auxiliary, and Marin Voiture 1112 of the Societie des 40 et 8.

Protest Expected In Novato Over Proposed PG&E Line

A delegation of homeowners from Indian Valley near Novato is expected at Monday's county planning commission meeting to protest the route of a proposed Pacific Gas and Electric Co. high voltage line.

At least five homeowners, led by Elizabeth E. Debaun, say the tentative route will either mean the end of their homes, be an unsightly nuisance or affect radio and television reception.

220 VOLTAGE

PG&E proposes two 220-volt lines from the Ignacio substation and from the Lakeville substation in Sonoma County, across Marin to the proposed atomic power plant at Bodega Bay.

The lines would be on steel towers with a median height of 130 feet, a maximum of 170 feet. An easement of 120 feet, where no building may be, would be sought under the line.

County planning staff members said the exact location of the lines still may be open to question, as PG&E has not surveyed the route.

ITS COURSE

As shown on the application, the line would pass just south of the junction of Indian Valley Road and what was Arroyo Avichi. It would extend along the ridge to the rear of Rickey's Rancho Rafael and Novato Fire Station No. 2, skirting the most developed areas of southwest Novato. It would cross Novato Boulevard just east of Stafford Dam and head for Bodega Bay paralleling the Marin-Sonoma border.

Footpaths To Modern Freeways —History of Local Travel On TV

The story of how Bay Area freeways and major highways developed from Indian footpaths, horseback trails and wheel-rutted roads will be told tomorrow night at 7 o'clock on KGO.

The "Expedition—California" program has been entitled "Footpaths to Freeways." It will feature the histories of such thoroughfares as our Highway 101, El Camino Real, Skyline Boulevard, Highways 40 and 50, the St. Helena Toll Road and Oakland's Tunnel Road.

Also to be shown are some of the unusual vehicles—the carretas, covered wagons, gas buggies, cable cars, horse cars, etc.—that have traveled these routes.

DR. WALLACE STERLING
Guest on 'Career' show

COVERAGE of the U.S. astronaut flight will, of course, if it takes place as scheduled, result in wholesale revision of tomorrow's television schedule. KGO has slated an evening wrap-up of its coverage for 10:30.

ALSO TOMORROW night: The guest on "Career" (7:30 on KPIX) will be Dr. J. E. Wallace Sterling, president of Stanford University, who will be quizzed by students of his own school concerning education as a profession; conducting the Chicago Symphony in the "Great Music from Chicago" concert (9 o'clock on KTVU) will be Fritz Reiner in a program including two Strauss waltzes and a Schubert symphony; and "The Square World of Jack Paar," a travelogue with laughs, will be given a repeat showing at 10 o'clock on KRON.

AS FOR TONIGHT, KRON will carry an NBC news special, "May Day in Moscow," at 9 o'clock. The network is cooperating with the British Broadcasting Corp. in bringing the big Soviet spectacle to U.S. viewers on the same day it takes place. The parade was televised live in Moscow and transmitted to London on a special BBC hookup. In London, the live signal was converted to U.S. television standards and recorded on tape which is being flown to New York for tonight's broadcast.

Also scheduled for this evening: Dr. Jack Finegan of the Pacific School of Religion will tell how the sources of the Bible have been preserved and also something about the new translations of the Holy Book on "Science in Action" at 7 o'clock on KRON; Dr. James B. Conant, president emeritus of Harvard University, chemist and diplomat, will be interviewed on KQED's "Kaleidoscope" at 8 o'clock; Gov. Edmund G. Brown will appear on KRON at 9:30 to explain his stand on the narcotics problem; and the movie, "The Informer," will be shown on KPIX at 11:15 and repeated at the same time on the following three nights. The film, made in 1935, is the drama of the Irish Revolution which won for the late Victor McLaglen an Academy Award as that year's best actor.

WEDNESDAY'S "Play of the Week," (KTVU, 8 p.m.) will be Truman Capote's romantic fantasy about the pure in heart, "The Grass Harp." Lillian Gish makes one of her infrequent TV appearances to co-star with Carmen Mathews. Former San Francisco comedienne Jane Connell also has a role.

Neck Injuries Can Be Serious

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

A Detroit doctor says cars should be equipped with headrests. He states a driver's head is likely to snap back and cause a neck injury if the car is struck from the rear.

Neck injuries often are dismissed too lightly. The slight stiffness in the neck you may notice after a fall or a minor accident can develop into serious trouble.

Your neck has seven of the twenty-four bones or vertebrae of the spine. A fall or accident that snaps your neck may push one of the vertebrae out of line. This means that your spine will be out of line and the misaligned vertebrae are likely to pinch nerves leading to cells, muscles and organs. Any part of your body can break down when this happens. All parts of the body must receive vital nerve impulses from the brain to function properly. A lack of proper nerve impulses can cause almost any sickness you can name.

For safety, be examined by a chiropractor for any stiffness or tenderness of the neck or back.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.)

Bay Area network television stations are prepared to cut into their regular programming for coverage of the first flight by a U.S. astronaut expected sometime tomorrow morning between 6 and 11 o'clock.

Radio Station KGO will come on the air at 4:00 a.m. to cover the launching.

Hotel Electricity Told In Article By Fairfax Man

Lloyd G. Dehrer, a 14-year resident of Fairfax now living at 21 Meadow Way, is author of "Electrical System Features of the Jack Tar Hotel" in the last month's issue of Electrical Construction and Maintenance, national McGraw-Hill magazine for maintenance experts.

Dehrer was electrical engineer in charge of construction for the Jack Tar structure in San Francisco. His article describes the hotel's complex of TV communication provisions designed to speed up service without losing the human touch.

Motoring guests who drive into the garage lobby, Dehrer writes, are advised by luminous signs to park and step into a television registration booth where they see their room clerk (up at the lobby desk) on a television screen as they register and get colored-light instructions.

Novato City Council To Hear 101 Report

The meeting had been scheduled today, but is being postponed so all councilmen can attend, Mrs. Mary Summers, county planning director, will report on a city-financed survey of traffic on the highway, which runs through the Novato business section. The report will influence whether the city will continue to attempt to have the highway rerouted outside the city.

High school students enrolled in the current class in "Introduction to Problems of the Handicapped" will see a demonstration at Marindale School at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow, conducted by Marindale teachers with the program under the auspices of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

Two more classes are scheduled, according to Kreig S. Vezie, director. Thursday night, the program will be sponsored by the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults with Mrs. Gertrude Cherry as speaker. The class will be held at 7:30 p.m. in room 200 at Redwood High School, Larkspur.

Protest Expected In Novato Over Proposed PG&E Line

A delegation of homeowners from Indian Valley near Novato is expected at Monday's county planning commission meeting to protest the route of a proposed Pacific Gas and Electric Co. high voltage line.

At least five homeowners, led by Elizabeth E. Debaun, say the tentative route will either mean the end of their homes, be an unsightly nuisance or affect radio and television reception.

220 VOLTAGE

PG&E proposes two 220-volt lines from the Ignacio substation and from the Lakeville substation in Sonoma County, across Marin to the proposed atomic power plant at Bodega Bay.

The lines would be on steel towers with a median height of 130 feet, a maximum of 170 feet. An easement of 120 feet, where no building may be, would be sought under the line.

County planning staff members said the exact location of the lines still may be open to question, as PG&E has not surveyed the route.

ITS COURSE

As shown on the application, the line would pass just south of the junction of Indian Valley Road and what was Arroyo Avichi. It would extend along the ridge to the rear of Rickey's Rancho Rafael and Novato Fire Station No. 2, skirting the most developed areas of southwest Novato. It would cross Novato Boulevard just east of Stafford Dam and head for Bodega Bay paralleling the Marin-Sonoma border.

Footpaths To Modern Freeways —History of Local Travel On TV

The story of how Bay Area freeways and major highways developed from Indian footpaths, horseback trails and wheel-rutted roads will be told tomorrow night at 7 o'clock on KGO.

The "Expedition—California" program has been entitled "Footpaths to Freeways." It will feature the histories of such thoroughfares as our Highway 101, El Camino Real, Skyline Boulevard, Highways 40 and 50, the St. Helena Toll Road and Oakland's Tunnel Road.

Also to be shown are some of the unusual vehicles—the carretas, covered wagons, gas buggies, cable cars, horse cars, etc.—that have traveled these routes.

DR. WALLACE STERLING
Guest on 'Career' show

COVERAGE of the U.S. astronaut flight will, of course, if it takes place as scheduled, result in wholesale revision of tomorrow's television schedule. KGO has slated an evening wrap-up of its coverage for 10:30.

ALSO TOMORROW night: The guest on "Career" (7:30 on KPIX) will be Dr. J. E. Wallace Sterling, president of Stanford University, who will be quizzed by students of his own school concerning education as a profession; conducting the Chicago Symphony in the "Great Music from Chicago" concert (9 o'clock on KTVU) will be Fritz Reiner in a program including two Strauss waltzes and a Schubert symphony; and "The Square World of Jack Paar," a travelogue with laughs, will be given a repeat showing at 10 o'clock on KRON.

AS FOR TONIGHT, KRON will carry an NBC news special, "May Day in Moscow," at 9 o'clock. The network is cooperating with the British Broadcasting Corp. in bringing the big Soviet spectacle to U.S. viewers on the same day it takes place. The parade was televised live in Moscow and transmitted to London on a special BBC hookup. In London, the live signal was converted to U.S. television standards and recorded on tape which is being flown to New York for tonight's broadcast.

Also scheduled for this evening: Dr. Jack Finegan of the Pacific School of Religion will tell how the sources of the Bible have been preserved and also something about the new translations of the Holy Book on "Science in Action" at 7 o'clock on KRON; Dr. James B. Conant, president emeritus of Harvard University, chemist and diplomat, will be interviewed on KQED's "Kaleidoscope" at 8 o'clock; Gov. Edmund G. Brown will appear on KRON at 9:30 to explain his stand on the narcotics problem; and the movie, "The Informer," will be shown on KPIX at 11:15 and repeated at the same time on the following three nights. The film, made in 1935, is the drama of the Irish Revolution which won for the late Victor McLaglen an Academy Award as that year's best actor.

WEDNESDAY'S "Play of the Week," (KTVU, 8 p.m.) will be Truman Capote's romantic fantasy about the pure in heart, "The Grass Harp." Lillian Gish makes one of her infrequent TV appearances to co-star with Carmen Mathews. Former San Francisco comedienne Jane Connell also has a role.

Neck Injuries Can Be Serious

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

A Detroit doctor says cars should be equipped with headrests. He states a driver's head is likely to snap back and cause a neck injury if the car is struck from the rear.

Neck injuries often are dismissed too lightly. The slight stiffness in the neck you may notice after a fall or a minor accident can develop into serious trouble.

Your neck has seven of the twenty-four bones or vertebrae of the spine. A fall or accident that snaps your neck may push one of the vertebrae out of line. This means that your spine will be out of line and the misaligned vertebrae are likely to pinch nerves leading to cells, muscles and organs. Any part of your body can break down when this happens. All parts of the body must receive vital nerve impulses from the brain to function properly. A lack of proper nerve impulses can cause almost any sickness you can name.

For safety, be examined by a chiropractor for any stiffness or tenderness of the neck or back.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201. (Adv.)

Student From Panama Falls In Love—'With Lemon Pie'

Promptly Gains 20 Pounds, And The Chicken Pox

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

Exchange student Victoria Geneteau from Panama City came to San Rafael in August, caught chicken pox, fell in love with lemon pie and promptly gained 20 pounds.

Now she laughs at the discomfort of that children's disease (the first she ever had), vows she still loves food (and especially that lemon pie), but is counting calories to take off those pounds before she goes home in June.

Vicky is an attractive young lady with wide brown eyes, very intent on learning English well, eager to study home economics or interior decoration in college, anxious to do so many things. ("I don't know what the future is going to give me. Maybe I have too many hopes.")

As a senior at San Rafael High School, Vicky is busy pursuing her goal of perfecting her English. She is taking both junior and senior English, physical education, U.S. history, health education and art.

Her life outside of school is a very busy one, too. As an American Field Service exchange student, she has a full calendar of speaking engagements. Not only does she lecture; she also demonstrates the dances of her country in colorful native costume.

Vicky is living with the Clarence Leisure family at 648 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, and completely enjoying her oportunity to learn about a different culture and people.

"It is different here," she says thoughtfully. "People are real busy — sometimes excessively busy. They are so worried to gain money, to live better, sometimes they don't enjoy life. When they look for the pleasant of life, it is gone," she observes, a bit ungrammatically, but expressively.

Vicky has not been homesick since she arrived, except for a few days at Christmas time. "Maybe it is because I am so busy I can't think of home. My mind is always occupied with something," she says.

She declares, with much enthusiasm and laughter: "I like everything, especially food!" For the past few weeks she has been dieting, and her American family has been much amused to see her frantically counting calories at night.

American sweets and pastries have been her downfall; in Panama there are more tropical fruits in the diet.

She has been impressed by all the liberty an American teen-ager has, and all the opportunities here to study. "It's a shame they don't know it," she says. In Panama students have to buy their own school books, paper and other supplies.

At San Rafael High Vicky is a yell leader, and was elected president of the International Club.

She is an avid collector of recipes wherever she goes, and pastes them all in a scrapbook one of her American "sisters" gave her for Christmas. A few months ago she prepared a Spanish dish — chicken and rice — which was a big hit in the family. The neighbors keep asking when she will make it again.

Vicky wishes all teen-agers could be sent on trips away from their parents for awhile. She feels that such travels help young people appreciate more the advice of their parents. The experience also makes the teen-ager more mature, she says.

She is looking forward to college — at the University of Panama, or perhaps in the United States. She has been eyeing the program offered by the University of California at Davis.

One thing she is very firm about: when she has children, they will be taught many languages. "If they start really early, they can learn a lot of languages real easy," she says.

Arnold Dolcini To Join Marin Education Board

Arnold Dolcini Jr., newly elected member of the Marin County Board of Education, will be sworn in at a meeting of the board at 8 o'clock tonight.

Dolcini is to represent the newly formed Trustee Area 7 comprising Burdell, Laguna, Lincoln, Tomales Bay and Union Elementary Districts.

Also taking the oath of office will be three re-elected members: Roberg G. Randolph for Mill Valley-Sausalito, Harry N. Press for Ross Valley, and OB Cavanagh for West Marin.

This will precede reports and recommendations of committees on salaries, and personnel and a progress report on the Marindale School addition. A contract for the Marindale work will be awarded.

Recommendations will be submitted by Supt. Virgil S. Hollis on employment contracts, staff changes and temporary employment, as well as text books and applications for life diplomas.

Funds For Retarded

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Prown has called for an additional $1,141,000 to meet what he called a "critical and unprecedented upsurge" in the number of retarded children waiting for admission to a state institution.

Marin Jewish Center Planning Summer Camp

For the ninth year, Camp Rafa-El, sponsored by the Marin Jewish Community Center, will offer a variety of outdoor activities this summer to all children in the county between three and 12 years of age.

The camp program includes games, swimming, dramatics, arts and crafts, nature lore, sports, cookouts and journalism. The camp uses a variety of public parks in the county as sites, and offers the swim program at home pools.

The program will again be carried out in two major groups: for 3-to-5-year olds and for children from 5 through 12. Children in the pre-school group meet at the center each day where they utilize the facilities of the nursery school. Children in the school age group travel by bus to different sites, using the center as "home base." Transportation to and from camp, from all major cities in the county, will also be available to campers in the school age group.

Hours in the pre-school group are from 9:30 to 12:30, and from 9:30 to 3:30 in the school age group. The camp meets five days a week for nine weeks during the summer as follows: Session 1, June 26 to July 14; session 2, July 17 to Aug. 4; session 3, Aug. 7 to Aug. 25.

A few months ago she prepared a Spanish dish — chicken and rice — which was a big hit in the family. The neighbors keep asking when she will make it again.

Vicky wishes all teen-agers could be sent on trips away from their parents for awhile. She feels that such travels help young people appreciate more the advice of their parents. The experience also makes the teenager more mature, she says.

She is looking forward to college — at the University of Panama, or perhaps in the United States. She has been eyeing the program offered by the University of California at Davis.

Vicky wants to get married after completing her college education. Husbands in Panama don't like their wives to work, she notes.

One thing she is very firm about: when she has children, they will be taught many languages. "If they start really early, they can learn a lot of languages real easy," she says.

Arnold Dolcini To Join Marin Education Board

Arnold Dolcini Jr., newly elected member of the Marin County Board of Education, will be sworn in at a meeting of the board at 8 o'clock tonight.

Dolcini is to represent the newly formed Trustee Area 7 comprising Burdell, Laguna, Lincoln, Tomales Bay and Union Elementary Districts.

Also taking the oath of office will be three re-elected members: Roberg G. Randolph for Mill Valley-Sausalito, Harry N. Press for Ross Valley, and OB Cavanagh for West Marin.

This will precede reports and recommendations of committees on salaries, and personnel and a progress report on the Marindale School addition. A contract for the Marindale work will be awarded.

Recommendations will be submitted by Supt. Virgil S. Hollis on employment contracts, staff changes and temporary employment, as well as text books and applications for life diplomas.

Funds For Retarded

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Prown has called for an additional $1,141,000 to meet what he called a "critical and unprecedented upsurge" in the number of retarded children waiting for admission to a state institution.

Marin Jewish Center Planning Summer Camp

For the ninth year, Camp Rafa-El, sponsored by the Marin Jewish Community Center, will offer a variety of outdoor activities this summer to all children in the county between three and 12 years of age.

The camp program includes games, swimming, dramatics, arts and crafts, nature lore, sports, cookouts and journalism. The camp uses a variety of public parks in the county as sites, and offers the swim program at home pools.

Hours in the pre-school group are from 9:30 to 12:30, and from 9:30 to 3:30 in the school age group. The camp meets five days a week for nine weeks during the summer as follows: Session 1, June 26 to July 14; session 2, July 17 to Aug. 4; session 3, Aug. 7 to Aug. 25.

Promptly Gains 20 Pounds, And The Chicken Pox

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

Exchange student Victoria Geneteau from Panama City came to San Rafael in August, caught chicken pox, fell in love with lemon pie and promptly gained 20 pounds.

Now she laughs at the discomfort of that children's disease (the first she ever had), vows she still loves food (and especially that lemon pie), but is counting calories to take off those pounds before she goes home in June.

Vicky is an attractive young lady with wide brown eyes, very intent on learning English well, eager to study home economics or interior decoration in college, anxious to do so many things. ("I don't know what the future is going to give me. Maybe I have too many hopes.")

As a senior at San Rafael High School, Vicky is busy pursuing her goal of perfecting her English. She is taking both junior and senior English, physical education, U.S. history, health education and art.

Her life outside of school is a very busy one, too. As an American Field Service exchange student, she has a full calendar of speaking engagements. Not only does she lecture; she also demonstrates the dances of her country in colorful native costume.

Vicky is living with the Clarence Leisure family at 648 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, and completely enjoying her opportunity to learn about a different culture and people.

"It is different here," she says thoughtfully. "People are real busy — sometimes excessively busy. They are so worried to gain money, to live better, sometimes they don't enjoy life. When they look for the pleasant of life, it is gone," she observes, a bit ungrammatically, but expressively.

Vicky has not been homesick since she arrived, except for a few days at Christmas time. "Maybe it is because I am so busy I can't think of home. My mind is always occupied with something," she says.

She declares, with much enthusiasm and laughter: "I like everything, especially food!" For the past few weeks she has been dieting, and her American family has been much amused to see her frantically counting calories at night.

American sweets and pastries have been her downfall; in Panama there are more tropical fruits in the diet.

She has been impressed by all the liberty an American teen-ager has, and all the opportunities here to study. "It's a shame they don't know it," she says. In Panama students have to buy their own school books, paper and other supplies.

At San Rafael High Vicky is a yell leader, and was elected president of the International Club.

She is an avid collector of recipes wherever she goes, and pastes them all in a scrapbook one of her American "sisters" gave her for Christmas. A few months ago she prepared a Spanish dish — chicken and rice — which was a big hit in the family. The neighbors keep asking when she will make it again.
